25 COLORED COMEDIANS COMING TO FOREST GROVE

Will Appear at the Star Theater February 24 With Songs, Stunts and Jests

Folks in this city who like fun, the real good old kind that makes a fellow forget his meat bills, the price of eggs and his mother-in-law, should just wait for the High School Fansters, the burnt cork minstrels that are being coached by Fred Jones for their show at the Star Theater in this city Tuesday evening, February 24. Coach Jones says that it will be one of the best and he has coached quite a few colored comedians. The first part of the entertainment will consist of chorus singing by 25 voices, and men jokes of the latest variety, and a bunch of 'em will be lifted right out of our own Forest Grove. Dr. Chas. Lester Large is still living in this city, despite the fact that he goes to Portland once a week, and there are a bunch of other professional men and other folks in town that will come in for their share of the comedy.

The second half of the show will consist of a sketch entitled, "A Night in a Dilley Hotel," and will be a scream, and the close of the show will end in a cake walk participated in by the 25 coons. The end men will be Jim Norton, John Doane, Fred Jones, Verdie Billinger, Otto Cantrall and Ralph Higby.

For New Pens.
To "break in" a new pen point quickly dip it in ink and hold it in the flame of a lighted match for a second. Wipe and dry with a cloth and then it will hold ink as well as one much older.

"LET HIM RUN"—LINCOLN.

His Advice to Man Who Has an Elephant on His Hands.
Charles A. Dana, who was assistant secretary of war under Mr. Stanton, related the following:
"A certain Thompson had been giving the government considerable trouble. Dana received word that Thompson was about to escape to Liverpool. "Calling upon Stanton, Dana was referred to Mr. Lincoln.
"The president was at the White House, business hours were over, and Lincoln was washing his hands. 'Hello, Dana,' said he as he opened the door. 'What is it now?' 'Well, sir,' I said, 'here is the provost marshal of Portland, who reports that Jacob Thompson is to be in town tonight and inquires what orders we have to give.' 'What does Stanton say?' he asked. 'Arrest him,' I replied. 'Well,' he continued, drawing his words, 'I rather guess not. When you have an elephant on your hands and he wants to run away, better let him run.'"

Abe Got the Worst of It.
When Lincoln was a young lawyer in Illinois he and a certain judge once got to bantering one another about trading horses, and it was agreed that the next morning at 9 o'clock they should make a trade, the horses to be unseen up to that hour and no backing out under a forfeiture of $25. At the hour appointed the judge came up, leading the sorriest looking specimen of horse ever seen in those parts. In a few minutes Mr. Lincoln was seen approaching with a wooden sawhorse.
Great were the shouts and laughter of the crowd, and both were greatly increased when Lincoln said:
"Well, judge, this is the first time I ever got the worst of it in a horse trade."
