

All Around Town

Head of Pacific University Here—

President C. J. Bushnell, head of Pacific University, who is a son-in-law of Judge Hewitt, of Albany, spoke at the Albany College chapel this morning to the student body and faculty. His address was very good. He congratulated the college on the successful endowment campaign carried on by them.—Thursday's Albany Herald.

Sole or Soul—Brother?—

Omer Moore was over from Forest Grove again Sunday and the suspicion is out that "mother" is not the sole attraction. People just will talk, don't you know.—Newberg Graphic.

Ray L. Cummings, traveling representative of the firm of Alton & Jones of Forest Grove, was in the city yesterday on business.—Tuesday's Salem Statesman.

Aaron Wells, of Portland, has been visiting his father, N. R. Wells, and his sister, Mrs. John Williams, of this city, the past week. Mr. Wells formerly lived here and conducted a confectionery store at the present stand of Otlice Shearer for several years. He is now doing work in one of the Portland missions in which he is greatly interested.

A Little P. U. Alumna—

To Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gwynn, at Albany, Wednesday, February 25th at 4:45 p. m., a girl. The mother and baby are doing fine and it is thought that W. E. will recover in time.—Newport Signal.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwynn are both graduates of Pacific University, and were prominent in student body activities while in college. Mrs. Gwynn acted the leading part of Wallulah in "The Bridge of the Gods," which was put on at the Seattle Fair by F. Wesley Orr, of the drama class at P. U. Mr. Gwynn played the leading man's part. While in school he won the coast championship in the prohibition oratorical contest, was a leader in debate and represented the college twice in the intercollegiate oratorical contest.

Accidents During January—

Three out of 236 accidents occurring in industries of the state in January were fatal, according to the report of Labor Commissioner Hoff. Two of the fatalities occurred in logging camps. The number of accidents for each industry was as follows: Construction, 12; logging, 14; machine foundry and boiler shop, 18; paper mill, 26; railroad construction, 10; railroad section, 24; railroad train, 21; railroad yard, 24; sawmill, 23; sawmill yard, 8; miscellaneous, 56.

Exemptions Granted to Eighth Grade Pupils—

Pupils who have attained the age of 14 years, and who have taken the regular eight years of the elementary school, and spent at least 450 days in attendance at any public school in the state during the sixth, seventh and eighth grades with an average department of 85 per cent, may hereafter be excused from examination in any subject in which they have made an average of 90 per cent, according to a rule announced by State Superintendent Churchill. In addition to exemptions from examinations in geography and physiology which may be granted in the seventh and sixth grades upon fulfillment of similar conditions, he has also announced that pupils who have reached the age of 18 years, may, at the discretion of the school board, be admitted to any high school without having passed the eighth grade examinations, and receive after earning three semester credits, a diploma.

Spelling in Schools Given More Attention—

According to a report received by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Churchill, from H. C. Seymour, superintendent of Polk County, 956 pupils out of 1755 pupils in grades ranging from the third to the eighth, scored 100 per cent in the last spelling examinations. Mr. Churchill states that spelling clubs have now been organized in the counties of Lane, Yamhill, Jackson, Umatilla and Marion, and that the reports indicate that a vast improvement in spelling is being brought about among the pupils.

Grandfather Crossed Delaware With Washington—

C. W. Bryant was in Forest Grove Sunday, on his return from a visit to his son, H. D. Bryant, at Gaston. He is the only member of the Sons of the American Revolution whose grandfather fought in the Revolutionary war. His grandfather was with Washington when he crossed the Delaware. Mr. Bryant came to Oregon by ox team in 1853 and settled at Bryant Station, near Oswego.

About Former Grove People—

Dwinell Clapp, who has been working in a bank at Washougal, has gone to Brewster, Washington, which is about 40 miles north of Wenatchee, and will be the assistant cashier of a bank there. Gordon Clapp, who has been assistant in the chemistry department at Oberlin college, Ohio, has returned to the University of California to complete his medical course. Both of the Clapp boys formerly attended Pacific University, and are the sons of Rev. and Mrs. Cephas Clapp, old time residents.

Stranded for Three Days—

In a letter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Knight, of this city, Mrs. J. L. Austin said that on her return to California from here a few days ago the train was held up for three days at Bakersfield, and 1,000 people were fed by the railroad.

Local Lad Coaches Washougal Minstrels—

Holman Ferrin, who was here Saturday for the indoor track meet, is coaching the High School boys at Washougal for a minstrel show. Before going back to the University of Vermont to graduate Holman took part in an Alpha Zeta burnt cork show and was one of the end men. His experience with the local boys will stand him in good hand.

Social Hygiene Topic of Woman's Club—

The March meeting of the Woman's Club will be held Monday, the 9th, at the home of Mrs. Burlingham. The topic will be "Social Hygiene," and any member who wishes to ask questions along that line will please send them in to Mrs. Barber before the meeting. The executive board will meet with the president, Miss Hinman, Saturday, the 7th.

The new wall paper designs at Roe & Co.'s are unusually pleasing. 32tf

Your Last Chance In The Press Contest

Final Inducement

During the remaining days of the Contest, starting today, March 5, 1914, the management has decided to

TRIPLE ALL VOTES

According to the scale of votes as given below:

SCHEDULE OF VOTES.

Subscription Rates.

Time	Amount		Votes New or old
		Mail
6 Months	$ 1.00		3,000
1 Year	1.50		9,000
2 Years	3.00		24,000
3 Years	4.50		36,000
4 Years	6.00		54,000
5 Years	7.50		75,000
6 Years	9.00		96,000
7 Years	10.50		120,000
8 Years	12.00		144,000
9 Years	13.50		180,000
10 Years	15.00		225,000

For Subscriptions Over Ten Years Add 20,000 Votes to Each Year

Contest Closes March 14th at 10 p. m.

Are You Going to Win?

All Have an Equal Chance.

Address Contest Manager, THE PRESS, Forest Grove, Oregon

Let the Willis Place Lumber Co. fill your orders for building materials from stock of the best quality,

A Street and First Avenue South

Call and Examine Our New Spring Line of Ladies' and Gent's Suits and.....

Coats

One Lot of Boy's Odd Suits at $1.00 Each

JOHN ANDERSON
The Clothier

Special on Oranges

Friday and Saturday

10c a dozen

Shearer Confectionery Store, Main St.