

Preparedness--Protection

Everyone believes in protecting their own interests. A bank check is a protection against paying a bill a second time.

You can be Prepared by merely opening a check account with this bank and pay your bills during 1916 by check.

We do the work, you get the benefit.

First National Bank

Forest Grove, Oregon
Member Federal Reserve Bank

THE PACIFIC MARKET

The Market of Service, Quality and Economy

We sell Hazelwood Danish Butter. Save the coupons; see the premium list.
BEEF, PORK, VEAL and MUTTON CUTS, FRUITS, VEGETABLES and PRODUCE, PACIFIC MARKET CASCADE'S COFFEES, TEAS and SPICES. CHILI FLAVORINGS. Peanut Butter, two pounds for 25c

LORD & WEIDENBACH

FOREST GROVE, OREGON

CONDENSED NEWS NOTES

If for me a rose
In Portland grows
Pluck it quick,
Before it's froze.

Con Caples spent Saturday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dennis, of Scoggins Valley, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. W. Ryals.

Mrs. R. A. Herrington has returned to her home in Scoggins Valley after a four months' visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schultz, who have been taking turns at nursing each other through a siege of the grip, are convalescing.

Mrs. A. E. Nourse, formerly a resident of this city, but who has been living in Portland for several years, has sold her 10-acre ranch near Orenco to a man from Minneapolis.

Mrs. D. A. Castle of Thatcher, and Mrs. Ervin Bailey of David's

Hill, were trading in town Saturday.

Roy Mayea has been a late victim of the grippe.

Miss Opal Cutright, who has been in McMinnville since last August, returned last week to her home near Thatcher.

Goff Brothers received a carload of the celebrated John Deere wagons and the force was kept busy putting the vehicles away.

An item in last week's Express led many people to believe that there was but one registration place in Forest Grove, but there are two, as follows: Voters in Southeast and Southwest Precincts should register at the office of Miss Manche Langley, while voters of Northeast and Northwest and Purdin precincts must register with Edward Davis, at the office of the Oregon Land company. The law has been so amended that it is not necessary for women to tell their ages, except to certify that they are at least twenty-one years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Pierce visited the James Churchill family on Gales Creek Sunday. Mrs. Pierce and little daughter are recovering from a tussle with the grip.

Some Real Bargains

We are at present showing some exceptional bargains in the United States Enamel Company's high grade wares, such as Dish Pans, Berlin Kettles, Lipped Sauce Pans, Double Cereal Cookers and 12 quart Pails.

O-CEDAR MOPS at Reduced Prices

HARDWARE, TINWARE, STOVES and PAINTS

GORDON & GORDON HARDWARE CO.

Phone 663

FOREST GROVE, ORE.

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Removal Sale at Mrs. Richards. John Heisler of Gales Creek was in this city Monday.

Mrs. C. V. B. Russell is recovering from a siege of the grip.

The Rejuvenation club will give a dance Friday evening, with hard-Times costumes. Prizes for best costumes.

Married—Jan. 15th, at Vancouver, Wash., Lester Armentrout of Portland and Mrs. Gertrude E. Purdin of Seattle.

The 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lyda fell into a tub of boiling water one day last week and was severely scalded.

See "Those Dreadful Dregs" at the Star Theater this evening. The proceeds go for the Student's Fund—a worthy cause.

Mrs. C. L. Van Koughnet very pleasantly entertained a number of lady friends at a "Silver Tea" on Friday afternoon of last week.

Lee Covert, who is now firing on the S. P., visited his better half and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Buxton, over Sunday.

"Uncle" Tom Todd, one of the pioneers of Washington county, is so feeble that there is grave doubt of his lasting much longer.

Clarence Kelsey, who had his right hand frightfully mangled at the planing mill Tuesday of last week, is getting along nicely at the hospital.

A. Berg, who has been operating a grocery on West Pacific avenue for several years, is packing up and shipping the stock to his Portland store.

There will be a lecture on Japan, by Senator Hollis, with stereopticon slides, at the Congregational church tomorrow (Thursday) night. Admission free.

John and Arthur Ireland, who have been assisting in the construction of a school building at Monmouth, have returned to their home in this city.

Having two typewriters, the editor of the Express will sell either a Royal or L. C. Smith, both visible writing, at bargain prices and easy terms.

Mrs. W. W. Ryals and Mrs. B. F. Whited will entertain at a "Silver" tea tomorrow afternoon at the Congregational church and all ladies are invited to be present.

Mrs. John Baxter returned last night from Yamhill, where she had been with Mrs. G. F. West, who is seriously ill. Mrs. West was a resident of Forest Grove a few years ago.

