Rebecca Wilkes vs. Orton A. Graham, et al. Suit to foreclose mortgage upon which is due $350 with interest from 26th of May, 1913, at 7 per cent.

E. M. Van Lom vs. Edith H. Chance, et al. Suit to foreclose mortgage for the sum of $950 with interest at 8 per cent from the 5th day of May, 1915.

The county clerk's office has filed a report of $496.50 in fees collected in the month of June and the office of recorder reports a collection of $423.06.

Planning a Big Time

St. Anthony's Church of Forest Grove is laying plans for a "Harvest Fete," which will take place the last week of August, commencing the 28th, which promises to surpass anything of the kind ever given in these parts. Advertising has already commenced and as soon as the plans are somewhat perfected notices will appear in this paper. It is expected to bring in the entire Catholic population of Washington county at least, and amusements will be furnished for the whole week. Dinners will be served every day, and the entire change of program every afternoon and evening. It is an advertising campaign, and promises to do much for Forest Grove. Watch for the notices.

More Recruits Wanted

Postmaster Wirtz has received and posted in the postoffice lobby a telegram calling for 700 recruits for the Third infantry, now on American-Mexican border. Applicants must be between 18 and 35 years of age and in good health. Apply at recruiting station, Camp Withycombe, Clackamas, Oregon.

The Oregon Electric company last Sunday put on a new daily train between this city and Portland, leaving Portland at 7:20 p. m. and arriving at Forest Grove at 8:40 p. m. The time of No. 42, which has been leaving this city at 5:30, has been changed so that it now leaves at 5:05, reaching North Bank station, Portland, at 6:25.

The Express is prepared to meet the prices of traveling calendar salesmen in lots of 100 or more.

War Bride Dies in Portland

Mrs. Mandana C. Thorpe, widow of the late General Thomas J. Thorpe, well known in this city, died in Portland last Friday, aged 73. Mrs. Thorpe was the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. John Major and was born in Kerr Valley, N. Y., in 1843, was married to Thomas Thorpe, then lieutenant-colonel in the 130th New York regiment, in 1862 and went around the country singing patriotic songs to encourage enlistment in the union army.

General and Mrs. Thorpe and family came to Oregon in 1891 and for two years, shortly after that time, the general was superintendent of the Forest Grove schools, leaving about 15 years ago for Corvallis, where he died.

Mrs. Thorpe three times represented Oregon in national conventions of the Relief Corps and was one term Relief Corps inspector for Oregon.

The Portland Woman's Relief Corps and the Grand Army of the Republic conducted the funeral services which were held

Hesseltine Pleased With the Columbia Highway

Roy Hesseltine, president of the First National Bank, with his family, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roswurm, in the latter's car, on a trip over the Columbia Highway, as far as the fish hatchery at Bonneville, last Sunday, and Mr. Hesseltine is now and henceforth an enthusiastic booster for the highway and the scenery the Great Painter has strewn along the way.

Mr. Hesseltine says he has seen the wonders of Niagara, the principal national and state parks of America and parts of Canada and has traveled some of the most famous auto roads of America, but the Columbia highway, for excellence of roadway and beauty of scenery, beats anything he has so far seen, with the possible exception of Niagara, which is, of course, more colossal than anything on the Columbia. But Niagara is a lone attraction, while there are hundreds of beauty spots along Oregon's famous highway.

Quite a number of other Forest Grove people took the trip Sunday, among them Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Walrath, Mayor Paterson and family, W. F. Stockman and family of this city and Henry Harrington of Hillsboro, J. E. May and family of this city and E. J. McAlear and family of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mertz and Miss Nora Smith of this city and Dr. and Mrs. Webster of Portland.

Tom Todd, who has been working for the Southern Pacific at Oakland, was home Saturday for a brief visit. He left Sunday for Corvallis where he is to work on construction for the same company.

J. E. Loomis and family and Misses Margaret and Caryl McFeeters motored out to the Francis Chalmers home, near Shefflin, Monday evening.
