EVERYTHING READY FOR THE ROSE SHOW

Everything is ready for the big Rose Show in this city next Saturday and the weather man has promised to be good. For several days the ladies of the committee have been working like beavers getting the details straightened out, the room on lower Main street has been cleaned and made ready, the band boys have been rehearsing and lots of exhibits in the way of fine roses of all known colors and other flowers are promised. Quite a number of good floats will be in the parade, but the Express is forbidden to give details, as some of the floats are to be surprises.

Some pretty effects in the way of autos, motorcycles, bicycles, doll buggies, wheelbarrows and toy wagons are also being prepared and the parade promises to be not only pretty, but unique in many ways.

Just tell your friends that they'll have a good time if they come to Forest Grove next Saturday.

Following are the prizes for the flower show:

The ladies will serve sandwiches and coffee and ice cream and wafers in the exhibition room all day.

People who wish to bring a basket dinner are privileged to use the P. U. campus as a picnic ground.

Each exhibitor of flowers must furnish vases or containers.

No vehicle decorated with flags or bunting alone will be eligible for a prize, although such vehicles may enter the parade; all must be decorated with some kind of flowers to compete for prizes. Artificial flowers will not be considered as flowers.

Each entry for parade must be at starting point (the Aunt Ann Smith place, on College Way) by 10 a. m., sharp.

Entrance books open at 7:30 a. m. and close at 10 a. m., at which time the doors of the flower show are thrown open to the public. No flowers accepted for entrance after 10 a. m.

The chairman of the Rose Committee of the Woman's club informs the Express that the queen for the rose show was selected by the Rose committee at the March meeting, which selection was wholly within the power of the said committee. The members of the committee in attendance at the meeting considered it was more dignified to invite the queen to act than to have her elected by vote.

Line of March

South on Main street from Lincoln school to Third Avenue south, east to First street, thence north to Pacific Avenue, thence west to College Way, north to First Avenue north, thence west to Main and north to starting point, where parade will disband.

School Election Monday

The friends of J. A. Parker and E. F. Burlingham are boosting them for the place being vacated on the school board by S. G. Hughes and it is probable that one of these gentlemen will be elected next Monday. Mr. Hughes is not a candidate for reelection. So far as the Express knows, there is no opposition to Earl G. Buxton for clerk.

Election at Central building Monday, June 19th, at 2 p. m.

Enjoyed a Picnic

The members of the Rejuvenated Dancing club, with children and friends to the number of three score, went to Rippling Water, up Gales Creek, last Sunday and enjoyed a picnic and outing. There were athletic sports of various kinds for men, women and children and a fine dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman, daughter, Aileen, and Miss Maude Graham attended a recital of the pupils of the Becker Conservatory at the Lincoln High School, Portland, last night. Miss Hoffman played a piano solo as her share of the program.

A Good Man Called

One of the most highly-respected citizens of Washington county passed to the great beyond last Saturday, when Albert C. Sargent died at his home at Gales Creek, after an illness of about eight months.

Albert C. Sargent was born at Peterboro, province of Ontario, Canada, in 1840 and came to the state of New York in the early sixties. During the civil war he served the union cause in Company L, fiftieth New York engineers and after the war settled in Kansas. In the year 1886, at Holton, Kas., he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Walter, who survives her husband, as does one married son, Walter, of Gales Creek.

Deceased came to Oregon in the spring of 1893, settled at Gales Creek, where he has ever since that time conducted a general mercantile store.

The breaking up of the system following a life of hard work was the cause of death.

Deceased held membership in Holton (Kas.) lodge of the I. O. O. F. and was also a member of the G. A. R. At his request, made when he realized he could not recover, the funeral services were conducted by the officers of Washington lodge, I. O. O. F., with an address by his old friend, Senator E. W. Haines, at 3 o'clock last Sunday afternoon, interment being in the Gales Creek cemetery.

C. W. Odell officiated as chaplain and the pallbearers were B. Ortman, James Devlin, W. K. Curtis, S. G. Morgan, A. L. Sexton and J. H. Shearer.

Albert Sargent was a good husband, a kind father and an honest man and stood high in the esteem of his neighbors, as was attested by the large number who followed his remains to the grave.

Sylvester Culver Dead

At 7 o'clock last Tuesday evening, death relieved the sufferings of Sylvester Culver, aged 81 years, at his home on Gales Creek, after a short illness with heart disease.

Deceased was born in Erie county, Pa., in 1835, and came to Oregon in 1871, locating at his late home in the year 1885. The year following his arrival at Gales Creek, he was united in marriage in this city with Harriett Galkey, who passed away in 1896, leaving one child, George, who lives on the home place at Gales Creek.

Sylvester Culver was a good citizen and was highly respected by his neighbors. He was uncomplaining in his illness and was so averse to bothering other people that he insisted on living in his own home, although his son repeatedly asked him to make his home with him.

Funeral services were held at the Culver home at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the remains were interred in the Gales Creek cemetery, Rev. Daniel Staver officiating.

