

The Forest Grove Express

Published every Wednesday at Forest Grove, Oregon.
W. C. Benfer, Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter Jan. 12, 1916, at the postoffice at Forest Grove, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1916

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Hillsboro was more loyal to its candidates than Forest Grove.

The voters of Washington county are evidently rather fond of Tongue.

The Rose Show comes next, then the county fair and after that the fall election.

The Great American Voter squared up a few grudges and a lot of imaginary ones last Friday.

Some of the boys who thought they stood pretty high with the the Oregon Voting Kings got a terrible jolt.

Considering that he had notified the secretary of state that he was not a candidate for president, Judge Hughes certainly ran well in Oregon.

Senator Hollis made a nice run, considering the mud through which he had to wade. His opponent was not so handicapped by Mr. Hollis and his friends.

There is some consolation in having George Hancock defeated—he will continue to reside in Forest Grove, where we can see his cheerful countenance and hear his pleasant voice daily.

With both the county seat papers fighting him, Editor Fernsworth of the Banks Herald made a hard run for the legislature, coming within 53 votes of landing a place.

The big vote given Jess Applegate for sheriff would indicate that he has some mighty good friends—and lots of them. And the small vote given Mr. Mann indicates that the taxpayers do not want their sheriff to pay his own expenses.

The Express editor hears there are some people in this section who claim it is a waste of time and money to teach boys and girls cabinet-making, carpentry, dressmaking and cooking in the high schools. If there are any such people, they should take a look at a practical demonstration (in the Allen hardware window) of what pupils of the Forest Grove high school can do along these lines. Some of the work in that window would put to shame the best efforts of some of the fathers and mothers of the community. The examples shown demonstrate that domestic art, domestic science and manual training are well taught in the local school.

Next Tuesday is Memorial Day, when, all over this land of ours, gray-bearded veterans of the civil war will walk, with faltering steps, to the thousand of cemeteries where little mounds of earth mark the last resting place of former comrades-in-arms. These veterans, now scarce and enfeebled, will place on these mounds garlands of flowers, symbolic of their love and veneration of those gone before. Their untiring devotion to their dead comrades is commendable and it is a pity those who are not veterans do not give more pious thought to this Day of Days of the heroes of the early sixties. There are not so many of the old boys as there were last year and next year there will be less than there are now.

RUSHING TO THE ALTAR

In one case out of every four, in divorce actions in Massachusetts last year, the plaintiff blamed a hasty decision to marry as the cause of all the trouble.

In only one case out of every nine heard in the divorce court was intemperance included in the charges.

From this we gather that drunken husbands are going out of style, and that the old Bay State needs a law that will tend to check the mad rush to the altar.

In many states one may not marry on the day the license is issued. This is a good law.

How many marriage pacts are made in a casual way we do not know; but we do know that many a woman has tied herself to a husband whom she wouldn't consider seriously if she gave the matter calm and temperate thought.

And we know many a man who has had a sudden rush of love to the head—really a terribly common malady—and has hurried his fair innamorata off to an obliging parson or an ever ready justice of the peace.

The starry-eyed one murmurs "yes" while she takes a swift survey of her beloved's wallet from which he extracts the marriage fee.

And the happy bridegroom, enjoying what the novelists call the supreme moment, stutters "yes" and the game is on.

This marriage business is a serious affair.

But you'd never realize it if you listened to the testimony in divorce suits and learded how easy it is to take the plunge.

Many a man and woman has decided it thus:

"Well, honey, will we go to the movies this afternoon or get married?"—Portland News.

The County Seat

Washington County Editorial Association
News Bureau

Circuit Court

Several there are who are seeking balm in the divorce courts, Karulina Miller vs. Joseph Miller. Suit for divorce. Plaintiff alleges that defendant beat her, also that he told plaintiff he didn't want work and would not work and plaintiff was compelled to feed him. It is alleged that plaintiff was compelled to support the three small children and defendant would leave home whenever it suited him to do so.

J. E. Daw vs. Nettie Daw. Divorce. Plaintiff alleges that defendant would leave home and remain away with friends whom the plaintiff did not know and against his consent. Defendant is also alleged to have neglected duties of the home and failed to keep the home in order.

Catherine F. Schonover vs. Arthur Schonover. Divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. Plaintiff, first of all, alleges that defendant struck her with his fist and then kicked her. She asks custody for three minor children and alimony amounting to $25 per month and costs of action.

A. A. Walker vs. Ethel Walker. Divorce. On alleged grounds of desertion.

McWhite vs. Ed. M. Chandler. Judgment for sum of $68.17 with interest from the fifteenth day of April, 1916.

E. J. McAlear vs. Ray D. Morse, et al. Mortgage foreclosure on real property upon which is due the sum of $2000 with interest at 8 per cent from July, 1915.

