

PRESS SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST

 on your part. Any ambitious young lady could enter the contest now and try for the Grand Prize and her case would be far from hopeless. We have been telling you right along it is going to take work to win these prizes and we still mean it. The workers will be the victors in the end. If you are a worker you will win.

Still Time to Enter
 There is plenty of time for some industrious young lady to enter The Press' subscription contest and win the Grand Prize of $300.00 in gold. No one candidate has such a lead but what can be very easily overcome. The contest is still open and if you want to enter and win a prize, now is the time. Send in your name today, then start to work and make a winner. It is easy to win, all that is necessary is to get the largest number of subscriptions.

Candidates, you who are at the tail end of the list, do you realize what a fine chance you stand to win? Have you given the contest a thought? If not, why don't you start to work and show the rest of the candidates what you can do. Give them the contest of their lives. You can win a prize just the same as any one else. All that it will take is a little hard work on your part. If you are a worker you will win.

If you do not understand the conditions of the contest, write the Contest Manager—he will be glad to explain.

JUST A LITTLE OVER TWO WEEKS LEFT—DO YOU INTEND TO WIN A PRIZE? NOW IS THE TIME TO START.

Don't Lose Hope

Don't lose hope in the contest because some one has a few thousand more votes than you, but start in to work with renewed energy, with the determination of winning out. Give the other candidates the fight of their lives—let them know you are in the contest to win. The lowest candidate in the race can easily climb to the top—a few yearly subscriptions will give her a good lead. There is not a candidate entered the contest but what has a few friends who would be only too glad to help her win one of the prizes. All they are waiting for is the asking. GET BUSY. It is easy to be a winner. Start today. After you get started once the rest will come easy. See your friends today and get them to promise you their subscriptions—they will be only too glad to help you.

Your Money's Worth

Unlike other contests, this affair pays in value for every cent invested. Votes are not purchased at so much each, but for every cent received by this paper a cent's worth in value is dealt out in the news of the world. It is an investment rather than an expenditure, and no one should consider it in the light that the money paid out is thrown away.

Voting Coupon

Clip the vote coupon from this paper and vote for some young lady; it may be the means of her winning a prize. When you pay your subscription to The Press, be sure you receive the votes to which you are entitled, as votes are issued on all payments for subscriptions.

Interest Increases

On all sides interest in The Press subscription contest is taking a great increase, and patrons are selecting their favorite candidates, for whom they are voting liberally.

The leaders are increasing their vote, and these in this contest in earnest are gaining every day. It is interesting to keep check of the battle of ballots, and every mail makes some change in the relative position of some candidate. Now it is one contestant that receives a boost toward the top and then another. But the standing as published in the paper does not tell the whole story. It is a good thing to keep near the head of the list, but it is a greater advantage to have a reserve back which nobody knows anything about, and which can be brought in to good play later on. With all your votes in the paper it is an easy matter for anyone to see exactly what you have and how many it will take to beat you in the end.

Washington's Birthday Dinner—

An enjoyable affair was the Washington's Birthday dinner served by the ladies of the Christian Church in the basement of the church Monday evening. Among the edibles were spare ribs and brown gravy, and the characters represented were George Washington, by Dr. Semones; Martha Washington, by Mrs. J. B. Holmes; Secretary of State, by L. M. Sparks; Mrs. Secretary of State, by Mrs. James Devlin. A neat sum was realized by the ladies to apply on the church work.
