Mary E. Taylor seeks freedom from Vernon Wells Taylor. Complaint filed October 16. Plaintiff is represented by a Portland attorney. The parties mentioned were married at Vancouver, Washington, November 26, 1887. The plaintiff is, however, a resident of Corvallis at present and has been for some time past. The charges are cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff alleges that on June 3, 1913, defendant left her and two children, aged 9 and 11 years, respectively, leaving with another woman. She recites that at one time she traveled fifteen or more miles before she could locate her husband, and when she did find him he was living in furnished rooms with the woman in question. And at another time he became infatuated with another woman, and that since then he has arranged his affairs and business so he can be away from their own fire-side, and away from said plaintiff, and further, he insists on being in company with this other woman and having her with him most of the time, and is still with her in parts unknown, therefore plaintiff asks for a decree of divorce.

In an action for money Laurel M. Hoyt sues for the sum of $98.25, and $30 attorney fees. The defendants are W. E. Babb and wife and A. E. McCumsey and wife. The mortgaged property is lot 10, block 41, North Plains.
