

MR. HENRY PECK AND HIS FAMILY AFFAIRS - By Gross

ALL AROUND TOWN

Loses Life in Icy Waters—

Arthur Cavill, the world famous swimmer, lost his life Sunday while trying to swim Seattle harbor, a distance of three miles. He died of exhaustion, literally frozen to death when within 500 yards of the finish. Cavill was a former swimming instructor at Multnomah Athletic Club and between 1895 and 1900 was considered the champion swimmer of the world.

They Ought to Be Shingled—

A fellow dropped into the Press office the other day who originated the expression that Uncle Sam should put snails on the American dollars instead of eagles, so they wouldn't get away so quick. He said that out in his district the other day the school ma'am asked her little hopefuls if their parents taught them to say "Yes ma'am," and "No, sir," and they all replied in a chorus, "Uh huh."

Mrs. I. K. Weitzel Has Stroke—

Mrs. I. K. Weitzel, formerly a resident of this city, at the corner of A Street and First Avenue North, suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home on East 11th Street North, Portland, Saturday evening. She is confined to her bed, and is unable to use her left side.

Rev. Upton Preacher in Hillsboro—

The new Free Methodist church in Hillsboro has just been completed, and the first services to be held in the building were held Sunday afternoon. Rev. Upton, pastor of both the church at Forest Grove and Hillsboro, preaching a powerful sermon. The new church is a handsome edifice, and will be dedicated several weeks hence. Revival services will begin in the new church in a few weeks.

Motorcycled to Beaverton—

A bunch of motorcycle enthusiasts motored to Beaverton and back last Friday. They had to get off their wheels and walk around a few mud holes and one of the party ran out of gasoline, but outside of that they had a beautiful time. Coming back from Beaverton to Hillsboro they made the time in forty minutes. Three machines were used, and the following made up the joy riding party: Amos Lahie, Fred Davidson, Dan Ward, Chet Henderson, Harry Hamilton and Lloyd McNutt.

Railroad Team Wants Games—

The Press is in receipt of letter from Manager Bottler, of the Harriman baseball team, which is composed of the employees of the Southern Pacific, the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company, and the Portland, Eugene & Eastern. The letter follows:

"Faster and stronger than ever the Harriman Club Baseball Team, which won 18 out of 25 games played last season, against all of the faster teams of Oregon and Washington, wishes to play the local boys. We play good fast baseball, and don't have time to "crab." For games, write to M. H. Bottler, Manager, 704, Wells Fargo Building.

M. H. Bottler, Manager."

Temperance Lecture—

There will be a temperance lecture in the main auditorium of the Christian Church next Saturday night, March 7th given by Albert J. Bolster, formerly of Iowa. Mr. Bolster is a very able and interesting speaker and those who miss this lecture will miss a rare opportunity. He will also speak at the Congregational church Sunday morning, March 8th. Come out and hear him.

Victim of Apoplexy—

Mrs. Karen Eidesmoe, aged sixty years, died at the home of her son, Albert Eidesmoe, at the eastern limits of this city Sunday, and Monday the body was taken by the son to Selby, Minn., their old home, where the husband is buried. Death was the result of apoplexy.

Went Fishing—

Ambrose Porter returned the first of the week from Tillamook, where he went on a fishing trip with Jim Barger, formerly of this place. Mr. Porter says they made a good catch. He saw Toots Cardiff, and reports him as doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Porter, who have been making their home at Edgewater, Washington, will move to this city the last of the month.

Miss Steahr Entertains—

A number of friends were invited to the home of Miss Georly Steahr Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Eunice Bernard, who has been in training the past year at the Good Samaritan Hospital, and has been spending her vacation with her parents. The evening was spent in playing progressive whist and music. Miss Lois Purdy won the first prize and Dr. Gertrude Phillips second. Those present were: Misses Lois and Alta Purdy, Anna Addison, Edith Shogren, Reta Macrum, Winnifred Littlehales, Florence Webley, G. Sappington, Jessie Reynolds, Dr. Gertrude Phillips, E. Georly Staehr and Mrs. Misz.

