The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Ashley will be pleased to learn that they will remain in Forest Grove at least another year, this fact being assured by the action of the church board in re-engaging Rev. Ashley for another year.

Wirtz & Watkins, the local dealers in Reo autos, have added another machine—the Briscoe—which comes at a less price than the Reo, but is said to be one of the best values in low-priced cars on the market.

Mr. Cooper of North Plains was in town Saturday to see his daughter, Mrs. Skee, who has been quite ill and unable to be in her position as teacher in one of the grades of our schools. Mrs. John DeMoss substituted for Mrs. Skee during her illness.

The promoters of the Chautauqua for Forest Grove are busy at work for the 1916 gathering and they hope to have as good lecturers this year as last, when they had, among others, Senator Elmer J. Burkett, mentioned last week as a candidate on the republican ticket for vice president.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Wilcox Saturday evening entertained Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Lord, Mrs. Margaret Mallory and O. F. Weidenbach at cards and lunch. The playing lasted until nearly midnight and then the host and hostess treated their guests to an excellent lunch.

Willis Goff last week received eighteen California quail from the state hatchery at Corvallis, to be turned loose as soon as the snow leaves. The birds have been admired in the windows of Goff Bros. store by hundreds during the past week. While not so large as Bob White, these birds are prettier. Several counties in Utah have been stocked with these birds and they multiply quite rapidly when protected from hunters.
