All Around Town

Al. Sexton to the Rescue—Not many nights ago Al. Sexton, night-watchman for the Southern Pacific at the South Forest Grove depot, discovered a break in the water main that might have worked considerable damage had not Al.'s eagle optics discovered the break about ten o'clock at night, after the water had flooded the railroad track. Al. phoned to the water commissioner at Hillsboro. It took over a day to make the repairs.

Old Time Hop Man Visits City—Will Porter, who used to be associated with his brother Robert in the hop business here, was visiting in this city Friday. He is in the hop and potato business near Salem. He made a big cleanup with his spuds, and sold his hops for 22 1/2 cents. Mr. Porter and "Bill" Ingles built the George Naylor brick away back in 1891. He left here about eight years ago. He is a brother of Mrs. Felix Verhoeven.

Bill Gets Tryout With Big League—Bill Martin, our Bill, the local baseball slasher, says that he has signed a contract with the Seattle team of the Northwest League and will get a month's tryout with that bunch in the Spring. Bill pitched a couple of years ago for Pacific University, and has been on the mound for Mount Angel and this town. He is the son of E. H. Martin.

Bryant and Moore, Football Stars—In that big football battle at Albany Saturday between O. A. C. and the U. of O., and which resulted in a 10 to 10 score, friends in this city were much interested in the work of two men—Raymond Bryant, fullback for the Eugene team, and Frank Moore, right guard for the Aggies. Moore is a brother of Omar Moore, of this place, and Raymond Bryant, who has proved a bright spot on the varsity contingent, was a college student at Pacific University a couple of years ago, where he was baseball pitcher, track man and football hero.

Fine Hop House Completed—Robert Porter has just put the finishing touches on his new hop house northeast of town. It is one of the finest in the county, with double kiln and store room under the main roof; has a 20-foot cupola and is painted red. It took 60,000 shingles to cover the roof.

Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kelly are receiving congratulations over the advent of a bright-eyed baby boy at their home Saturday evening. "Kelly & Son, Expert House Decorators," won't read so bad in a few years—what? Sunday Kelly not only had on the green necktie that the song writer tells us about but also the Quaker Oats smile.

Last August Beaverton and other points along the Oregon Electric Railway organized the Rate Club, the purpose of which is to reduce the fare from these points into Portland. They are asking for a five cent fare from Garden Home into the city and a cent and a half fare within the commutation limits, which is sixteen miles. If the Club is successful in getting the reduction, it will not only benefit the towns which are working for it but those farther along the line. When the Club was organized it had a membership of about 250, with the dues fixed at not more than $1.50 a year. Now they are raising funds to push the work and bring it before the Railroad Commission. They are asking only $1.25 from any one party, and if any one cares to help in the fight which these towns are heading send the money to Mr. Grey, of the Beaverton bank. The men who are working hardest for this say that from all indications there is no doubt but what they will win out.

Another Landmark Gone—Ed. Boos, who is now in the employ of the city doing clerical work, has had torn down an old landmark of this city which stood on his place. The old barn was built fifty years ago and was used by Thomas H. Tongue at that time. Mr. Tongue was then attending school here and rode from Hillsboro on horseback and kept the horse in the barn.

"The Other Wise Man"—A very enthusiastic and appreciative audience saw the many beautiful pictures illustrating "The Other Wise Man" at the Christian church Monday evening. The program consisted of many beautifully illustrated songs also. Such an evening's program as the people of the Christian church gave is to be highly commended by all.

No More Football for Reuben This Year—Reuben Frost, who had his back badly kinked in the bag rush "All College Day" is back in school, although he still walks with his hand on his hip. It will not be necessary for his mother to advise him to stay out of football the rest of the year.

Moved to the Grove—Mr. Staal and family of Watts district are moving into the Grove this week and will make their home in S. Gibson's house on B street. Mr. Gibson and family have moved into their new residence on 1st ave.

Move to Forest Grove—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Haynes and daughter of Silverton arrived in the Grove Tuesday and will make their future home here. Mr. Haynes is a brother of Mrs. W. H. Barker of this city.

