

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 1

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, May 11, 1916.

No. 18

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Prof. E. D. West was a Hillsboro visitor Thursday.

Hancock & Wiles carry Life, Accident & Fire Insurance. 1-tf

The primary election comes a week from tomorrow.

Highest price paid for Mohair and Wool. A. G. Hoffman & Co.

We will insure your auto against fire, theft and collision. Hancock & Wiles. 9-tf

Miss Mary Brobst went to Corvallis Friday to the Junior week-end at O. A. C.

Load your camera with Speedex Films for best results. Littler's Pharmacy.

Miss Catherine Davis went to Portland Thursday to fill a concert engagement.

Mrs. Emil Carlson spent the week-end with her friend, Mrs. Hamlin, in Portland.

Miss Ruth Patton returned Monday night from Portland where she has been two weeks in the hospital.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet at the parsonage tomorrow afternoon.

James O. Convill, superintendent of Portland parks and a former instructor at Pacific University, visited at the Langley home on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Taylor returned Monday evening from Portland, where she has been for three weeks, recuperating from an operation in St. Vincents' hospital.

Grant Mann of Cornelius, one of the republican candidates for sheriff, was in town Saturday and purchased four inches of space in the Express to tell where he stands in his candidacy.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Moore of Hemlock, Tillamook county, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. L. S. Phillips and family, on their way to the state Grange meeting at Grant's Pass.

Miss Eloise Clarke, Miss Florence E. Woods, and Misses Salma and Hannah Carlson, all of Portland, attended the band dance Saturday night and were guests at the Lasham home over Sunday.

T. C. Lord, Jr., had business in Portland yesterday.

We will insure your auto against fire, theft and collision. Hancock & Wiles. 9-tf

Spray your trees well and get more and better fruit. Now is the time to use Arsenate of Lead. For sale by Littler's Pharmacy.

A little son of P. C. Starrett suffered a broken leg Monday, when he pulled a washing machine over on himself. At last accounts the little fellow was getting along nicely.

Practically all the business houses of Forest Grove will be closed from 10 to 12 tomorrow morning during the coronation of the May Queen of Pacific University and the other exercises on the campus.

"The Children's Hour" entertainment that was to have been given May 16th, at the Star Theater, under the auspices of the Woman's Club, by Miss Marguerite Lannigan, has been indefinitely postponed on account of ill health. This, no doubt, will be a great disappointment to many. Miss Lannigan's friends hope she will soon be able to fill her engagements.

A committee consisting of S. H. Davis of Beaverton, H. V. Meade of Orenco, J. W. Wells of Huber and Mr. Weil of Hillsboro met at the county seat Monday for the purpose of drafting a constitution for the proposed County Development League. This constitution will be ratified at the next meeting, which will be held in the club rooms of the Hillsboro Commercial club next Monday at 2 p. m. At this time the organization will be completed and the Washington County Development League will be ready for business.

The friends of President Wilson are going to get together on Tuesday, May 16th. at 8:00 p. m., in the library room, and form a Woodrow Wilson League. If you are a supporter of Wilson and believe he is the man we want for our next President, join the league and help boost. There will be a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer elected Tuesday evening. You don't have to be a democrat to join the league; you simply subscribe to the slogan "Wilson First." There is no expense attached to being a member.

The County Seat

Washington County Editorial Association
News Bureau

Circuit Court

J. Warren Corey vs Frank and F. Pearl Corey. Suit filed for the division of certain real property owned in conjunction. J. W. Corey asks that the court divide the land into three equal parts, placing a third in the name of each party concerned. Should this fail the complaint asks that the court sell the land and divide the proceeds equally between them after all expenses have been paid.

State of Oregon vs Wm. Ober and Frank E. Farmer. On April 5th the two were alleged to have stolen copper wire from a power plant near Gaston to the extent of 700 lbs, the value of which was $150. Each was released on a bond of $1000.

J. B. Kinney vs. J. F. Macey. Suit for judgment on note of $300 on which the sum of $173, with attorneys fees is still due.

Elmer T. Connell, et al., vs. C. H. Jacobs, et al. Foreclosure on note secured by mortgage.

L. Nitschmann vs Albert Kahler. Foreclosure on note for $125.-25 dated June 9, 1915 with costs and interest. Plaintiff also asks judgement against defendant for $75 due from rental on certain real property.

Edward L. Reed and Rhoda A. Reed vs. W. J. Wilcox, et al. Judgment on note to the sum of $500.

Probate Court

In the estate of Maria Sweek, petition filed for settlement of estate.

The heirs of the M. A. Robinson estate are petitioning for the appointment of Frank Speidel of Portland as administrator. The value of this estate is placed at $500.

News comes from Snohomish, Wash., of the death there last week of Mrs. Violet Lysons, a resident of this city from 1878 to 1902. Deceased was 86 years of age and was born in England. Two of her sons, Fred and J. W., are graduates of Pacific University. Five children, all grown, survive the mother. The body was buried at Snohomish.