Local Road Supervisors File Bonds
—John Haney, Jim Devlin, Alec Todd, and Jeff Hayden were in Hillsboro last week as road supervisors from this part of the county, and filed their bonds of $1000 each with the Commissioners' Court. February 13 all the road supervisors of this county will meet in Hillsboro to discuss road building and exchange ideas. They will have an expert road builder present to deliver an address.

Harry Richardson of St. Helens, has registered at college. He graduated from the high school of that place at the last graduation and was a member of the debating team and also a star basket ball player.

Bear Skin from Idaho—

George Clark, the efficient workman for the Hughes telephone company, recently received a fine skin of a cinnamon bear from his brother in Idaho, and is having it mounted by George Thomas, of this city. It will make a beautiful rug when finished. George used to live in Idaho before coming here. He will have to build a bungalow to put his rug in.

Pleased to See City's Growth—

R. U. McNutt, of Grants Pass, was in this city last week for a visit with his brother, Carrol McNutt, of Bailey's store. He had not been here for several years, and was pleased to see the paved streets and the many other evidences of improvement in Forest Grove. He has charge of a big irrigation project in Southern Oregon, and came up especially to see his father, Col. McNutt, of Cornelius, who has been in ill health for several months.

Singer Now Farming—

Mr. and Mrs. Avon Jesse, of Canby, have been spending several days in this city visiting at the Guy Stockman home. Mr. Jesse formerly attended the college here and was a student in the conservatory of music. He has an excellent tenor voice, and has done considerable professional singing in theaters in the Northwest, but has given up that work, and is now farming near Canby.

P. C. Starrett Appointed Administrator of Father's Estate—Porter C. Starrett, of this city, has been appointed administrator of the estate of his father, S. B. Starrett, who died in this city January 12. The property is valued at $10,000, and it will be necessary for the administrator to put up bonds amounting to $9,700. Deceased left no will and the property will go to the natural heirs. There are three sons, P. C. Starrett, of this city; C. J. and H. S. Starrett, of Portland, and one daughter, Mrs. S. G. Robison, of Hardman, Oregon.

Pioneer Dies—

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Isler, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. C. Lilly, of Gales Creek, Sunday, was held there Tuesday, and was conducted by Rev. R. E. Dunlap, of the Forest Grove Methodist Church, with interment in the Buxton cemetery, near this city. Death was the result of old age. She was born in Davis County, Illinois, and crossed the plains with her parents in 1847, and settled at Gales Creek, where she has resided ever since. In 1850 she was married to S. W. Isler, who died in 1899. Seven children were born, of whom the following five are living: John Isler, of Heppner; Mrs. Harry Wescott, of Gaston; S. W. Isler, of Lincoln county; Carl Isler, of Timber; Mrs. N. C. Lilly, of Gales Creek.

Send Separators Long Distances.
Last week Mr. Johnson of Monroe, Oregon purchased an Empire Cream Separator from Goff Bros. of this city. The same firm recently shipped a cream separator to Clarence Ortman of Gilliam. With many records like these, Forest Grove would assume an important position as a distributing center.

This week the Forest Grove National Bank has received some interior decorating. Handsome massive pillars and overhead beams have been put in and C. E. Boderen and his staff of artists are putting on some beauty tints on the walls.
