Farmer Boys Score Big Hit at the Star—With comedy, melody and plenty of mustard the O. A. C. Glee Club sang their way into the hearts of a Forest Grove audience, not so large as it should have been, but enthusiastic to the end, at the Star Theatre last night. The chorus, soloists and stunt men were all par excellence and should the jolly, good voiced collegians come here for a return date Manager Watrous of the Star would have to go some to get the lovers of amusement all under his roof.

POWER OF THE FARM.

Washington County Farms Rapidly Adopting Modern Methods.

Possibly few realize to what extent our farms are being supplied with modern and up-to-date equipment.

During the last few days Goff Bros., the enterprising hardware men have sold three gasoline engines to the following well known farmers.

C. N. Johnson who resides near Dilly purchased a four-horse power engine which in the future will operate his feed mill, wood-saw and pump.

Jessie Evans and Spencer also of Dilly purchased a six-horse power engine which will be used on their large farm for various purposes.

Mr. Nollsch, who resides near this city has a brand new engine which will be attached to his feed cutter.

Forty-two Students Successful.

As a result of the January eighth Grade examinations in Hillsboro Superintendent B. W. Barnes issued a statement that 42 students passed the tests, nine of whom are from district 15 comprising Forest Grove.

Miss Margaret Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Morgan of this city, was one of the three highest out of the whole number of scholars with a grade of 90.8 per cent. The other two were Lewa Wilkes, 92.1 per cent and Carroll Gates 91 per cent, both of these students are from district 7.

Runs Arm Through Cogs—Charley Sparks is carrying his right arm in a sling as the result of an accident he had with a straw cutter last week. Charlie was down at the barn cutting hay for his blooded bossies and was very much interested with the way of the new machine which his father had just bought for him. And while absorbed in watching the knives eat up the hay his shirt sleeve caught in the cogs and his arm was badly mangled. Charlie says now that the cows can prepare their own hay hereafter.

More Blue Ribbons for Walter—Walter Roswurm continues to pull prizes with his fine chickens. Just the other day he got a bunch of blue ribbons at the Walla Walla big poultry show. One pen with a rooster and four hens of the Silver Spangled Hamburg variety got blue ribbon. He has just built a new hen house of the latest style and intends to go after the prizes even harder than he has in the sixteen years that he has been in the chicken business.

Helped Build New Railroad in Eastern Oregon—Hogue Sexton is back to the Grove for a visit of a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sexton. Hogue has been working with a railroad construction company, building a new road for the O. R. N. He was located 52 miles west of Vale and he appreciated very much the big bunch of magazines his mother sent him from here as reading matter in the camp was a scarce article. When in Vale Hogue saw Leslie Hope who graduated from Pacific University a year ago last June and is now working in his father's bank and wished to be remembered to all his old friends in Forest Grove.

H. W. Parker Enters News Field in Salem—H. W. Parker, of Salem, who has been connected with the state printing office, former publisher of the old Forest Grove Times, has gone into partnership with W. H. Dalrymple to publish the Oregon Messenger, a Salem Democratic weekly. Mr. Parker succeeds James Godfrey who has been appointed income tax collector. The Messenger has been running for a year or so.

CORNELIUS MAN GETS HIS.

Roscoe Beckwith, a young man of Cornelius, was convicted in Circuit Court last week, charged with having sold booze to two boys, Harry Johnson and Clarence White, and was given a fine of $50 and a year in jail. He was paroled on the jail sentence on good behavior provided he would pay the $50.

Johnson and White claimed that they went to a livery stable in Cornelius September 14, 1913, where Beckwith was working and gave him fifty cents with which he purchased beer. However he denied the allegation and maintained that he had the beer under the bed and did not sell it to them, which did not prove to have much weight with the jury.

Little Doctor Sees Pretty Woman Leap From Car—It may be that Dr. Charles Lester Large will be called to Portland soon as a witness in a complaint that a pretty young woman says she will lodge against the street car company. Doctor was riding on a Mount Scott car while he was down spending a week end with the folks and the aforesaid beautiful woman who was on the same car, demanded that the conductor let her off which she refused to do as his car did not stop short of certain limits. She leaped off the car and received a big jolt but was not dismayed so much but what she took down the conductor's number and he in return took the little doctor's name for use in case he needs it.

Contestant wishes Prize for College Course—I wish to announce that I have reconsidered and will leave my name in the contest and shall be very thankful indeed for all the votes that are given me. When I heard that I had been nominated in the contest I told several of my inquiring friends that I did not intend to run in that contest as I was working for Mr. Scott and getting a commission for subscriptions for his paper. But since then friends have been sending votes to me and lots of places where I go in they say "No I don't like the News-Times, if you had the PRESS, I'd take it from you" and others say "I don't like the PRESS. I want't the News-Times." S I don't see what is to hinder me from getting all the benefit I taking subscriptions for what ever papers the people want, as I have only after school hours to work and Saturday. And when the vision came to me that $300 would pay my way through college, if I was lucky enough to have friends to help me get it, I decided it was worth trying again even if I did lose last year.

