

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 1

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, June 8, 1916.

No. 22

NOTES AND PERSONALS

You can always get brick ice cream at Shearer's.

Judge R. O. Stephenson had business in town yesterday.

We will insure your auto against fire, theft and collision. Hancock & Wiles. 9-tf

Mrs. C. A. Littler was among the local people at Portland's Rose Carnival today.

Do a kind act by telling your sick friend of chiropractic Dr. Stewart, K. of P. block. Adv

Write and invite your friends to the Forest Grove Rose Show and Carnival next week.

For the best results load your camera with the Speedex Film, sold by Littler's Pharmacy.

Goff Bros. are advertising elsewhere in this issue almost a gift in Wear-Ever Aluminum kettles.

The Intermediate C. E. society of the Christian church is enjoying a picnic at Rippling Water, up Gales Creek, today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kreiger of Verboort lost a two-months-old son Saturday and the body was interred in the Verboort cemetery Monday morning.

Mrs. Ed. Martin and children of Nevada, arrived here the first of the week and are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buffum, just northwest of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thornburgh were among the local people going to the Portland Rose Festival yesterday. Mr. Thornburgh will also attend the convention of the State Bankers' Association while in Portland.

Next term's staff of the P. U. Index will be as follows: Byron Goodman, business manager; Wilford Briggs, assistant; Ruth Haines, editor-in-chief; Glenn Jack, assistant; Russell Morgan, Alvena Howard, Harold Reed and Orlando Romig, associates.

DILLEY NEWS NOTES

Bud Dilley is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Frank McBride and baby are reported doing nicely and are expected home soon.

Saturday was the last day of school for the Dilley children and a picnic was held on the school ground. A fine program occupied the morning hours, and was greatly enjoyed by about 200 people; then dinner and games in the afternoon, which were enjoyed by young and old.

Mrs. Thomas is visiting with Mrs. Walter Wolf for a few weeks.

Mrs. Lily Maury left for Montana last Saturday and will be gone all summer. Thursday evening a few friends gathered at her home and wished her a pleasant journey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brodersen, Mrs. Herman Saling and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sutford are attending the Rose Show in Portland this week.

Mrs. VanMeter and Mrs. Crowthers and children were in the Grove Tuesday.

Legal Snags.

"Seems to me that the lawyers have it easy in life."

"Why so?"

"The rest of us have to surmount our own obstacles, but if a lawyer strikes one he applies to some judge and has it set aside."—Louisville Courier-Journal

Three Clocks.

The best three clocks in the world are at the naval observatory at Washington and the observatories at Greenwich and Berlin. The former two are the best and show a mean deviation of fifteen one-thousandths of a second a day.

Easy Mark.

Randall—I just borrowed $5 from a friend. Rogers—Give me his address quick. Randall—Why? Rogers—A man who would lend money to you would lend it to any one.—Life.

It is not poverty, but covetousness, that causes sorrow. It is not wealth, but philosophy, that gives security.—Epictetus.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Newton Harper of Gales Creek Monday.

D. T. Stevenson returned today from a visit with his mother at Grant's Pass.

Charles and Margaret Hancock and Florence Littler are expected home from O. A. C. tomorrow.

Mrs. H. R. Kauffman and sister, Miss Beach, are viewing the beauties of Portland's Rose Show today.

Mrs. F. A. Moore visited her husband in a Portland hospital yesterday and found him improving nicely.

Miss Vandermast, who severely sprained one of her ankles in a fall from the stage on the campus Monday night, was able to leave for her home in Washington this morning.

There will be a meeting of legal voters of school district No. 15 at the Central School building at 2 p. m. June 19th for the purpose of electing one director for a term of three years and a clerk, to serve one year.

The P. U. students have been drifting out of town for the past ten days for the summer vacation and by Saturday there will be few left, aside from those who reside here. Ben Willard will remain and look after the campus.

Prof. Ralph Yakel and family left last evening for Chicago, where Mr. Yakel has a good position offered him. It was on account of this position that Mr. Yakel resigned his position as instructor in political science, history and physical culture at P. U.

It is not expected that the delegates to the republican national convention will select candidates for president and vice president before Saturday. Present indications are that the progressives will nominate Roosevelt. An effort is being made to coax Teddy to Chicago, in the hope that he will make peace with Hughes.