HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

No Accounting For Juries.

Many verdicts of a strange, curious and humorous nature find birth not infrequently in coroner's juries and juries in justice's courts.

Uncommonly intelligent are the coroner's juries in Mississippi. Twelve men in Warren county, in that state, returned a verdict several years ago which read: "The deceased died by the will of God or some other disease unknown to the jury."

Another verdict, equally as solemn, reads: "We are of A Pinlon that the Deceast met with her death from Violent Infirmation of the Arm, producest from Unnan Cauz."

An old story, oft repeated, is that an English jury in a criminal case once brought in the following: "Guilty, with some little doubt as to whether he is the man."

Another is told of a Welsh jury, which reads: "We find the man who stole the mare not guilty."—Docket.

Got Even.

A young man who had been snubbed at the theater door decided to get even with his girl friends.

The girls occupied the first four seats in the sixth row and the young man had the fifth. They paid no attention to him. On the program was a monologist who began to talk of love to get a few laughs, as those artists often do. He said: "All the girls who are in love, please stand up."

Turning to the girl next to him, the young man who had been snubbed said:

"Please let me out."

Naturally, the entire four had to rise. When they were on their feet the young man sat down, while the remainder of the audience roared in glee at the four.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Effaged Maturity.

"Do you take as much interest in dancing as you did?"

"Yes," replied Uncle Wagglesfoot. "But I'm gettin' so dancin' isn't youthful enough for me. I'm practicin' roller skatin' on one skate."—Washington Star.

A Reminder.

"Look here," said the indignant house owner to the agent from whom he had bought his home on the installment plan. "The paneling in my dining room is opening so you can put your finger through the cracks."

"That's all right," replied the agent. "The house is settling. And that reminds me. It's about time you settled up for last month's installment."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"An' phwat is your Patsy doin' these days, Mrs. O'Hagan?"

"Ah, he's doin' foine! He's a conductor in the opery house, an' wears a swallytail coat."

"A conductor, is it? An' phwat does a conductor do?"

"He conducts people to their seats."

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Correct.

Miss Wheat, the new teacher, was hearing the history lesson, which dealt with the career of George Washington. Turning to one of the scholars, she asked:

"James, what was Washington's farewell address?"

The new boy arose with a promptitude that promised well for his answer.

"Heaven, ma'am," he said.
