SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County.
 Charles L. Lousignont, Plaintiff, vs.
 Emma Lousignont, Defendant.

To Emma F. Lousignont, Defendant.
 In the name of the State of Oregon:
 You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before the expiration of six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: The 15th day of January, 1914, and if you fail to answer for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: For the dissolution of the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other relief as may seem meet and equitable in the premises, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, rendering his life burdensome.

DILLEY

Mrs. J. W. Hughes spent Sunday at Cornelius, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Challacombe.

The Ladies Aid met Monday afternoon at the parsonage for the last time before the bazaar, to finish all the sewing.

Chas. O'Neil and family spent Sunday at C. A. Broderson's.

The Artisans gave another dance and supper last Saturday evening, and a good time is reported.

H. M. Sailing spent a couple of days in Portland last week.

J. W. Hughes is attending the stock show in Portland this week.

Mrs. G. Stuart gave a surprise party a few evenings ago, in honor of the birthday of her daughter Opal. A delightful time was enjoyed by all present. The affair was a complete surprise to Miss Opal.

Mrs. F. Sutford spent several days in Portland this week visiting friends.

Don't forget the Dilley bazaar Friday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. C. A. Broderson, who has been on the sick list for a couple of weeks, is getting better.

Mrs. J. W. Hughes enter ained the G. L. R. Friday afternoon. A dainty lunch was served and all report a good time. Card honors went to Mrs. C. A. Broderson, first; Mrs. H. M. Sailing, second.

Musical Comedy at the Grand Theatre To-Night

A show built for laughing purposes only will hold forth at the Grand Theatre tonight and tomorrow night. The Connie & Mack Musical Comedy Company of twelve comedians, singers and dancers will present the farce comedy, "Tom Walker and the Devil," and a change of bill for Friday night.

A handsomely gowned chorus of spritely girls have a prominent part on the bill and appear in many fantastic drills, dances and ensemble numbers.

The principal comedian, Dan Mack, was for several seasons the comedian with The Devil's Auction Company, and ranks high as a laugh provoker. The comedy introduced is clever and clean, the whole show having been constructed for the purpose of entertaining any audience. The show is appearing in the best theatres of the Northwest.

When in need of some more office stationary call on the PRESS job department. Envelopes, cards, letterheads, circular letters, bill heads etc.

Put "KODAK" on that Christmas List

Whether it be school boy or school girl or the most sedate of "grown-ups" there's always a fascination in picture taking and it's so simple by the Kodak system that anybody can take good pictures from the very start.

Kodaks and Brownies from one dollar up. All the new goods from the Kodak City are in our stock.
