W. C. T. U. COLUMN

Mrs. K. E. Penfield, Editor

A regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Friday, April 7th, at the home of Mrs. Phillips with a full attendance. Mrs. Bishop led the devotional exercises following which routine business was taken up. Preliminary arrangements were made for the holding of an evening meeting on the 21st, to be addressed by Mrs. Mallet of Portland, state superintendent of medical temperance. It was voted to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. William Kerr, a former president, who recently lost her husband.

Mrs. Hoskins gave a report of the mid year convention in Portland, with special mention of the address of Judge Gatens on 'The Care of Illegitimate Children,' quoting him as saying "We not only need better babies but better fathers and mothers."

It came to our notice last week that women, though voters, and many of them taxpayers, cannot sit on trial juries. Some of our laws evidently need amending or expurgating. Another of that sort is the one permitting only taxpayers to vote on school matters. We heard something not so very long ago about the formation of a Civic League in this city and a committee being appointed to take steps for such organization. Is it still in embryo? Some of us who don't care for "500" and social teas, might be interested and instructed as well, if a gathering together of this sort would take up the aforesaid questions, as well as many others sure to follow in connection with our fall election.

K. B. PENFIELD.