So with the help of God and my friends I'm going to try again.
Joy Aydelott.

Roy Cook Former Baseball Star Visits City—Roy Cook was in the Grove last week shaking hands with his old friends. In days agone Roy was one of the best baseball catchers in the Northwest, while his brother Harry, was a pitcher of the first water. Together they made a battery that could make most any expert batsman bite the dust.

Whenever a team had a hard game to play they would always phone for Roy and Harry and if the other bunch had not beat them to it—why they weren't afraid to stick up all they had on a victory.

Mr. Cook, senior, told the boys that he would look after the farm if they would only keep in shape for baseball and let it be said that Roy and Harry never displeased their father in this respect. Charlie Roe, Connie McNamer, Arthur Parker, Frank Hinman and other stars of other days have played with the Cooks, the men that made Cornelius famous.

Conditions in India Described

Rev. Rambo occupied the pulpit at the Christian church last Sunday both morning and evening. He proved a very interesting speaker. In the evening he spoke upon his experiences in India where he was for several years connected with an orphanage. The means of farming is as old as time almost and it takes the farmers so long to get in a crop that the ground becomes unfit. There is only ten or fifteen days in which the ground is fit to put in a crop and the antediluvian way of farming takes the farmers three times that long to get in a crop, hence so many failures. For preserving the grain a big hole is dug by the farmer perhaps twenty feet square. This is lined with chaff and the wheat is dumped in. A layer of chaff is dumped on top and covered with dirt. This protects the grain from insects and all conditions as nothing else will. The speaker said that during a famine the big men had these huge granaries filled, while the poor people starved. He gave the English government much credit for their work during famines.

E. Schumacher was last week found guilty in Circuit Court in Hillsboro. Months ago he bought some pianos in Portland on the installment plan and did not pay for them. In the fall he sold a piano in Hillsboro and was lodged in jail. He was sentenced to a year in jail but was paroled on condition that he pay the costs of the trial which was $88.

No More Change of Tickets—A coupon ticket case with complete stock of through tickets to all eastern points has been installed in the new Southern Pacific passenger station here and passengers may now purchase through tickets to any point in the United States or Canada without the inconvenience of having to exchange tickets in Portland as has heretofore been necessary.

Simpson is Wells Fargo Agent—The office of Wells Fargo & Co. Express is now located in the Southern Pacific passenger station, B. J. Simpson, Agent Southern Pacific Company having been appointed agent of Wells Fargo & Co., effective February 1st.

For the convention of the Oregon Development League meeting at Eugene, the Oregon Electric has announced a rate of a fare and a third for the round trip from all points on the system and allied lines effective February 18 and 19. The rate will be in effect as far west as Rainier and eastward on the S. P. & S. to Goldendale and Plymouth, Wash., and to all Central Oregon towns on the Oregon Trunk. Indications are for a big attendance at the Eugene convention.

Dr. C. L. Large was in Hillsboro yesterday to meet with the Pension Examining Board of which he and Dr. Wood and Tamiesie are the members.

Mrs. Charlie Smith and two children have been visiting in Portland for several days past and Charlie is doing his own cooking.

W. H. French left here Saturday evening last on a business trip to his ranch in Eastern Oregon. He will return in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson moved to a hop yard in the Hillsboro section last week where he will train the young hops in the way they should go. Jim was formerly night watch here and has been working some this winter for the city.

Abraham Lincoln

By Richard Henry Stoddard

This man, whose homely face you look upon,
Was one of Nature's masterful great men;
Born with strong arms, that unfought battles won,
Direct of speech and cunning with the pen.

Chosen for large designs, he had the art
Of winning with his humor, and he went
Straight to his mark, which was the human heart;
Wise, too for what he could not break he bent.

Upon his back a more than Atlas load,
The burden of the commonwealth, was laid.
He stooped and rose up to it, though the road
Shot suddenly upward, not a whit dismayed.

Hold, warriors councillors kings!
All now give place
To this dear benefactor of the race!

Day Star Shone as Lincoln Died.
"A bright star in midday, while the sun was shining clear, hung visible over the city of Washington after Lincoln died," said Dr. William A. Waterman, a Congregational minister of Elgin, Ill. "I was in Washington at the time Lincoln died."

Some have already started in the Christian life.

Oregonians Have Blow Out in Indiana—When Frank Fletcher was coming back from Buffalo, New York he stopped in Indiana to see Prof. C. E. Bradley who came ten miles to meet him in his Ford automobile. When they got almost home they had a blow out and had the enjoyment of making repairs in six inches of snow.

Last summer Prof. Bradley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley of Banks, visited the son in Indiana and one morning while Pa Bradley, senior, was sitting by the fireplace he called, "Beamis, Beamis bring me the Oregonian." The Professor set himself down and dashed off a poem entitled, "Pa and the Oregonian," which Frank Fletcher says is a scream. Prof. Bradley is getting a salary of $4,000 a chemist for the rubber company.

He will come west to hunt next summer.