Moves Into His New Home—W. H. McEldowney and family this week moved into their handsome new home on First avenue, north. It is one of the prettiest residences in town with its deep porch running across the front and east side. The living room and reception hall are large with only two massive columns to separate, and the dining room with its windowed sliding doors, panneled wainscoting and buffet is very striking. The woodwork of the whole interior is done in golden oak, except the kitchen which is in gray. It is needless to say that our friend W. P. Scheetz, of this city, proved that he is a master hand when he did the interior decorating.

Grove Boy Tree Expert in Canada—Gordon Brown, a graduate of Pacific University, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown of this city, has lately been appointed agricultural advisor in his district in Canada. He is now inspecting trees of different nurseries which must be done before they can go out to the orchards. He has 30,000 trees to inspect.

P. E. O. Chapter Meets—The regular meeting of the P. E. O. Chapter was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Scott Tuesday afternoon. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Forest Grove Folks in New York City—Helen Bishop, who is taking post graduate work at Columbia University, New York, in dietetics and physical culture, writes her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Bishop of this city, that she likes her work there fine and that she has seen Pres. W. N. Ferris and J. K. Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Livingston and who graduated from the University of Wisconsin last June where he was president of the senior class. He has a fine position in New York City.

Former Resident Dies—J. G. Stanley, a former resident of this city who was visiting his son in Portland, died there last Thursday. Mrs. I. G. Parker, of this city, is a daughter of Mr. Stanley.

Max Smith, of the Kansas City district, recently sold his farm to an Eastern man, and has moved with his family to this city.

Clarence Joy, who was thrown from a buggy three weeks ago and received a fracture of the left ankle, is now able to come up town with the help of crutches. This is the third time that Clarence has had bones broken, and the next time he is looking for his neck to go. He is some ball player and played a star game with the Gaston team last summer. He is visiting his father, W. B. Joy, of this city.

W. H. Bowman, of David's Hill, is building an addition to his house. The Willis-Place Lumber Company is furnishing the material.

Ralph Fritz, who recently traded his town property for the LaMont farm west of town, is building a new house and barn. Forest Grove carpenters are doing the work.

An eight pound baby girl was left at the home of Oscar W. Peterson, of North Fifth Street, Sunday, by Teddy Roosevelt's favorite bird, the stork.

Rev. D. W. Cook, of this city, has bought the O. W. Isham residence on Fifth street near the new high school. There is a half acre to the property and lots of fruit trees in bearing. The consideration was $2400 and the deal was made through the Good Investment Company.

W. F. Stockman and son and little grandson, Lyle Paterson, spent Wednesday in Hillsboro with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harrington.

Mrs. J. S. Buxton is visiting this week with her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Covert of Springfield. Mr. Covert is in the employ of the Southern Pacific railroad.

William Brumbach and wife of Illawaco, Wash., visited at J. S. Buxton's home last week.

Mrs. E. F. Scott, of South Park, who has been quite ill the past week is at present writing much better.

Mrs. S. B. Lawrence and granddaughter, Esther Fisk, visited her daughter, Mrs. D. Fisk, at Scholl's Ferry Friday.

The missionary meeting of the Congregational church met with Mrs. M. House, Mrs. Wilbur McEldowney sang delightfully as she always does.

His many friends in this city will be pleased to learn of the splendid success Frank Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fletcher, of this city, is having as traveling salesman with the Beaver Board Company. Frank has just been up into Canada, and while there encountered a severe snow storm. He is working in Montana and has Spokane for his headquarters. Frank will work the territory between Spokane and Portland, beginning the first of December, and in January go with a bunch of representatives to Buffalo, with all expenses paid.

John Carstens, a well known citizen and hop grower of Banks, was a visitor to this city last Saturday.

Robert Draughbaugh, foreman of a big smelting plant in Southern Oregon, has been visiting George Draughbaugh at Fruit Vale. There has been trouble in camp and the men are in Portland until matters can be adjusted.

Last Saturday John Baldwin and John Butler went to Oregon City, to be present at the regular monthly meeting of the drum corps.

Dr. C. E. Walker was a Portland visitor last Saturday.

Principal Bates was a Portland passenger Saturday.
