Missionary Society Meet—

The Missionary Society of the Christian Church held its regular meeting in the parlors of the church last Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Fogue as leader. Rev. Swander and Rev. Jones both gave very interesting and instructive talks. There was a good attendance and a great deal of interest manifested.

Surprise Party—

About a dozen ladies with their fancy work and baskets filled with good things to eat arrived at the home of Mrs. H. B. Holmes Wednesday afternoon in time for the affair to be a complete surprise on her. The afternoon was spent in doing fancy work and conversation. A surprise of that kind is always enjoyed by all, even if the one surprised does not fully recover from the shock until after the guests have all departed.

P. E. O. Chapter Elects Officers—

The regular meeting of the P. E. O. Chapter was held Tuesday afternoon, March 10th, at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Seymour. The annual election of officers was held and the following officers were elected and installed: Mrs. Annie Burlingham, president; Mrs. Florence Bean, vice-president; Mrs. Jessie Scott, recording secretary; Mrs. Nettie White, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ella Bailey, treasurer; Mrs. Rose Olmstead, chaplain; Mrs. Henrietta Goff, guard.

To Assist in Another Series of Meetings—

Thomas Isaacs, who so ably and efficiently conducted the music during the series of meetings which recently closed at the First M. E. Church, leaves for Willamina, Oregon, Saturday, where he will assist the pastor in a series of meetings at that place. He expects to be gone about ten days or two weeks.

Motor to Portland—

Wednesday evening a small crowd of young people were anxious to see whether or not the roads between Forest Grove and Portland were in good condition for motoring, and having Will Haskel as chauffeur they made the trip with no difficulty. With a few exceptions they found the roads in first-class condition for this time of the year. Herry Hamilton also made the trip Wednesday evening, leaving the Grove about midnight.

Dakota Farmer Stuck on it—

J. N. Hoffman, the local lawyer inventor, is manufacturing his potato and vegetable washer in the basement of his building on Pacific avenue. This week a farmer from North Dakota went into the shop and was enthusiastic over the machine and said that if it were put on the market in North Dakota the farmers would use it to wash their potatoes in a solution of formaldehyde so as to prevent scab. At present farmers there he said, spray the potatoes with this solution and much of the chemical is wasted. The machine, he thought, would do it more thoroughly too.

Hillsboro Cartoonist in Contest—

Barney Lewis, the cartoonist of Hillsboro who painted the sign of the Rogers' City Library here, was one among 51 artists who submitted drawings for the Portland Rose Festival contest and he was honored by receiving sixth place. His colored crayon drawing together with ten others were put on exhibition in the Portland art museum for a time. Mrs. C. A. Dowling of the Oregonian staff won the prize.

Lady Grangers—

The ladies of Gale Grange will meet with Mrs. C. S. Aydelott for an all-day meeting Thursday, March 19th.

Special Meetings—

Rev. Albert M. Bean, evangelist and singer, will preach at the Free Methodist Church each evening at 7:30, on March 13th and 20th. Come and hear him.

Sawmill Man Here—

F. S. Bramwell superintendent of the new sawmill now being built at Banks, was a business visitor yesterday and made the Press a call. Mr. Bramwell lives at LaGrande, but expects to move here during the summer.

CANDIDATES' ANNOUNCEMENTS

Deputy Recorder Seeks Nomination
I, Fred Everest, duly registered Republican, hereby announce myself as Republican candidate for the office of Recorder of Conveyances of Washington County. I am a resident of Hillsboro, and am Deputy Recorder and promise that if I am nominated for the office at the primary nominating election, to be held May 15, 1914, I will accept the nomination and will not withdraw, and if I am elected, I will, during my term of office, use due care and to the best of my knowledge and ability perform the duties of and will at all times be courteous and the office with neatness, accuracy and dispatch. Being familiar with the work, I can serve the public efficiently and will at all times be courteous and attentive. FRED A. EVEREST.
(Paid adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. Bucknam and son and daughter, of Garrison, Montana, are visiting at the home of T. H. Webley this week. Mrs. Bucknam is a niece of Mrs. Webley.

Mrs. P. Cronin returned Sunday from Portland, where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Brunner.
