Eccles Sawmill

Burned Saturday

Shortly after noon last Saturday the Eccles sawmill, located near the town of Banks, was completely destroyed by fire, as well as a large quantity of lumber piled near the mill.

The cause of the fire is not known. It is believed the loss will aggregate nearly $100,000, partially covered by insurance. The mill was built two years ago, ran a few weeks and was closed down. In March, this year, operations were resumed. The mill belonged to M. H. Eccles of Baker City, who is expected to arrive at Banks within a few days. Until he arrives, it is not known whether he will rebuild. The company had been employing about fifty men and the destruction of the property is a severe blow to the employes, as well as to the town of Banks. Mr. Eccles a few months ago lost a mill at Baker, but this has been rebuilt.

Wedding Dinner by

W. R. C. Ladies

Last Thursday the ladies of the local Relief Corps served a five-o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elias C. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crabtree. Mr. and Mrs. Smith celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary on June 17th and Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree will have been married fifty years on the fourth of July, next, hence the double celebration. Both brides are members of the Corps and their husbands are members of the G. A. R. The affair was a surprise to the ladies and their husbands and the first they knew of the celebration was when they were invited to the banquet hall after the regular business meeting of the Corps. There they observed two tables well laden with things good to eat, the place of honor on one of the tables being occupied by two brides cakes, decorated in gold and white, gold for Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree and white for Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Each cake was surmounted by a Kewpie bride, with ribbons leading from the miniature brides to the plates of the real brides. Before the dinner was attacked Commander Butler presented Mrs. Crabtree with a bouquet of cream roses and Past Commander Beach presented Mrs. Smith with a bouquet of white roses. Both brides replied feelingly, acknowledging the courtesy, as well as admitting the surprise. Then followed a jolly time, the brides and grooms coming in for considerable good-natured jolly from their friends.

Mrs. Jessie Covert baked the Smith cake and Mrs. Fred Ramsey the Crabtree cake and both were delicious, as the writer can testify. The tables were artistically decorated with roses, pansies, sweet peas and other beautiful and fragrant blooms and the occasion was one that will long be remembered by the guests of honor.

Strong Corps of Teachers

Prof. F. T. Chapman announces that he will not be connected with Pacific University but that he will open in September with full conservatory departments in Portland. A strong branch of the conservatory will be maintained in Forest Grove at the request of many pupils. It will be located in the hall and south room of the Knights of Pythias building. Prof. F. T. Chapman will teach

Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman will teach vocal one day each week. Mrs. Chapman was four years a pupil of Marescalchi and of Etelke Gerster in Italy and finally with Lamperti, Europe's greatest voice teacher, so that she represents the finest Italian vocal methods.

Mrs. C. H. Henney, who has made such a success of the public school music course, will continue to teach that department and also in vocal lessons.

Miss Emma Craft, who has been a successful assistant violin teacher at P. U., will continue her work in that department.

Miss Zola Kirry, a professional pupil of Prof. F. T. Chapman, will take beginners in piano lessons under the supervision of the director.

Another assistant may be engaged before September and announced later.

A reception musicale will be given in the K. of P. hall in September.

Mesdames White, Olmsted, West, Seymour, Holmes, Williams and Goff returned Monday evening from Rockaway, where they spent a week.

Bessie Bellinger, who came Thursday to visit her grandmother, Mrs. John Bellinger, returned to her home in Corvallis Monday, accompanied by Mrs. West, who was on her way to Newport.
