GASTON NEWS

A right royal reception was given the Royal Entertainers when they appeared at the Gaston Congregational church last Thursday evening under the auspices of the young people's society. The house was well filled and every member of the entertainers made a decided hit as was proved by the enthusiastic applause that greeted every member. The entertainment was opened with "Annie Laurie" by the Pacific University quartette, Messrs McNeil, McCoy, Webb and Schmidke and they got an enthusiastic applause in their many numbers. Comedy sketches were given by Mrs. H. L. Russell. She gave the "Jiner" and "A Hen" to the great amusement of the audience and of course came back for encores. Hugh W. Sparks, the cartoonist, appeared in a comedy monologue and drew life size colored pictures while talking. His stunt made a hit with the audience. People of Gaston say that if the Royal Entertainers should come back for a return date the standing room only sign would have to be put out early in the evening.

The Priscilla club gave a supper to their husbands at the Artisan hall Wednesday evening. Col. Joe McBurney was the only exception to the husband rule.

A large crowd was present at the social given by the bachelor boys at the hall Saturday evening. Games, dancing and refreshments were the order of the day.

Mrs. Herbert Nutter spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orton Griebeler.

Last evening the card club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Archie Bryant.

Many folks were out boat riding Sunday, on Lake Wapato.

A delightful surprise was given to Claude Bryant in celebration of his twenty-first birthday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bryant, after the entertainment by the Royal entertainers Thursday evening, and the affair was one of the most pleasant of the season. Some of the good old fashioned games were played and delicious refreshments served. Songs were sung by the crowd and the Pacific University quartet with Miss Grace Baker at the piano and at one o'clock the crowd adjourned singing Good Night Ladies and voting the hosts and hostesses a most enjoyable evening. Those present were: Misses Martha Jones, Sadie Ward, Ethel Ward, Lena McBurney, Caroline Wescott, Rose Wilcox, Effie Epling, Rachel Epling, Ruth Armstrong, Gladys Reed, Grace Baker, Mabel Schultz, Marvel Freeburg, Clara Hayne, Mesdames H. D. Bryant, Archie Bryant, H. L. Russell, and N. J. Walker; Messrs William Ostrande, Joseph McBurney, Alex Stewart, Harold Hayne, Benjamin Ward, Kieth Abraham, Clyde Raymond, Joseph Jones, Schmidke, McNeil, Webb, Sparks, Claud Bryant, Archie Bryant and H. D. Bryant.

Mrs. L. D. Oakes formerly of this place has undergone an operation in the St. Vincent's hospital for cancer of the stomach.

Andrew Story died at his home here Wednesday last after an illness of several months from dropsy. He had lived in this country since 1876, residing at Cornelius, Forest Grove and Gaston at various times. He was born in Canada where he was married. He leaves a wife and four sons, Dave and Thomas of Gaston; John and William who live in Wash. two daughters, Sarah Davis of Dundee, Oregon; and Mabel Baker of Portland. The funeral was held Thursday in the Congregational church with interment in the Hill cemetery.

Press Subscription Contest

There is not a candidate entered in this contest but what has a few friends who would gladly assist her by their subscription, if asked to do so. Go ask some one to subscribe for The Press, you don't need to say a word about being in the contest if you don't want to. Take a receipt book and start out among strangers, if you don't like to ask friends, make it a business proposition, you can earn as much as you choose. It is likely that some one kept out of the contest because they do not like to let their friends know their business. They want a prize but are timid.

Good Business Experience.
If you will give this business affair and honest trial, you will be surprised at how easy it is to succeed on a business basis. It will be good experience and develop confidence in yourself, which is the main essential for success.

Be energetic enough to devote all your spare time to vote getting, as you will be well rewarded for your efforts. Get all your friends acquainted with the fact that you have entered the race to win and keep reminding them of it until the contest closes.

Already a number of candidates are actively engaged in securing subscriptions, and before many days have elapsed there will be others who have not yet made up their minds to compete, who will be in the race to win. But long delays are dangerous, as others at this moment may be calling upon your friends who would assist you if they knew that you were in the race. Start today, this very moment, to communicate with your friends and relatives; let them understand that you have decided to enter, and then go after votes enough to win the capital prize.

When Votes are Counted.
All votes that are received by the contest manager before 5 p. m. each day before publication will be counted and credited to the standing of the contestant in the next issue of the paper. Before sending votes in, pin them together. By doing so it is not necessary to sign your name on each vote.

Sample Copies.
For the next month we will send The Press free—as sample copies, for one week to prospective subscribers.

Send in your list of names, and then write to them that they are receiving the best home paper in Washington County.

Then politely intimate that a subscription from them will prove profitable to them, and will help you in your laudable endeavor to win one of these splendid prizes.

