Ladies' Kilties Band Coming

Only the most enjoyable parts of the best liked grand operas have been selected by the Ladies Kilties Band, which will appear in this city at the Star Theatre Tuesday afternoon Nov. 11th, for its concert. There are many who do not care for the works of the great masters because there is so much of their music that does not appeal to the heart. But the heart songs have been taken from "Ill Trovatore," "Faust," "Lucia," and others, as well as the best from numerous light operas; and they form a part of the most delightful band concert ever heard here. There are also a collection of well known airs of Bonnie Scotland including the songs that have made Harry Lauder famous, the most liked melodies from the old Southern plantations, and the best of up-to-date music. The Kimball Sisters, cornet soloists, appear in a duet that has made them famous thruout vaudeville centers in the East. Hattie Heath, primer dancer of Highland flings learned her method of entertaining from old fling dancers under the shadow of Edinburgh Castle. An evening spent at the concert of the Ladies Kilties Band is not only an evening of pleasure but one of education as well.
