

The PRESS is desirous of publishing all the social events of the week, and your phone call or a letter with the particulars of any social or other event will be greatly appreciated. Phone number, Main 502. Items should be at the office by Wednesday afternoon, or earlier if possible.

Woman's Club Meeting—The Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Haines Monday afternoon with a good attendance.

Mrs. Charles Walker opened the program with one of her much appreciated musical selections.

Mrs. E. L. Graham was unanimously elected a member of the club.

Monday being "Library Day" of the club, Miss Cornelia Marzin, State Librarian, who had expected to discuss "The Library as a Civic Center," was unable to be here. However, Miss Farnham gave a splendid synopsis of the Italian poet, Rosetti, which served as a very fine substitute.

Mrs. H. L. Russell recited "Behind the Curtain" to the deep appreciation of those present and graciously responded to a hearty encore.

Mrs. O. M. Sanford gave a splendid outline of the growth of the library since she has acted in the capacity of city librarian.

She spoke of the convenience of the Rest Room; of the many country people as well as those of the town who took advantage of it, and also of the good that has come of having this library. A special point of interest to all is the increase in the number of library books from 300 at the time Mrs. Sanford became librarian to 1600 at the present time.

Mrs. M. A. Thomas Entertains—The first card party of the season was given by Mrs. Mary Thomas at her home on Second street Saturday night, November 8th.

The decorations of the rooms were unusually attractive. In the parlors were soft lights, green ferns and carnations. The dining room was in autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. The other rooms were in yellow and autumn leaves. The punch bowl stood in the midst of beautiful ferns. At eleven the guests were served a dainty luncheon. Card favors fell to Mrs. Frank J. Miller, first; Mrs. Earl Brookbank, second; Mr. I. J. Hoar, first; Mr. F. J. Miller, second, while Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Haskel Ferrin consoled themselves with the consolation. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sprague of Garden Home, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson Macrum, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brookbank, Mr. and Mrs. Haskel Ferrin, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meresse, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hoar, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Giltner, Misses J. Ness Miller, Buelah Ireland, and Goodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley C. Peterson, who were married last week in St. Johns have taken up their permanent home in the pretty bungalow formerly owned by Mr. Hatfield. The nuptials occurred at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. A. Robertson, in the presence of relatives and a few friends. Rev. Milton St. John, of Portland, performed the ceremony. Miss Louise Couch, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Prof. W. I. Smith, of Walla Walla College, was best man. Mrs. Peterson is the daughter of K. C. Couch, a former state representative, and for three terms mayor of St. Johns. She was very popular in her city and was very pretty in a gown of crepe meteor, brocaded with chiffon and caught up with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Mr. Peterson is a graduate of Walla Walla College, of which his brother, F. W. Peterson, is manager. His former home has been at McMinnville, where his father now lives.

The PRESS wishes them bon voyage, and the people welcome them to our city.

Musical Program Pleases—A delightful musical program was given by the students of Miss Darling November 5 at the Odd Fellows' Hall.

All of the pupils acquitted themselves well, as the audience testified. The pupils were: Margaret Smith, Ernestine Tucker, Beth Emmerson, Marie Scheidel, Millie Ornduff, Walter Lenneville, Hugh Weik, Ruth Patton, Minnie Greig, Norma Dixon, Kittie Weik, Grace Gibson, Edith Weik, Cecelia Bernard, Velma McConkie, Mabel Patton, Irene Sappington, Fern Goodenote, Evelyn Patton, Annie Van Loo, Mrs. R. Hill, Opal Dixon.

Silver Tea—Mrs. George F. Taplin entertained a number of ladies at her home Friday afternoon at one of those popular silver Teas. The afternoon was pleasantly spent by all present.

Epworth League Entertains—Last Friday evening the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church held a social for its members and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle.

A jolly crowd of young people were there by 8.30 and spent the evening in playing games and music, and at a late hour all left for their various homes, declaring the evening pleasantly and profitably spent.

Young People Entertain—The Intermediate League of the Methodist church held a supper in the church parlors Wednesday evening. After a bountiful supper games were played and a jolly evening spent by all present.

Salmagundi Serial—Mrs. W. Q. Tucker held the first of a series of the Salmagundi Serial last Friday afternoon. Eight ladies were present and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

Fleur De Lis Club Meet—The Fleur De Lis Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Meresse. The ladies spent the afternoon doing fancy work and in conversation. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Birthday Party—Miss Bernice Via of Buxton, celebrated her seventh birthday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Via, in the Grove Monday. Seven children were invited and spent a jolly afternoon with games. Refreshments were served the little guests.

Royal Neighbors Entertain—Mrs. L. M. Graham entertained the Royal Neighbors last Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. S. Allen, who leaves this week for Oakland, California. During the afternoon Prof. Bean photographed the Neighbors as a memento for Mrs. Allen to take with her to her new home. Those present were: Mesdames F. Emerson, R. F. Emerson, Aldrich, Lenneville, S. Allen, M. S. Allen, Potwin, Sappington, McKay, Ives, Stockman, Fogel, Patton, Roswurm, Fritz, Graham, Lasham, Marshall.

