Germans, in Deadly Fear, Hide the Merchant Submarine.

Arrow Shows the Deutschland.

In deadly fear that some one will blow up or try to injure the merchant submarine Deutschland the Germans in charge of her have hidden her away in Baltimore harbor so it is almost impossible for the public to get a glimpse of her. She is alongside a pier and is flanked on the opposite side by a barge. At one end is the high wall of a warehouse, and at the other is a tug. Strung along the warehouse and the pier is barbed wire. Extending out from the barge is a boom, and from this boom wire netting is dropped to the bottom so that the only possible approach to the vessel is from directly above. Even a view of more than the periscope and an occasional outline of the deck is impossible. The boat in the distance is the German interned merchantman Neckar.

WILSON VISITS SENATE TO APPEAL FOR PASSAGE OF CHILD LABOR LAW

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson made a personal visit to the Capitol Tuesday to emphasize his desire that a child labor law be put on the statute books at the present session of congress. To senate leaders whom he summoned to a series of conferences in the President's room adjoining the senate chamber, he insisted that the child labor bill passed by the house should be made a part of the legislative program to be put through the senate before adjournment.

"Determined opposition by Southern senators forced the house bill, which would prevent shipment in interstate commerce of goods manufactured wholly or in part by children, out of the imperative program drawn up by the Democratic caucus last Saturday. It was left in a secondary position, to be considered only if time remained after other measures regarded as more urgent had been disposed of. Mr. Wilson had been told that an effort to force its passage would mean a serious party revolt.

Whether the President's visit accomplished anything more than to bring his own position emphatically to the front, was not apparent Tuesday night. So far as could be learned the Democratic steering committee contemplated no change in the caucus program and no call had been issued for another caucus to consider Mr. Wilson's request.

The President's arrival at the Capitol was entirely unheralded. Accompanied only by two secret service men, he went directly to the President's room and sent for Senator Kern, the majority leader. Later he discussed the subject with Vice President Marshall, Senators Martin, Williams, James and Owen, of the Democratic steering committee, and Senators Simmons and Hughes.

C., near the famous rock of that name, was completely washed away by the high waters of Broad river. The population of the town was about 150.

According to Harlette a party went to Chimney Rock to try to rescue those caught by the flood, but water surrounding the village prevented them from getting close to the houses. They saw no signs of human life, it was said. The postoffice and hotel were washed to a point several miles below the village.

Asheville, N. Washington Considers Retaliation for England's Blacklist

Washington, D. C.—Indications that officials are considering the advisability of taking economic retaliatory measures against Great Britain for blacklisting nearly 100 American firms and individuals under the trading with the enemy act were apparent here Monday.

Conclusions and plans were said not to have developed, but it was intimated that action of that kind might be determined on after the State department learned more of the plans of the British government.

In the event economic reprisals are decided on, the department of Justice and the department of Commerce, it was said, probably would develop means of executing them.

Sweden retaliated when Great Britain blacklisted Swedish business houses and individuals by refusing to permit shipments for Russia to pass through her territory, according to information received by the State department. The action is said to have resulted in a modification by the British government of the blacklisting measure.

I. W. W. Are Driven Out of Lincoln, Nebraska, by Sheriff

Lincoln, Neb.—Following a clash at the county jail late Tuesday night between County Sheriff Hires and members of the Industrial Workers of the World who came to Lincoln to effect the release of members of the order who had been detained, peace was effected through the release of two of the men held by the authorities and there was an exodus of a hundred or more "workers," who have been here several days.

The collision between Sheriff Hires and the Industrial Workers came when a delegation of two or three score approached the jail and insisted on the release of the prisoners. One of the men, whose attitude was regarded threatening, was knocked down by the sheriff, who then drew his revolver and warned the delegation to keep its distance.

The peaceably inclined Industrial Workers told the officer no violence was intended, and after a long parley it was agreed that two of the men against whom charges were pending should be released, provided the others left with them. The exodus began immediately. Seven members against whom charges are pending are held.

PLACED BOMB KILLS 6 VIEWING PARADE

Timed Blast Deals Death on Crowded
San Francisco Sidewalk.

LETTER OF WARNING RECEIVED

Innocent Bystanders Slain by Work of "Exiles From Militaristic Government."—Reward.

San Francisco—At least six persons were killed and 42 or more injured by the explosion here Saturday of a timed bomb in the midst of a throng viewing a preparedness parade. The police arrested Frank Joseph, a lodger in a sailors' boarding-house, but said he had not been charged with the crime. Chaires M. Fickert, district attorney, issued a statement attributing the deed to a mind unbalanced by arguments for and against preparedness, which have occupied attention here. The parade was not interrupted.

Lists of dead compiled by the police are:

Mrs. Howard E. Knapp, Alameda, Cal.

Dr. George Painter, Berkeley, Cal.

O. H. Lamborn, printer, Alameda.

George Lawler, Mill Valley, Cal.

The explosion took place at Steuart and Market streets, two blocks from the Ferry building, on San Francisco's main thoroughfare. The bomb, concealed in a suitcase packed with cartridges, bullets, marbles, bits of glass, iron pipe and scrap iron, blew a gap through the crowd, hurling men, women and children to the ground.

The holiday throng, cheering a contingent of veterans of the First California Infantry of the Spanish-American war, and members of the Grand Army of the Republic who were forming in Steuart street, stood in a path which became a shambles. The blare of drums drowned the cries of the injured. The sidewalk was strewn with torn bodies, spattered with blood.

All the newspaper offices in San Francisco received a communication written in Roman script, with an indecipherable pencil, many of the words being heavily underscored. The communication was signed "The Determined Exiles from Militaristic Government, Italy, Germany, U. S., Italy, Russia." In several instances the writer repeated himself. The communication read:

"Editor: Our protests have been in vain in regards to this preparedness propaganda, so we are going to use a little direct action on the 22d, which will echo around the earth and show that Frisco really knows how and that militarism cannot be forced on us and our children without a violent protest.

"Things are going to happen to show that we will go to any extreme, the same as the controlling class, to preserve what little democracy we still have. Don't take this as a joke, or you will be rudely awakened. Awaken (sic). We have sworn to do our duty to the masses and only send warnings to those who are wise, but who are forced to march to hold their jobs, as we want to give only the hypocritical (sic) patriots who shout for war, but never go, a real taste of war."

"Kindly ask the Chamber of Commerce to march in a solid body, IF THEY WANT TO PROVE THEY ARE NO COWARDS. A copy has been sent to all the papers. Our duty has been done so far."

$5000 Reward Offered.

San Francisco—Mayor Rolph offered a reward of $5000 Sunday for the arrest of the person who placed a bomb Saturday among the crowds watching the preparedness parade, the explosion of which killed six and wounded 40, and the police department established a separate bureau for the single purpose of running down the culprit.

As the result of police investigation, several possible clues to the perpetrator of the outrage were obtained. William Taylor, an aged cripple, who frequents the waterfront, told the police that he saw a man leave a suitcase on the spot where the explosion occurred a few minutes later.