Jennie Long vs. Jasper E. Reeves. Plaintiff is asking for an injunction restraining the defendant from selling certain real property. Plaintiff alleging that judgment obtained by Sheridan bank against C. G. and C. Rhoades is void, as neither have any claim upon the property involved.

Probate Court

In the estate of the late Helen C. Jennings. A petition has been filed by her son, D. V. Jennings, for the appointment of himself as administrator of the estate, the value of which is about $5000.

In the estate of Catherine Loughy, a petition has been filed for the appointment of Annie Mabel Johnson as administrator. The value of the estate is said to be about $600.

Marriage Licenses

Daniel V. Herriek and Theodoro M. Kruige.

Fred C. Miller and Bertha Oglesby.

CONDENSED NEWS NOTES

Job printing—phone 821.

Hancock & Wiles have $25,000 to loan on farms. 1-tf

Money to loan—Valley Realty Co., Forest Grove, Oregon. 19-tf

The Express prints butter wrappers with non-poisonous ink.

Highest price paid for Mohair and Wool. A. G. Hoffman & Co.

We will insure your auto against fire, theft and collision. Hancock & Wiles. 9-tf

Mrs. A. L. Sexton and daughter, Beth, visited friends in Portland Saturday.

We have Arsenate of Lead in both forms, Paste or Dry. Littler's Pharmacy.

Do a kind act by telling your sick friend of chiropractic. Dr. Stewart, K. of P. block.

Miss Vivian Stream, who is employed at the Forest Grove hotel, visited her people in Hopewell, Sunday.

D. Leach and family of Corvallis motored to Forest Grove Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson.

John Anderson visited with friends in Corvallis Thursday on his way home from a stay of several days in Newport.

Mrs. Charles Knapp returned the latter part of last week from her daughter's home, where she has been visiting several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McEldowney left Thursday morning by auto for their farm at Ontario, Oregon. They expect to spend the summer there.

Miss Irene Hall of North Powder, Oregon, arrived here the first of the week and will spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. VanKirk.

Have a good second-hand camera that will take 8x10 or 5x7 pictures. What have you to offer as a trade? Value of complete outfit is $25. Reply to B. W. box 643, City.

For Sale—Heating stove $5; dining room table $9; brass bed, mattress and springs $17.50; Circassian walnut chiffonier $15; ladies' desk $8; refrigerator $6. Phone 0263. 20-tf

A dozen Forest Grove, Kansas City and Cornelius scatter-gun artists indulged in a practice shoot at clay pigeons east of the P. U. campus Sunday morning, making

Give Your Neighbors a Lift

Reciprocity is the life of trade. Drop in and spend a dollar with your neighboring shopkeepers. It KEEPS THE MONEY IN TOWN. Money spent in town helps the town. READ THE HOME PAPER.

Card of Thanks

The undersigned desire to make public acknowledgment of their appreciation of the many courtesies and kindnesses shown them and their mother, Mrs. Hannah J. Laughlin, by friends and neighbors during the latter's illness and after her death. May these friends never lack kindly ministrations in their hours of sorrow.

Mrs. Nora Fairchild,
Mrs. Lota Hocking,

Hancock & Wiles carry Life, Accident & Fire Insurance. 1-tf

SUMMONS

In Justice Court for Forest Grove Justice of the Peace and Constable District, Washington County, Oregon.
W. F. Hartrampf, Plaintiff

vs.
E. D. Rounds, Defendant

To E. D. Rounds, Defendant:
IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON. You are hereby required to appear before the undersigned, W. J. R. Beach, a Justice of the Peace in and for the District, County and State aforesaid and answer the complaint of plaintiff on or before six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons; the date of the first publication of this summons being May 25, 1916.

If you fail to answer or appear, for want thereof the plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of $106.70, together with interest thereon from May 24, 1915, at the rate of 8 per cent to date and for $25.00 attorney fees on his first cause of action, and judgment against you in the sum of $48.00 and interest thereon at 6 per cent from October 1st, 1915, to date, on his second cause of action; and judgment against you for the sum of $5.53 on his third cause of action, and for his costs and disbursements in this action.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of W. J. R. Beach, a Justice of the Peace in and for Forest Grove Justice of the Peace and Constable District, Washington County, Oregon, which order was made and rendered at Forest Grove, Oregon, the 24th day of May, 1916, and which said order prescribes the publication of this summons for six weeks from and after the date of the first publication thereof.

W. J. R. BEACH,
Justice of the Peace.
J. N. Hoffman, Attorney for plaintiff.
20-7t

We'll Make Good

on any promise we make to deliver work on a given date. The Express has one of the best equipped little printing plants in the Willamette valley, having added several hundred dollars' worth of material to the Williams plant for purposes and more good material is on the way. The management would very much appreciate it if those in need of stationery, office blanks, or any other kind of printing would call at the office for samples and prices. If you're too busy to come to the office use the phone and a representative will call on you. PHONE 821

... JOB PRINTING ...