Former Grove People Celebrate Golden Wedding at Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Littler and daughter, Florence, went to Salem yesterday to be present at the golden wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Littler, who were married in Indiana, but who have lived in Oregon for about fifteen years. They were residents of this city for several years until three years ago when they moved to the state capital. There are three children, J. B. Littler of Harrisburg, Mrs. A. A. Underhill of Salem, and Charles Lit-ler who is owner of Littler's Pharmacy of this city.

Mrs. Hoffman Entertains—Mrs. A. G. Hoffman entertained a number of friends at her home Wednesday afternoon at cafe noir. This was the second number of a series of afternoon socials by the Methodist ladies.

Bachelor Girls Meet—The Bachelor Girls met Tuesday evening at the home of Florence Templeton in North Forest Grove. After the short business session they proceeded to initiate two new members into the mysteries of the club. The hostess then invited the girls into the dining room where a delicious luncheon was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in fancy work, music and a jolly good time.

The Berean Club of the Christian church met for their regular monthly meeting at the home of B. J. Simpson and by a peculiar coincidence the young ladies gathered at the same time with Mrs. Simpson, but nevertheless the regular business was transacted separately then came the social time with refreshments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and the Misses Grace Newton, Iva Conger, Jennie Jackson, Laura Davidson, Mary Woell, Mary Newman and Maud Sparks; Messrs Kennard Dixon, Roy Jackson, Claude Davis, Rex Dallas, Orville Hutchins, Harold Waldron, Guy Aydelott and Frank Mott. A month ago the Berean Club started with a membership of eight to get 50 members and they already have 18. Kennard Dixon is president, Ray Jackson, sec'y and Claude Davis treasurer.

Couple Quietly Married.

Romantic and interesting are the pranks of the little God Cupid and his pranks have just come to light concerning a couple now living in Hillsboro. August 19th Dr. Chas. H. Pollock and Miss Florence Dooley quietly slipped away to Astoria and were married by Rev. Van Fossen pastor of the Astoria Methodist. Mrs. Pollock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dooley of Banks. Dr. Pollock is a brother of Dr. William Pollock of this city. The reason the couple have managed to keep their marriage a secret the past 3 months was the fact that the bride has been living with her parents and the Dr. employed at his profession in Hillsboro and it was only last week the bride went to Hillsboro to make her home with her husband.

M. E. Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church were pleasantly entertained at the church parlors last Wednesday with Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Kirkwood as hostesses. A delicious luncheon was enjoyed by all.

The intermediate C. E. held a social in the Congregational church parlors Tuesday evening. Games were played after which punch and cookies were served. All had a pleasant evening.

Garfield Jenson, who has been in the Canada country for a couple of years, returned home the first of the week. He has traveled some over this country and looks as though the scenery did him good. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jenson who live on Fourth street.

Henderson Smith, of Banks, was on business to the Grove Saturday.

High School Notes

The pupils of the public school are enjoying a three day's vacation this week on account of Teacher's Institute.

The Misses Fowler and Loynes gave a dinner for the High School students last Friday.

The High School students received their report card for the first six weeks, last Friday. Some of the students find that they will have to get down to harder study.

Lyceum Concert Next Wednesday Evening.

The patrons of the Lyceum Lecture Course are requested to bear in mind the concert to be given November 19th. This will be in many ways the best concert ever given in Forest Grove, considering variety of program and quality of artists engaged. Single reserved seats, 50 cents at Littler's.

The artists to appear are: Euphonium soloist, Mr. Henney; pianist, Miss Van Dyke; harpist, Miss Carmel Sullivan; baritone soloist, Mr. Evans; mezzo soprano, Madame Pauline Miller Chapman.

Mrs. H. B. Glaisyer is visiting at the home of her father, J. Heluli, in Portland, this week. H. B. looks ill as a result—he is doing his own cooking.

Mrs. Charles Miller and daughter are visiting this week with Mrs. Chas. E. Roe.

Mrs. J. A. Elder and son were in Portland shopping Saturday.

Mrs. F. L. Fox was visiting her aunt Mrs. F. H. Nephew in Milwaukie this week.

Mr. Rhenimer and family who have been living on a farm north of town moved to Oak Park last week, where they will make their home.

WANT EXPERIMENTAL FARM

Never Has Been Determined What Section Offers in Agricultural Way. Klamath Falls.—The first steps have been taken to get an experimental farm for Klamath county. The county court has been asked to make a special levy to employ an expert and to maintain the farm. The members of the court have signified a willingness to further the movement.

Farming in the Klamath country is yet in the experimental state. A farm conducted under an expert should prove of material assistance to the early development of the farm lands of the vast area embraced in Klamath county. Rapid strides in farming have been made in recent years.

Unitarians Will Meet.

Hood River.—The North Pacific conference of Unitarian churches will be held at Hood River November 11, 12 and 13. The Unitarian churches of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana will be represented in the conference.

Market Basket Day in Klamath.

Klamath Falls.—Plans have been practically completed for holding a weekly market day in this city. The chamber of commerce and the Klamath Water Users' association have endorsed the movement. It is planned to get the producers and the consumers in direct contact.

Youthful Burglars Have Winter Shoes

Albany.—A double robbery involving the theft of $300 worth of doctor's implements, six pairs of shoes and $10 in cash from a store is believed to have been committed here by two 17-year-old Independence boys.
