of the Successful and Great men of today.

Any settlement you may make with the great men of today will be made by a bank check, a reminder that all successful business is transacted by check, not cash.

The settlement of your accounts from the contents of the ancient wallet does not place you in the list of either great or successful men.

WEEK'S DOINGS IN SOCIETY

Bible Class Entertains

The members of the M. E. bible class and a few invited guests enjoyed a big dinner and program at the Sunday School rooms yesterday, there being nearly a hundred in attendance.

The dinner was a regular filling Methodist feast and was thoroughly enjoyed by all, after which the program was taken up. First there were remarks by president E. P. Fruit, a vocal duet by Mesdames Williams and Carlyle; the audience sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," Mrs. Williams sang "The Old Folks at Home," Rev. Dunlap sang "Auld Lang Syne," Mrs. Blanche Richards sang "All Day Long," Mrs. R. M. Taylor favored the audience with a recitation, "Little Things"; Mesdames Dunlap and Williams sang "Potomac Bells" and Miss Helen Little recited "The Matrimonial Experiment" and, on an encore, came back with "Dearly Beloved." With a few remarks by Rev. Dunlap, the meeting came to a close at 3:30.

In honor of their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Morris Monday evening entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Good, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mays, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McAlear, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Duncan, Mrs. Ingersol and Messrs T. O. Goff, Levi and Archie Keek. Music was the principal feature of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs E. B. Brookbank was hostess to two tables of auction bridge Monday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Coyne, of Portland. Those present were Mrs. E. E. Williams, Mrs. C. E. Walker, Mrs. Coyne, Miss Myers, Mrs. Ives Hoar, Mrs. J. A. Thornburgh, Mrs. J. P. Hurley and Mrs. Cecil Creel.

Pacific University

Owing to the sudden illness of one of the leading characters in the Freshman class play, it was impossible to give the production on Tuesday evening, as announced. As soon as a date can be determined upon it will be announced in this column.

A. C. Newell of Portland, chairman of the program committee of the Civic League, delivered an earnest and interesting address in Marsh Hall on Washington's birthday at the usual chapel hour. His theme was "American Citizenship and the work of the Oregon Civic League." As a result of his plea for a better citizenship, the college faculty and students contemplate the organization of a branch of the Civic League here. Dr. Bushnell has taken the matter in hand and has appointed committees to consider the matter of organizing at once.

One of the best basketball games of the season will be played next Saturday evening in the local gymnasium. The return game between Pacific College of Newberg and P. U. will be played, deciding the championship between the two close rivals. P. C. has won every game this season except the game with P. U. It has been reported that the Newberg rooters will come along in a special car to witness the event. Admission 25c.

As the play had to be postponed the Freshman class hiked to David's Hill yesterday for a picnic. They report a dandy time.

J. S. Buxton and daughter, Mrs. Covert, motored down to Portland Friday. Mr. Buxton reports that the only bad roads he found were in Multnomah county, whose motorists have always complained about the roads of Washington county.

A Good Man Leaving

G. A. Gilmore, proprietor of the People's Market, has decided that there are too many meat markets in Forest Grove and Saturday night will close his place and move the fixtures to Portland. He believes that, owing to the fact that so many of the people of smaller towns go to Portland to do their trading, he can do better by going there. He has been a resident of Forest Grove for five years and has been in business for three years, during which time he and Mrs. Gilmore have made many friends who will regret to learn of their intended departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Boldrick, who have been spending several months with friends and relatives about Forest Grove, returned to their home at Rockaway Beach today. The Southern Pacific Company has announced that the Tillamook train will run regularly again, beginning February 22.

To the Public

Having decided to move my stock and fixtures to Portland, I desire to thank my friends for their past patronage and assure those in my debt to call at once and settle, as I leave the first of March. With best wishes for all my friends, I remain

For State Representative

L. A. FERNSWORTH

To the members of the Republican Party in Washington County: I beg respectfully to solicit your consideration at the Republican Primary May 19, for the office of state Representative. I favor uncompromising economy, clean-cut, fewer laws, and shall place the public interests above of politics. I shall work against unnecessary, frivolous and conflicting laws, and I shall give my best effort to lightening the ever-increasing burden of taxation created by expenditures out of proportion to increase in wealth and actual needs.