Last Thursday evening members of Holbrook lodge No. 30, A. F. & A. M., had the pleasure of a visit from their grand secretary, Frank Robinson, who delivered for them a very interesting talk on Masonry.

Mrs. McFeeters took Mrs. Kelsey's place in the Caples store a few days last week during the latter's absence because of the accident which her husband suffered at the planing mill.

The Farmers' Commercial club will meet Saturday at the Kansas City school house to install the new officers. An all-day meeting, with dinner by the ladies, will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Lord, Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Wilcox, Mrs. Margaret Mallory and O. F. Weidenbach at cards and a midnight lunch last night and the guests report a very enjoyable time.

Grangers in Convention

Delegates from the various granges of Washington county are holding a county convention in I. O. O. F. hall, this city, today, with a large attendance.

A business session was held this morning, followed by a banquet. This afternoon various subjects of interest to the members were discussed, including the advisability of industrial training in the rural schools, the desirability of a permanent place for holding county fairs and Dr. Holmes is on the program for an address on "Prison Reform."

Removal Sale at Mrs. Richards.

GOFF BROS.

HARDWARE and IMPLEMENTS

Washington county agents for John Deere Plow Co., American Royal Fence, Western Ammunition, Monarch Ranges and Cole Air-Tight Heaters, Empire Cream Separators, Empire Milking Machines, Oregon Silos, Star Barn Equipment, Giant Blasting Powder and many other leading lines.

We Buy Right and Sell Right

Phone 683

Graduate Optician

Expert Watch Repairing

Twenty Years Experience

M. J. ABBOTT

STANDARD GOODS ONLY

Pacific Avenue

:::

Forest Grove, Ore.

Card Party at Dilley

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolf of Dilley, very pleasantly entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Maury and son of Lewiston, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Maury of Armells, Idaho. The time was spent at "500" and at a late hour first and second honors were awarded to Mrs. A. L. McBride and Mrs. H. R. Kauffman, also to J. W. Hughes and Marion Maury. Congratulations went to Mrs. C. E. Maury and A. L. McBride. After a dainty lunch served by the hostess and her sister, the rest of the evening was spent in music.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Maury and son of Lewiston, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Maury and children of Armells, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brodersen, Mr. and Mrs. F. Sutford, Mr. and Mrs. F. Crowthers, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McBride, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Maury, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Johnson, Cecil Hughes, of Dilley; Mr. and Mrs. Ward, of Gaston; Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Kauffman and Miss Mary Beach of Forest Grove.

Removal Sale at Mrs. Richards.

E. H. Heitzhausen of Portland, who, up to twenty years ago, was in business in this city, was a business visitor in Forest Grove last Saturday and called on the editor of the Express. Some sixteen years ago the writer and Mr. Heitzhausen were fellowtownsmen in Plattsmouth, Neb., where the former was employed as a printer, while Ed was engaged in the hotel business. The visit was a pleasant one to the editor and he hopes to see Mr. Heitzhausen in Forest Grove again before many months.

In fact, Ed says he may be here in March, when the local Knights of Pythias hold their silver jubilee he being a charter member of the local K. of P. lodge.

Willing to Serve

The following Washington county people have signified their willingness to serve their county by filing for offices at the coming primary election:

E. B. Sappington, Forest Grove (Republican) for county treasurer to succeed himself.

H. A. Kuratli, Hillsboro (Republican) for county clerk.

J. C. Applegate, Hillsboro (Republican) for sheriff.

A. A. Morrill, Hillsboro (Republican) for assessor.

C. A. Hanley, Hillsboro, (Democrat) for county commissioner.

John Nyberg, Tualatin, (Republican) for county commissioner.

The McMinnville High baseball team came to this city Friday night and took the scalp of Forest Grove High at a clip of 15 to 15. The game was fast, started to finish and the visitors won on their merits. After game the locals entertained visitors at a dancing party at P. hall.

Removal Sale

For the next ten days I sell corsets and hair swives at per cent discount and give reduced prices on all lines.

MRS. BLANCHE RICHARDS

Special Stationery Sale at Book Store

We are making a special price of 25 cts per box on several high grade lines and ask you to come and examine it.

SCHULTZ' MARKET

"THE PURE FOOD STORE"

BY THE WAY--

Speaking of FLOUR, Do You Use White Mountain?

and FLEISCHMANN'S COMPREST YEAST, the joint key note to success on bake day? The Butter is 'Purity Hazelnut' made by the new Forest Grove Creamery.

Service

PHONE 061

Personal Attention