Annie Frost, a woman well past middle age, was taken to Salem last week and turned over to the asylum at that place. She has been slowly failing mentally for the past fifteen years or more and was adjudged insane the other day. She was a resident of Tualatin.

Forest Grove is looking forward to a treat Tuesday, May 16, at 3 p. m., at the Star Theatre. Superintendent Inlow has promised to dismiss all classes so that every child in Forest Grove will have the rare opportunity of hearing Miss Ruth Lannigan (who is of national reputation,) on "The Children's Hour," of which so much is being said. In fact, it is quite the fad of the hour. All the papers are full of the subject. The Woman's Club has arranged to give the parents and children this rare treat. Admission 10c.

Engagement Announced

Announcement was made at the Forest Grove Catholic church, Sunday, of the engagement of Miss Erma Agnes Adler and William Joseph Vandehey, the wedding to be May 17, at 9 o'clock, with high mass. The bride-elect is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Adler, prominent residents of this city, and is one of the most popular as well as one of the most beautiful young ladies of this city. Miss Adler is an accomplished musician and has taught piano music for several years. Until her engagement she was the organist of the Catholic church for some time. Mr. Vandehey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Vandehey, a prominent farmer and hop growers of Greenville and is very popular in that section, where he has lived most of his life. Mr. Vandehey is also a musician, being talented on the violin, and was a member of the choir for a number of years. After wedding, the couple will live in a bungalow on Pacific avenue.

Rural Carrier Examination

Circuit Court

Frank D. Sawyer vs B. A. Nollsch. Mortgage foreclosure to the amount of $3500 with interest at 6 per cent.

Jennie M. Rule vs Alvin H. Rule. Divorce on the alleged ground of desertion and non-support. The defendant is alleged to have left his home in May, 1903, and since that time the plaintiff has been compelled to support herself.

Edwin Morris Baker vs Helen A. Davey Baker. Release from marriage contract which is alleged to be void. Baker received a divorce from his former wife in the state of Oregon and before the required six months was up married Helen A. Davey in the city of Tacoma, Wash. Plaintiff now asks that any binding contract be annulled and that defendant be allowed to retain her maiden name of Helen A. Davey.

The case of Chas. Jansen vs Katie Jansen proves itself to be rather a complicated affair, both parties alleging several things of the other. Plaintiff first alleges defendant to have attacked him with a hammer and caused his arrest. He was then haled before a judge in a Multnomah county court, tried and released, complaint being proved groundless. Defendant, some time later, caused his arrest in Washington county and the plaintiff was taken before Justice Smith in Hillsboro where he was again tried and released, complaint again being proved groundless. Plaintiff also alleges that defendant is of a nagging, complaining and fault-finding nature. In answer to complaint, defendant demands divorce, attorney's fees, one third of property and $1000 alimony and costs.

Probate Court

In the Estate of Chas. Knapp. A Petition for probate of will the appointment of appraisers and the confirmation of Ardell F. Knapp as executrix. There is an estate of probably $6700.

In the estate of Chas. Jacobson, L. P. Adams is petitioning for appointment of himself as administrator.

Marriage Licenses

John J. Pollock and Edith Royce, Guy F. Morley and Pearl B. Mackrodt, Royal F. Sleeper and Verda B. Inkley, Peter Fred Grosson and Marie Signet, John H. F. Sheppard and Mrs. Victoria Hatfield, James L. Martin and Jessie M. McInnis.

In last week's county seat news, there was an item in regard to the J. F. Williams divorce case which contained a few errors. It was stated that Mr. Williams charged defendant with having accused him in the presence of her children of being immoral and leading an immoral life. Mr. Williams' complaint does not make that particular charge and he asks this correction.—(Editor).
