WHEN IN NEED GIVE US A CALL

cast is a good indication that all can do as well. In every community there is a golden opportunity for some energetic woman to enter the contest with enthusiasm and win the honor of being awarded the valuable prize.

There are many ways in which a candidate may secure the aid of friends, principal of which is by personal calls upon them. The leaders in the campaign for votes may have their friends aiding and assisting them in many ways. Each person has a circle of friends who are always glad to render you aid, and by enlisting the co-operation of a large number of persons in such a campaign the circle or sphere and the influence of the candidate is increased, and that is what gives a candidate a backing that can be depended upon for many votes.

Contest Remarks.

Are you clipping contest coupons for some young lady?

Thousands of votes are being received daily by the Contest Department.

Some candidates are already busily engaged in securing subscriptions.

A candidate in the office today says, "My, but it is easy to secure subscriptions."

Send your subscriptions to Contest Department, The Press.

Why not win an $80.00 sparkler? Enter your name and win a prize.

Prizes to be awarded solely on merit. The ones who do the best work will be the winners.

Do not overlook the Special Offer now running. Fifty Thousand Extra Votes for every ten yearly subscriptions.

Still Time to Nominate.

It is possible that you will not find the name of the party you believed would be able to win one of the grand prizes in the following list. If such should be the case, you are earnestly requested to nominate a candidate yourself. You can name any woman, a friend, a relative or if you think you can get out and get enough votes to win a prize, you may nominate yourself. Every candidate is provided with all necessary information and subscription books necessary to conduct an energetic and successful campaign for votes.

In Case of a Tie.

In case two or more persons receive the same number of votes, then the value of the prize due any one person receiving such number (if there were no tie) shall be divided equally between the persons receiving such number of votes.

Of Interest to Farmers—

Farmers in this day and age are not content with the old way of doing things. They used to be satisfied to raise razor back hogs and just common cows, the kind that was of little folks like to eat and are willing to use but to feed and swear at, and they didn't kick about skimming milk by hand. But now farmers want the best of everything. Hogs must be of the kind that will not only eat but grow and put on a little meat that folks like to eat and are willing to pay for. Farmers have got separators to do the work of the old-fashioned housewife. The first thing is to get good stock and the next is to feed right as every farmer knows and they will be glad to hear that Will Hartrampf, the feed store man, of this city has just received a car load of dried beet pulp from Los Angeles. This product when fed to cows furnishes a relish with their hay and will increase the flow of milk. One pound of pulp will take the place of one and a half pounds of hay and will produce more milk.

Prizes Offered for Essays—

The Coast Culvert & Flume Co. is sending to the schools of the county a beautiful calendar entitled, "Washington Crossing the Delaware." The company offers three prizes for the best essays on this subject. Five dollars, two and a half, and one dollar are the prizes. The essays must not contain more than 225 words. The Washington County spelling contest will be a big success again this year. More than fifty schools have sent in reports. Next week we will publish the names of the ten highest standing of the county. Now is the time to prepare for the local contests which will be held April 25th. The grand final will be held in Hillsboro May 2. Can you believe what you see and hear?

Local Elks to McMinnville Circus—

Down in McMinnville they're already shouting, "Hello, Bill; how's the circus?" The big thing is to be pulled off in the Yamhill county seat auditorium on February 27 and 28, and local members of the order are planning to attend, for every one knows that the Elks are going to have a splendid show. Committees have been in Portland to close arrangements for a number of fine attractions, though a greater part of the program will be given by the McMinnville antler herd each day prior to the opening of the big show.

Nashville Students Coming—

The famous Nashville Students are coming to the Star Theatre next Monday evening, February 16. For many years these ten colored minstrels have been on the road, and they return again and again to the same towns. This is the third time that they have come here. Seven years ago the Nashville Students showed to a packed audience here in the old Vert's Hall, and two years ago they were here again and the theater could scarcely seat the people. This is the real test of a show, their ability to come back. They have six screaming vaudeville acts, four funny comedians. Darkies are known for their melody and these ten are great in song. They have a concert band that will parade in uniform.

will only try.

The Special Offer.

This is something you do not want to overlook. The extra votes are what will cinch the prize for you. No candidate is restricted as to the size of her special ballot, if you can secure twenty yearly subscriptions you can do so and still receive 100,000 extra votes. The more subscriptions you turn in during this offer the larger your special ballot will be.

Now is the time to build up a good big vote reserve, there is nothing like having a good reserve back of you that you can bring into the play later on in the contest. The wise contestant is the one who will take advantage of this offer.

The Standing.

In presenting the standing today of the candidates of the greatest contest ever conducted by any newspaper in Oregon, it will be interesting alike to patrons and candidates to note that many changes have taken place in the relative positions of many of the candidates.

The well laid plans of the energetic campaigns of the contestants are bearing good fruit and the votes
