Little short of miraculous was the escape from death of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Richards and Elmer Johnson of Gaston and Miss Nan Hunter of Portland, when the auto in which they were riding Saturday night turned a somersault, alighting on its wheels. The accident occurred near the Dilley Lutheran church and, strange to relate, neither of the four passengers was even seriously injured, although the machine ran off a fifteen-foot embankment before making its loop in the air.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Reder entertained nearly fifty of their friends at 500 on the evening of May 25th, playing eleven tables. Grand prizes went to Mrs. I. J. Hoar and John Thornburgh, while the consolations were carried away by Mrs. Charles Hines and C. O. Roe.

Miss Stockman Entertains

On the evening of Memorial Day Miss Hazeltine Stockman entertained a few of her friends. The evening was spent in playing games and singing. Delicious refreshments were served including sandwiches, salad, coffee and a bountiful dish of strawberry shortcake. The place cards were prettily decorated with a miniature United States flag. The napkins were stamped with a U. S. flag also. In the parlor a high American flag was draped along the wall over the piano, thus making the patriotic decoration scheme a pretty feature of the evening. Those present were: The Misses Stockman, Berger, Littlehales and Mrs. Stockman; Messrs. Frost, Fowler and Willard.

These three friends spent Monday night at the L. A. Jones home on North Main street and Second avenue north, and a pleasant evening was spent with a good old-fashioned "sing."
