After the rush of the Christmas time was over society has caught the spirit of the new year and begun its social functions again in earnest. Many people watched the old year die, and with the birth of the new year made resolutions that will make 1914 the best year of their lives.

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

Greeted the New Year—The Misses Enchebe were hostesses at a watch party Wednesday night. Upon the arrival of the guests each one was given a slip of paper and pencil and asked to make a picture of some one in the room. At the end of the time allotted to this feature there were many pictures, showing talent among the guests. Dainty refreshments were served, and at 11:45 the guests read their fortunes for the year of 1914. As the clock struck the hour of 12, and the old year passed, each wished the others a happy New Year. In the wee small hours of the morning the guests departed for their homes, declaring the Misses Enchebe ideal hostesses.

Strohmayr-Raymond—A very pretty and quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Guy M. Raymond, of Thatcher, January 1st, when Otto P. Strohmayr and Lulu Raymond were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. J. M. Barber officiating. After dainty refreshments were served Mr. and Mrs. Strohmayr left for a few days' travel before settling down to the busy cares of life near Banks.

New Year's Reception—A reception was held at the Congregational Church New Year's day from four to seven. About two hundred were present. A short program, consisting of music and reading by Mrs. H. Russell was given. Light refreshments were served and a pleasant time spent together.

Maximums Meet—The Maximum Class of the M. E. Sunday School met for a social and business meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wagner last Friday night. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Littlehales-Brown—The home of T. H. Littlehales was the scene of a very pretty home wedding on the first day of the new year at noon, when Gordon G. Brown and Miss Margaret E. Littlehales were united in marriage. The ring ceremony was used and Prof. H. L. Bates officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Winnifred Littlehales, and Clifford Brown, of Boise, Idaho, brother of the groom, was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Dee Darling. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the one o'clock car for Vernon, B. C., where Mr. Brown is located as horticultural expert in the Okanogan Valley for the Canadian government.

Barker-Burr—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Barker, on Third Avenue was the scene of a very pretty wedding on New Year's eve, when their daughter Hazel was married to Lewis W. Burr, of Firdale, Washington. The house was tastefully decorated with evergreens, flowers, and wedding bells. The bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Hazel Hughes, Miss Thelma Keesee was ring bearer, and the bride and groom were supported by Miss Grace Keesee and Sydney Taylor. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. R. E. Dunlap, pastor of the First M. E. Church, using the beautiful ring ceremony. After congratulations the company repaired to the dining room, where the table was groaning under the weight of a most bountiful wedding dinner. As an evidence that all fully appreciated the good things, the groaning was soon transferred from the table to the people. Music and jollity filled the evening. Yes, and there was some rice. The rice shower fell in abundance, and on all. Most every one carried away a good supply stowed away in the recesses. When the ringing of the bells announced the death of the old year and the ushering in of 1914, the guests departed, wishing the happy couple a happy New Year and many of them. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Dunlap and son; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keesee and family; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barker and son, of Oak Park; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Emerson; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Barker and son, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Barker and daughter, of Oak Park; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Haynes and family; Mrs. Katharine Dwire, of Silvertown; Miss Hazel Hughes, Miss Ruth Austin and Sydney Taylor.

Joint Installation of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs—On Monday night about one hundred and fifty people gathered at the I. O. O. F. Hall to witness the joint installation of the officers of Washington Lodge, No. 48, and Forest Rebekah Lodge, No. 44. District Deputy Grand Master R. C. Hill was master of ceremonies for the I. O. O. F., with J. F. McGill as District Grand Marshal. The following officers were installed: R. C. Walker, noble grand; Chas. L. Walker, vice grand; R. M. Taylor, secretary; Brady Chowning, treasurer; Wm. Van Antwerp, warden; S. G. Morgan, conductor; Carl C. Curtis, outside guard; A. E. Gardner, right supporter to noble grand; H. T. Giltner, left supporter to noble grand; H. D. Ott, right supporter to vice grand; L. M. Graham, left supporter to vice grand; Chas. Van Doren, right scene supporter; Donald S. Pierce, left scene supporter; C. W. Odell, chaplain. The officers of the Rebekahs were installed by District Deputy President Bertha Ortman, assisted by Deputy Grand Marshal Anna Templeton. The parts taken by all the officers were charmingly rendered and the following officers were duly installed: Sarah Morgan, noble grand; Margaret Mallory, vice grand; Mary Porter, secretary; Rose Humburg, treasurer; Rilda Steigleder, chaplain; Alice Parsons, warden; Pearl Mackrodt, conductor; R. C. Hill, outside guard; Anna Pogue, inside guard; Mary Hill, right supporter to noble grand; Anna Dixon, left supporter to noble grand; Dee Darling, right supporter to vice grand; Barbara Sexton, left supporter to vice grand. After the installation ceremonies came a season of social time, interspersed with music by Walker's Orchestra. Then a sumptuous supper was served in the dining room, and the guests all agree that the I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs are royal entertainers and know how to please their visitors.

Afternoon Tea—Mrs. M. S. Allen delightfully entertained a number of friends at her home on Second Street Saturday afternoon. The time was spent in playing games and in doing fancy work. Miss Martha Allen pleased the guests by playing several piano solos. There were other musical numbers also delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, and all enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon.

