Mr. Rivett, ex-Blacksmith, Now Raises Apples

Ed. Rivett was in from his ranch a few days ago with a load of his fine apples. Mr. Rivett says that he is a full-blooded Frenchman; was known as the little Frenchman in Michigan for 36 years. "My mother was born in Ireland and my father was an Englishman, so that makes me a Frenchman," said Mr. Rivett. K. N. Staehr, the bazaar man, stood by sipping a glass of coco cola and remarked that Mr. Rivett, the ex-blacksmith, must be some relation to Ben Bolt. Is it any wonder that K. N. writes such clever advertisements during his Christmas sales.

Mrs. Lizzie Clark Loses Suit

In the case of Lizzie Clark vs. Jos. Hare and Arthur Gilkinson for $15,000 for alleged injuries in their logging camp in the Buxton neighborhood, the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant. Mrs. Clark formerly lived here and conducted a restaurant on Pacific Avenue, between First and Second streets. She was engaged by the logging company to cook at their camp and alleged in her suit that a tree had been felled across the cook house and that the tree and boards struck her, with a cracked shoulder, broken ribs and bruised back as a result. Her attorneys were Brownell & Stone, while the company was represented by Bagley & Hare.

NO MORE DULL MONTHS FOR WIDE AWAKE STORES.

Plenty of Business at All Times For Those Who Go After It.

Under the caption "Dull Months Out of Style" the Kansas City Times says: "A dull month? Not on your cash register! Dull months are for dull people, not for live ones."

"If you were a carpenter and your saw was dull would you say, 'I can't work this month—my saw is dull?'"

"Not for one blessed minute!" "You'd get up in the morning and file that saw before breakfast. You'd put an edge on that saw that would make it eat its way through an oak board like a ten-year-old boy through a piece of pumpkin pie."

"The live merchant or manufacturer does exactly the same thing. The minute he sees the first faint sign of approaching dullness he sharpens up his business tools and goes after more business."

"And he gets it too." "He uses more advertising and better advertising. He uses better illustrations and stronger copy. He plans new campaigns while his competitors sleep. He pulls every string. He does not leave a single stone unturned."

"The man who expects trade to be dull and is willing it should be dull will have it dull."

"The man who leans back in his chair and says, 'I'll take it easy now, for this month will be dull anyway,' will get just what he's looking for."

"It's all in your mind." "This prattle about 'dull seasons' is a mongrel theory, sired by mental weakness, mothered by indifference and nursed by the universal tendency of human nature to fight shy of work."

"Suppose there are one or two or five thousand people gone out of town on their summer vacations. There are more visitors than that that come into town every day."

"There is plenty of business to be got if you only make up your mind to go after it. We can have what we want in this world provided we're not afraid to work and sweat and advertise."

"You can have dull months if you want them, but you'll be out of date if you do. They're not in style any more."

Nelly—If you follow the directions faithfully, I will wager my sweetest smile you'll gain 16 pounds by taking three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

The Souls of Flowers

Mingle in happy union in the exquisite perfumes we carry. Scents are as difficult to blend into harmony as sounds. It takes almost as high an order of ability to make true perfumes as is required to write good music.

No wonder so much of the perfumes offered is rank, flat and unsatisfactory. If not wholly pleased with the odors you are now using, we would like to have you try some of the delightful ones we handle. Costs you no more than the poorer kinds.

GOVERNOR WEST'S PLAN FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

SALEM, DEC. 1.—(To the Editor.)—We wish to ask your kind co-operation in a movement to connect our unemployed with a job. There are undoubtedly many residents of your county who could use the services of a good hand this winter and there are many idle men in Portland and other cities in this state who would be glad to have a place.

If you will be kind enough to run this letter and attached information blank in a few issues of your paper our plan will be called to the attention of those needing a hand. Any requests for labor made to our office will at once be taken up with those who are hunting for employment.

Assuring you that your co-operation will be greatly appreciated, I am
Yours very truly,
OSWALD WEST
Governor
