Stuck to It. Her Husband—If a man steals, no matter what it is, he will live to regret it. His Wife—During our courtship you used to steal kisses from me. Her Husband—Well, you heard what I said.

Wonderful. A celebrated vocalist was in a motor-car accident one day. A paper, recording the accident, said: "We are happy to state that he was able to appear the following evening in three pieces."

Onions. Garlic, onions, shallots and leeks have long been cultivated in almost all countries, and their origin is very uncertain. That of the shallot is better known. It grows spontaneously in Siberia.

In the Dark. Uncle Joe—Yes, Teddy, it is quite possible that there are people in the moon.

Little Teddy—Well, what becomes of them when there isn't any moon?—Exchange.

Opened a Shop. "What became of that fellow Tweedley?" "Oh, he opened a shop." "Doing well?" "No—doing time. He was caught in the act."—London Punch.

An Exclusive Paper. The czar of Russia has a newspaper of his own, specially printed each morning. It is the most exclusive paper in the world, for only two copies are supplied—one for the czar and the other for his private secretary.

Marked Improvement. Rev. Caller—Well, Mrs. Mangles, and is the good man any better? Mrs. Mangles—Oh, yes, sir. 'E's nearly all right agen, sir. 'E don't say 'is prayers no more of a night now, sir.—Sydney Bulletin.

Swindled. Collector—H'm, fairly good specimen. I'll give you £50 for it. Curio Dealer—No, sir. I've just sold that for 100 guineas. Collector—A hundred! Good heavens, you've been swindled! It's worth twice as much!—London Punch.

Great System. "What is the speaker's system for bringing up her own children?" "It's a system she perfected all by herself, and she tells me it works to a charm." "Tell me about it." "Why, when she wants them to do a thing she says, 'Don't' and when she wants them not to do a thing she says 'Do.'"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Novels. Novels are sweets. All people with healthy literary appetite love them. Almost all women, a vast number of clear, hard headed men, judges, bish ops, chancellors, mathematicians, are notorious novel readers, as well as young boys and sweet girls and their kind, tender mothers.—William Makepeace Thackeray.

LITTLE THINGS. Happiness is really made up of little things. Enjoy the littles of every day. The great favors of fortune come to but few, and those who have them tell us that the quiet, homely joys, which are within the reach of us all, are infinitely the best.

Vegetables in Season. Young Wife—But that's very expensive, especially as it's in season, isn't it? Green Grocer—Well, madam, it is and it isn't, as you might say. What with the French gardening and what not, the vegetables that used to be out of season are in, and them that is in is out, owing to the demand for the others.—London Punch.

Mother's Busy Day. The monologue artist was moving his audience to tears. "Dear old mother," he was saying, "I will never forget how she used to rock all of us children to sleep. There were nineteen of us, and by the time she had us rocked to sleep the alarm clock rang, and she had to get dad's breakfast."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Ten Greatest Inventions. "What are the ten greatest inventions of our time?" asked a scientific journal recently. It awarded the prize to the contestant sending this list. The electric furnace, the steam turbine, the gasoline automobile, the moving pictures, the aeroplane, wireless telegraphy, the cyanide process, the induction motor, the linotype, the electric welding process. And all this was accomplished in a quarter century. Power asks, Can you name off hand seven of the inventors?

Limitations as to Time. A well known preacher was making a pedestrian excursion in a wild rural district. Feeling rather hungry, he looked at his watch to see if it was nearly dinner time, but found the watch was stopped. Just then, happening to meet with a country boy, he asked, "What time is it, my lad?" The boy replied, "Just 12, sir." "Only 12?" said the minister. "I thought it was more." "It never is more round these parts," said the boy simply. "It begins at 1."—Pall Mall Gazette.

GIVING ADVICE. Too much advice is usually given. It is only the word in season that can be of any avail, and the word in season seldom or never comes to those whose minds are constantly harrowed up and irritated by words out of season.
