 Eye strain saps the general nervous system. It is responsible for most headaches and much stomach trouble. Any man who fits glasses for vision only is yet in the nursery of optics. An interior examination of the eyes, as well as a careful consideration of the nerve and muscle conditions is essential if accuracy is desired. Consult Drs. Lowe & Turner at Hotel Laughlin about your eyes and glasses. Friday Jan 30th up to 3:30 p. m.

Would Warm Alaska by Electricity

Forest Grove, Jan. 20, 1914. (Editor Press.)—In reading the editorial on Alaska in the January 19th issue of the Oregonian it occurred to me that with the waste water power of that country it ought to be able to generate electricity in sufficient amount so as to warm the ground in localities especially adapted to agricultural development, and if their coal fields were opened so that they could have plenty of fuel, could they not farm and live there as well as here? Alaska surely has where timber is lacking there is a plenty of stone and rock.

Keep Pounding

By HOLLAND.

THE principal value of advertising consists in the fact that the influence of advertising is cumulative. It gains strength by repetition. This does not mean the repetition of one advertisement indefinitely. A change of copy is desirable. It means the continued advertising of one's business in an effective manner as possible.

One man has been in business in the town twenty years; another opened his store last week. Both may be equally honest, equally enterprising, equally deserving of credit and custom. But which has the better reputation? Naturally the man who has been doing business in the same building for twenty years. It is the result of persistency, the inevitable cumulative effect.

You can't get away from it—your reputation will either get better or worse as your business methods become known. Repetition impresses the fact even on the careless observer. Remember this in your advertising. Don't expect to make a fortune by one effort, but use it as one stone to help build the tower that will raise you higher and higher.

MAKE YOUR ADVERTISING TODAY HELP YOUR BUSINESS NEXT YEAR.
