

GRAND PRIZE GIVING ENTERPRISE

Hundreds of Dollars worth of Prizes to be Given Away Free by the FOREST GROVE PRESS to the Young Ladies of Forest Grove and the Surrounding Territory. All that is Necessary to Win is to receive the Largest Number of Votes. All Have an Equal Chance.

RULES OF CONTEST.
Contest opens Thursday, January 22, 1914, at 8 a. m., and will close Saturday, March 14, 1914, at 10 p. m. Any lady is eligible to compete for the prizes.
Any employe or immediate relative of an employe of this paper will not be eligible as a candidate in this contest.
The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nominations for candidacy.
This is not a popularity or beauty contest, and the prizes will be awarded solely on merit.
No candidate will receive special favors, but each and every one will be assisted alike by the contest management in obtaining votes.
Candidates are permitted to secure subscriptions anywhere. All subscriptions must be paid for in advance to obtain votes. Votes will also be issued for collections on back subscriptions.
The contest management will not be responsible for typographical errors in the publishing of votes, except to make corrections in the following issue.
No contestant can win more than one prize.
Should any question arise as to the interpretation of the foregoing rules, the decision of the Contest Manager will be final.
A ballot will be printed in each issue of the paper. The ballot will count for 20 votes. All ballots will be void unless received at the office of the Press on or before expiration date as printed.