Four Generations Meet—

A happy meeting was that of Mrs. Lucinda Rue, aged 84 years, and that of her son, H. P. Rue and his daughter, Mrs. C. F. Peterson, and her little 11-months-old daughter, Martha Irene Peterson. Mrs. Rue was born in Canada, in 1830 and moved to Illinois with her parents while a child. Twenty-five years ago she came to Oregon and now makes her home at St. Johns. She is hale and hearty, and was all happiness and could scarcely keep her eyes off her little great-granddaughter, Martha Irene, as Archie Bryant, the local photographer, took the four generation picture at his studio yesterday.

Local Elks Attend Circus at McMinnville—

Those who attended the Elks Circus at McMinnville from here report a jolly good time and a large crowd Friday and Saturday. Among the attractions was Barnes circus from Portland. It is said that one of the monkeys of the circus was a cracker-jack and as an African dodger had the old time nigger of Fourth of July fame beat to a turn. Among those who attended from here were: C. O. Roe, Connie McNamer, Otto Parsons, Willis Goff, John Wagner and H. J. Wescott, and Tom Sain, of Gaston.

Varsity Win From Alumni in Track Meet—

In the indoor track meet between the Alumni and the regular team of Pacific University Saturday, the latter contingent won by a score of 44½ to 40½. It was a hard fought victory and the Alumni were in the lead until the relay. Among the close events was the pole vault, which was won by Holman Ferrin at 10 feet with Taylor second. Tupper and Austin were the high point winners.

Grange Will Have All Day Meeting—

An all day meeting of Gale Grange will be held at the K. of P. Hall Saturday, March 7th. The forenoon session will be called at 10:30 o'clock by Master Chas. B. Stokes. There will be the regular noon dinner and at the open lecture hour at 1:30 o'clock Dr. Coon, veterinary surgeon, will address the grange on "The Law Governing Tubercular Animals."

Mrs. N. J. Baker will read a paper on "The American Indian." Mr. Ira Purdin will lead in the question open for discussion, "Shall the state furnish school books?" "Our Community" is the subject of a paper by Mrs. Adams. During the noon hour will be the general exchange of vegetable and flower seeds, bulbs and shrubs.

Visitors to the afternoon program will be cordially welcomed.

Secretary.

Oliver Curtis to Preach Here Sunday—

The committee on pulpit supply at the Christian Church hope to have Brother O. L. Curtis to fill the pulpit next Sunday, both morning and evening. This is our own Oliver who is preparing for the ministry in the Bible University at Eugene. Hear him.

Causing Considerable Talk—

An artistic display of photos is made in the case at the Bryant Studio this week. On display among the sepia prints are several photos of local people that are hand tinted in beautiful water colors. They are causing considerable notice.

Mrs. Ross Reder, who for the past year has been doing clerical work in Hollis & Graham's office, has resigned her position at that place, and after the 10th of the month will be in the office with Miss Manche Langley. She will do public stenographic work and notary public.

Mrs. J. M. Barber was in Salem on business last Tuesday, and while in the Capital City had a pleasant visit with Orin LaCourse. Orin is studying in the Capital Business College, and likes his work fine. He said that he did not like the Capital City as well as Forest Grove, but he is much

Urgent Notice

Mothers should see to it that the whole family take at least 3 or 4 doses of a thorough, purifying, system cleaning medicine this spring. Now is the time. The family will be healthier, happier, and get along better if the blood is given a thorough purifying, the stomach and bowels cleaned out, and the germs of Winter accumulated in the system driven away. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the very best and surest Spring Remedy to take. Get it and see the difference in the whole family. Their color will be better, they'll feel fine and be well and happy. 35cts. The best the world over.

interested in his school work and will graduate in August.

J. E. Deeks returned home the first of the week from Kansas, accompanied by Eleanor Pierce, the little girl who had made her home with Mr. Deeks for several years. He would not have come home so soon but for the telegraphic dispatch telling of the serious illness of his father-in-law, Mr. Hendrickson, of this city, who is some better at this writing.

In what is said to be the closest basketball game of the year, the Pacific University team beat the Forest Grove High School by one stingy basket, after the score had been tied by a score of 17 to 17 at the close of the game.