New Year's Eve Party—One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Goff and Mr. and Mrs. Mayne Abbott at the home of the former New Year's eve. Five hundred was the pastime of the evening. The house was tastefully decorated in holly and mistletoe and the color scheme was red and green, giving the whole house the appearance of the holiday season. Bells suspended from the ceiling designated the number of tables. Prizes were won by Mrs. Thornburgh and Mr. Smith, Mrs. Brookbank and Mr. Reder. Consolation by Mrs. McEldowney and Mr. Thornburgh. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hoar, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thornburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Burlingham, Mr. and Mrs. Port Starrett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meresse, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Brookbank, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Roe, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Caples, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Paterson, Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Todd, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Reder, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McEldowney, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Smith, Mr. and Mrs. B. Chowning, Mrs. F. J. Miller, Mrs. J. W. Macrum, Mrs. A. W. Marsh, H. J. Goff.

Watch Party—Misses Helen Phillips and Mona Mallory entertained a number of friends at a "Watch Party" last Wednesday. All had a very enjoyable time playing games and other entertainment. Delicious refreshments were served, after the New Year had been noised in.

Fancy Work Club—The Fancy Work Club met with Mrs. E. E. Williams Wednesday.

Celebrates Birthday—Miss Ruth Enchebe entertained a number of her friends last Saturday at a party on her sixth birthday. The little folks had a jolly time playing games, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Pleasant Party—Miss Constance Harrington gave a party for a number of little guests her own age last week, in honor of her first birthday.

Brotherhood Meeting—The Brotherhood of the M. E. Church met Tuesday evening in the church parlors. There was a good attendance considering the bad weather. The discussion of the evening was "The Country Church." After the program refreshments were served. These meetings are greatly enjoyed by all those who attend, and the members will be glad to have any attend who are interested in the work of the Brotherhood or the church.

Mrs. Hines Entertains—Mrs. Chas. Hines is entertaining this afternoon at her home on Main Street in honor of Mrs. F. J. Miller, who will soon spend some time in the sunshine of California.

Thomas Cornelius and Mrs. Morgan Marry—A quiet wedding was solemnized, Tuesday evening at 5-30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Morgan, when Thomas Cornelius and Mrs. Susie Morgan were united in marriage, only close friends were in attendance. Mr. Cornelius hails from Salem, where he at one time was a council man and also held an official position at the Oregon State penitentiary. Mrs. Susie Morgan, is a well known Washington county woman and holds the highest esteem of a wide circle of friends and all join in a hearty expression of greeting at this the beginning of the New Year. Reverend Valandigham performed the ceremony.

One o'clock Luncheon—One of the most delightful events of the season was the one o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon given by Mrs. J. F. Miller, who leaves soon for Los Angeles, California, for a two months visit. After luncheon the afternoon was spent in playing bridge. The first prize was won by Mr. McCrum and second prize by Mrs. Thornburgh. The consolation was given to Mrs. C. E. Walker. Those present were Mesdames L. L. Watt, J. W. McCrum, E. F. Burlingham, E. E. Williams, F. J. Miller, Chas. Hines, J. A. Thornburgh, W. W. McEldowney, I. J. Hoar, C. B.

Duchanan, C.E. Walker and Miss Minnie Myers.

A Surprise Wedding—Miss Lillian Moon and Eden Mowe were married at Eugene, December 31 and surprised their many friends in this city. They are both attending the Eugene Divinity school and during last summers' vacation they gave a musical and dramatic entertainment at the Christian church here. The bride is a pianist and the groom an excellent singer. He is the son of Mrs. Cilica Mowe of this city.

Glee Girls Elect Officers—At a recent meeting of the Girls Glee Club Miss Bernice Holmes was elected President and Miss Harriet Benjamin, Secretary. They are planning to give a program in the near future.

Wedding Announcement For January 22—Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Francis Brady and Arthur Maxwell Mears, January 22. It will take place at the Irvington residence of the Bradys. Harriet Kern will be maid of honor and Virginia Mears flower girl. Mr. Mears attended the Academy here several years ago and was very popular among the students.

The W. C. T. U. will observe National Constitutional Prohibition Amendment Day here, January 15 with two meetings. In the afternoon will be a prayer service and Mothers Meeting. The evening service a union meeting of the churches and the ministers of the local church will speak. Both meetings will be at the Congregational church. All come and bring your friends.

Raleigh Walke has a class in dancing that is learning tango, one step and hesitation waltz. Some of the younger set in Hillsboro are after him to come down to the county seat to give them a few lessons.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held Monday, January 12th, at the home of Mrs. Charles Hines. It will be Charter Dozen and our city charter will be the subject considered. We hope to have some competent person present to give required information. A full attendance is desired.

Second Prize Letter Why

A. G. Hoffman & Co.'s Store

Is a Good Place to Trade

Forest Grove, Oregon, Dec. 15th, 1913

A. G. Hoffman & Co.
Dear Sirs:
'I think there are reasons galore;
Why people should like to trade at your store.
In the first place, everything is so clean,
That scarcely a speck of dirt can be seen.
And then there's a room fitted up with the best,
Where the poor, tired shopper can sit down and rest.
You may stay there as long as you please,
Then go out in the store,
And shop at your ease.
Then the clerks are all so very polite;
The goods are first-class;
The prices are right.
Luxuries here for the rich can be bought,
And things that are needful have not been forgot.
Calicoes, muslins and shoes that are strong;
Can be bought, I declare, almost for a song.
The Christmas season is almost here.
Why not step in and buy your good cheer?
There are nuts, candies and cookies too.
As good as mother could bake for you.
There are raisins, coffee, tea and spice,
And all the other groceries, so clean and nice;
The flour is dandy, so soft and white;
I tell you, it makes the bread that's just right.
Now I can think of nothing more,
But I know it's a pleasure to trade at your store.
Yours truly,
FAY TEMPLETON, age 12 years.