Get Your Votes.
When you pay your subscription to The Press, be sure and ask for your votes, as votes are issued on all subscriptions according to the amount paid.

Rules Governing Newspaper Subscriptions.

The Supreme Court of the United States has just published a ruling in regard to newspaper subscriptions which; in substance, makes a subscriber who takes his paper from the postoffice and refuses to pay his subscription, guilty of felony and liable to arrest as any other who defrauds.

The following is a synopsis of the decision of our final courts and published as a matter of information for our subscribers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription.

2. Subscribers ordering the discontinuance of their periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodical from the postoffice they are responsible until they settle their bill and order their paper discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to another place without informing the publisher and any papers sent to the former address, subscribers are responsible.

5. Refusing periodicals from the postoffice or moving and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not want to continue taking. Otherwise the publisher is authorized to send, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with payment is sent to the publisher.

his farm at Sheds, near Albany. "Sell your star boarders" he said, and sell them to the butcher, don't sting your neighbors with them. He emphasized the importance of keeping an absolute record of every cow and her feed. When in California he said he was able to get $20 for a newly born calf when his neighbors could not get anything for the simple reason that he had kept a record of what his cows could do. He said that during the last year his cows had averaged him $150 a year while they had not cost him more than $60 a head for feed.

Chris Myhre, a successful dairyman of the Danish settlement near Junction City spoke upon the advantages of co-operative dairying. Other speeches were made on the proper feeding of hogs and the use of the silo. Other members on the nine car hog special were: Prof. Ralph D. Hetzel, director of extension service; Prof. E. B. Fitts; Prof. G. R. Sampson, Prof. W. A. Barr, C. E. Robinson, W. K. Newell, Will Schulmerich and E. Carey. H. A. Hinshaw, general freight agent and L. R. Fields, superintendent.

ENCAMPMENT DATE SET.

State Grand Army Members to Assemble June 16 to 18.

Many Grand Army men from Forest Grove will attend the 33rd annual state encampment at Tillamook which has just been set by the council of administration for June 16, 17, 18.

Following a conference with the Corinth Post No. 35, of Tillamook. The council first decided to hold the encampment June 23, 24 and 25, but the earlier date was more convenient to the Tillamook post and was adopted. It is expected that all of the 61 posts of the state will be represented at the encampment which will include the annual gathering of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army. Last year more than 800 old soldiers took part in the encampment held at Newberg and more than 1500 visitors were present during the three days' gathering.

Fred McNamer was out to the Grove Saturday visiting his friends. He formerly carried the mail between here and Glenwood.

PACIFIC AND HIGH TEAMS DEFEATED IN BASKET BALL

After Winning All Season Both Aggrigations met Waterloo--Newberg Does it.

You have all heard the old saw that it never rains without snowing or something along that line. Well the high school and college basketball games proved the truth of the saw and hence will keep the old philosopher that coined the saw out of the Ananias club.

In other words both teams were defeated after going through a glorious season with not a single black mark to their credit. They had swept all before them. But Newberg got their nannies last Friday evening. The Pacific University quintet was defeated at Newberg by the Pacific College aggregation by a score of 39 to 17 and the High School lads had it put over on them by the Newberg scholars, score 39 to 15.

So you see the college chumps can't laugh at the high school boys nor can the high school fellows giggle at the collegians—probably that is the reason that fate put both of them in the losing column when she saw that one had to be beaten, for it is such an awful thing to be laughed at. It is too much like the wife getting stung on a bargain hat and then having her brute of a man laugh at her.

In the game here Irvin Turner one of the local boys had two of his upper front teeth broken off and a set of bridge work including half a dozen teeth below knocked out. He was taken from the game but a short time went back in and played a gritty game despite the terrific pain. The won over there a few weeks ago. Saturday they go to Estacada for a game, on the following Wednesday McMinnville is here for a game.

At Newberg the college boys say they were completely up in the air and two changes were made during the game. One of the star men was in bad shape from a bad arm and the others—well the Chemawa Indians are coming here Friday February 6th. It will be a great game.

NEW SPRAYING OUTFIT.

Built in This City For Mr. Kopple Mr. Kopple who owns a large prune orchard and vineyard on David's Hill had an idea of his own regarding the construction of a sprayer for his purposes, after consulting Goff Bros. and not finding anything already manufactured that suited him had them build one for him. It is no small affair costing about $180. It is fitted on four wheels, gasoline engine, pumps, barrels, everything complete and two horses can walk right along with it.

Judge Reasoner Attends Road Meeting at Eugene—County Judge, D. B. Reasoner attended a good roads meeting at Eugene last Saturday. Prof. H. W. Skelton of the Oregon Agricultural College was one of the main speakers; "There is no such thing as a permanent road," he said, "Any road will have to be maintained."
