Those who are to take part in the "Bosin's Bride" which will be given soon, have begun practicing. It is thought they will be able to put it on in about four or five weeks. It is under the direction of Mr. Thomas and Miss Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Walters returned to their home in Corvallis Thursday, after having spent the winter here at the home of Mr. Van Walters. ### The Y. W. Conference

The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Conference held here last week end was unexcelled in the history of district conferences. The program was carried out as planned and the delegates and all those present enjoyed an inspiring and helpful conference which will not soon be forgotten.

Because of the representative of the Y. W. C. A. of the Northwest being in Japan, the Japanese idea was carried out at the Conference Luncheon at the high school Saturday noon and also at the reception held Friday evening at Marsh hall for delegates and high school girls. Japanese lanterns furnished the only light in the chapel and the girls enjoyed a social time together.

The luncheon served Saturday noon by the high school domestic science class was a great credit to the training given in our school in cookery and service. Seventy sat down to partake of the tempting menu.

Following the luncheon came the toasts, with Miss Eleanor Hopkins as toast mistress. The summer conference is to be held at Seabeck and the luncheon theme was "Go to Seabeck!" The toasts were as follows:

"Idle Breezes," McMinnville College; "Numberless Cherry Blossoms," Miss Emerson; "Shady Paths," Pacific College; "Plentiful Sunshine," Dallas High School; "Rippling Waters," Reed College; "Ideal Sunsets," Newberg High School; "Nodding Pine Trees," Monmouth Normal; "Grassy Knolls," Pacific University.

The room was decorated with imitation Japanese cherry blossoms and large bouquets of Japanese quince adorned the table. The Japanese idea was also carried out in the unusually unique and pretty place cards.

The closing vesper service Sunday afternoon was a very fitting service to end so splendid a conference. The delegates went home enthusiastic over the session and appreciative of the unsurpassed courtesy shown them by the Forest Grove people.