A Farewell Reception

The last meeting of the Christian Church during the pastorate of Rev. J. Francis Ashley will be held next Sunday. It is the program to have the regular morning services of Bible School at 9:45 and communion and preaching at 11 o'clock. The morning sermon topic is "Love One Another." At this service an offering will be taken to reduce the current indebtedness to the amount of $300. All are invited to bring dinner and remain for the love-feast in the basement of the church. This will be made a farewell reception to Mr. Ashley, as he will leave immediately following the afternoon service, which will be held at 3 o'clock. The topic for the afternoon address will be "Good Remembrances of Forest Grove." All are invited to attend these meetings, both morning and afternoon.

P. U. Teachers Leaving

Prof. and Mrs. Learned and son, Dr. and Mrs. Bean and daughter left Tuesday for Berkeley, Calif. A large number of friends gathered at the S. P. station at 12:30 to bid them God-speed. As the train drew out a shower of roses fell through the open windows upon these departing and beloved friends. These families have contributed much to the well-being of the community and a deep loss is felt by all who knew them.

Prof. Taylor and son, Howard, who is teaching at Port Townsend, Wash., will leave soon for Berkeley, Calif., to attend summer school; Principal Bates has gone to Seattle, where he will spend most of the summer; Miss Miltimore will attend summer school at the University of Washington, while Miss Bagstad will spend a few weeks at Seattle and then go to the home of her brother, near Strassel.

President Bushnell, Dean Farnham, and Professors Clark and West will spend the greater part of their vacations in and around Forest Grove.

Forest Grove People on Wrecked Vessel

The passenger steamer Bear, bound from Portland to San Francisco, ran onto a reef of rocks fifteen miles south of Eureka, Calif., at 11 o'clock last night during a heavy fog. The battleship Oregon was near at hand and took off the passengers.

Prof. A. M. Bean, wife and little daughter and Prof. G. H. Learned, wife and little son, enroute to Berkeley, Calif., were aboard the Bear and reports received by the Oregonian late this afternoon give Mr. Learned and family among the saved, but no tidings have been received concerning the members of the Bean family. One boat capsized and between five and eleven passengers were lost, but this does not mean that Mr. Bean and family are lost, for the Oregonian report of saved was not complete.

The Bear carried in the neighborhood of 100 passengers.

Lillian Hyde Married

Forest Grove friends of Miss Lillian Hyde, have received cards announcing her marriage on June 6th to Mr. Russell B. Cook of Sunnyvale, Calif. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hyde of this city, is a graduate of Tualatin Academy and a very charming young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will reside at San Francisco.

CONDENSED NEWS NOTES

Lester Bennett, an instructor at Philomath College, arrived yesterday for a visit with Forest Grove friends.

It is expected that the delegates to the democratic national convention, now in sweltering session at St. Louis, will nominate Wilson and Marshall tomorrow.

John Ireland, Leslie Webb, Irving Turner, Wilford Briggs, Ralph Reinemer, Bob Enchede and Enzel Todd expect to leave early next week for Ketchikan, Alaska, to work in the canneries during vacation.

Miss Edith Stalley and Vernon Burlingham last evening entertained sixteen friends on the Burlingham lawn at a croquet tournament in honor of the Misses Shave of Seattle and Miss Grace Thomas of Hillsboro. Light refreshments were served.

The plant of the Deutsche Zeitung, Portland's German daily newspaper, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, with a loss to the publishing company of $20,000, with about $18,000 insurance. The manager believes the blaze was of incendiary origin, as it was the second within a few days. The paper will not suspend.

ASSISTANCE FOR THE FAIR

The directors of the Washington County Fair association held a meeting last night, at which it was reported that the county court had decided to appropriate $200 toward promoting the fair and a like amount to transport an exhibit to the state fair.

Secretary Littlehales and other members of the Washington County Poultry association met with the fair directors and it was arranged to hold the annual poultry show in connection with the fair.

It was also reported that at a recent meeting of Riverside Grange, Dilley, a committee had been appointed to lend its aid in making the fair a success.

The directors are in communication with a number of concessionaires who desire to put on stunts at the fair.

Remember the dates, Sept. 20 to 23, inclusive.

Pacific University Making Progress

The work of Pacific University during the past three years has shown a healthy growth and improving standard impeded only by limitations of resources, as is the case with so many other colleges during these days. The strength of Pacific's traditions, however, the earnestness of her purpose, the excellence of her standards of work and the long period of honorable history she has enjoyed give the college a momentum and irresistible power which is being felt in many directions. Notable among the college's achievements during the past year are the high records set in college dramatics, culminating with the admirable Shakespearean play at commencement time, the steady improvement of student customs and increasing interest in the more distinctly college grade of work and life.

A High Percentage

Superintendent Inlow of the Forest Grove high school has just received the returns on the state examination of eighth grade pupils recently held here and of thirty-eight who took the examination, twenty-nine passed on all subjects, seven conditionally and only two failed to pass. This is a remarkable record, one of which the faculty may well be proud. Those who passed on all subjects are:

K. of P. Convention

Next Saturday, at 8 p. m., delegates from the various K. of P. lodges of Washington, Yamhill and Tillamook counties will meet at Gaston for a district convention. No business is transacted at these conventions, which are in the nature of social functions. One member from each lodge is expected to make a ten-minute speech, but in case Al Long of Hillsboro or Charley Roe of this city get on their feet, the time is generally extended ad infinitum. A lunch and smoker will follow the oratorical fireworks.

C. B. Cambell, a former resident of this city, was married to Miss Helen Robinson of Carlton at noon today.
