

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 1

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, June 15, 1916.

No. 23

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Mrs. Walter Scofield of Gales Creek was shopping in town yesterday.

J. C. Garrigus of Banks was in town yesterday and stated that he was moving to Philomath.

Goff Bros.' sensational offer on aluminum kettles ends Saturday of this week. See ad on last page.

Mrs. Florence Hollinger of Portland spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson in this city.

Mrs. Winifred Aldrich and daughter, Mrs. Frank Carmack, visited in Portland the last of the week.

Mrs. R. H. Austin and family start today for Beverly, Wash., where they will spend the summer on their farm.

Mrs. Harriet Cheadle returned Saturday from Portland where she spent the week and attended the Rose Carnival.

Glenn Johnston of Washington is spending this week at the Thompson home, visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Johnston.

Mrs. David Wilson of Shaniko, Oregon, returned to her home Saturday after having spent two weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. R. H. Austin.

L. A. Fletcher, who recently sold his shoe stock in this city, left Monday for his old home in Virginia, where he expects to remain.

F. A. Moore, who recently submitted to an operation at a Portland hospital, came home Friday and is recovering nicely from the effects of the operation.

Dr. Wilson of San Francisco arrived Sunday for a week's visit with his cousins, Mrs. H. C. James and F. W. Emerson. The cousins had not seen each other for many years.

Mrs. Josephine Curtis Robb arrived in Forest Grove Thursday where she will spend the summer with Mrs. L. S. Phillips. She is an old resident of Forest Grove and for many years was one of the teachers in Washington county's public schools. She now lives at the Patton Home for old people in Portland, having been an invalid for seventeen years.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Ferrin is reported ill with colitis.

Merlin Rice of Sundale, Wash., spent Thursday with his aunt, Mrs. F. C. Taylor.

Lloyd Kirry, who is now on a Tillamook farm, spent the week-end with friends here.

Mrs. Bertha Howard and children are moving into Mrs. Levi Walker's cottage on "B" street this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Abraham of Corvallis, visited in this city the first of the week. They formerly lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shivley of Portland autoed to Forest Grove Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. M. Peterson.

The Washington County Poultry association meets Friday night at Moffit to make arrangements for the annual poultry show.

Miss Jean Kent of Corvallis spent Saturday night here with her old friend, Marcella Richards, enroute to the Tillamook beaches.

Mrs. Hope of Vale, Oregon, spent several days last week in Forest Grove, and attended the graduation exercises of Pacific University.

Mr. and Mrs. Brackenbury of Woodburn were guests at the Geiger home last week, and attended the graduation of their daughter, Marie Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knight have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knight near Dilley, and other relatives in Forest Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Knight were recently married and have gone to Woodlawn, Wash., where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Watson Tuesday evening entertained a dozen and a half of their friends at cards, music and lunch, in honor of their sister, Miss Doty of Seattle. Many people will regret to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Watson will leave the first of July to take up their home at Chehalis, Wash., where Mr. Watson has purchased an interest in the firm of Everett Saindon & Co., furniture and hardware dealers. The Watsons have been in Forest Grove a little more than two years, during which time they have made many warm friends.

A daughter was born to Mrs. Dugan of Toledo, at the home of Mrs. Roma Lahie last night.

It is feared that Pacific coast longshoremen will again go on strike, after having worked about ten days under an arbitration truce.

A dispatch from Albany to one of the Portland papers states that there is no likelihood of Albany College and Pacific University consolidating.

The Hillsboro Rebekahs have invited those of this city to attend a meeting Saturday night, at which time a Portland team will confer the degrees. All members of Forest lodge are invited.

Miss Gwendolwn Jones, a former P. U. student, who had just finished a year of teaching in Ione, Oregon, was visiting friends here and attending commencement exercises last week.

Miss Heloise Phillips, who for the past year has been attending the Monmouth Normal school came today to spend a few days with her mother here, before returning to Monmouth for summer school.

Six automobile loads of people, about 40 in all, who are friends of Mr. Volk, who was formerly of the Forest Grove News-Times, went Sunday to the beautiful country place two and one half miles out of Salem, which is now owned by Mr. Volk. The trip was a pleasant one and the large party had a merry time.

The grand jury for Washington county has so far considered fifteen cases and found seven true bills, but the names of the indicted persons have not been made public. The jury is now considering the evidence against Bennett Thompson, suspected with the murder of Helen Jennings.

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stockman in the east part of town, a few friends of their daughter, Miss Hazelteen, enjoyed a very pleasant time. Delicious refreshments were served to all on the lawn. The rest of the evening was spent in social conversation and music. Those present were Mrs. Stockman, Misses Hazelteen and Mary Stockman, Joan Pierce, Theresa Beahen, Clara Sage, Mary Corl and Vesta Greer.