

How a Machine Does Our Bookkeeping

This machine posts our ledgers and makes out statements much more rapidly and accurately than the work could be done by hand. The machine prints dates, adds your deposits to the old balance, subtracts checks, then figures and prints your new balance. All addition and subtraction is done automatically—hence with absolute assurance of accuracy.

The time saving made possible by the machine method gives us an opportunity to afford improved service to our customers in all departments of the bank. It has always been our policy to give to our customers every possible service consistent with good banking practice. Please do not hesitate to avail yourself of this service—talk over your business problems with us—make this in every sense your banking home.

Come in any time and let us show you this Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine at work in our accounting department.

In Honor of the Stars and Stripes

The patriotic entertainment given at I. O. O. F. hall last night by the Rebekahs was not only a pleasant social function, but proved very instructive as well, instilling a greater veneration for the American flag.

The program opened with the singing of "America" by the audience, after which Mrs. Sylvia Bernard, noble grand, in a very patriotic address, presented to the Subordinate lodge a beautiful silk flag, the gift of the Rebekahs. The address of Mrs. Bernard was short, but was a gem of pure patriotism.

E. W. Haines, a past grand of Washington lodge, received the flag and replied at length to the presentation speech. He acknowledged that the support given Washington lodge by the Rebekahs was more than the male Odd Fellows could ever repay and paid a fervent tribute to Old Glory.

The audience, led by Mrs. L. F. Humburg, sang "The Battle Cry of Freedom," marching around the flag during the singing, after which Mrs. John Bellingher gave a patriotic recitation.

Attorney L. M. Graham then gave a history of the Stars and Stripes and explained the meaning of the emblem. The address was patriotic to a marked degree and no one could help being stirred and inspired by Mr. Graham's fervor and earnestness.

The audience then sang the "Star-Spangled Banner," Miss Jeanette Little gave a patriotic recitation, "Columbia" was sung, with Miss Wahl posing as Columbia while redfire cast its glare over the scene, and the program came to a close.

The large audience, composed of Odd Fellows and their wives and Rebekahs and their husbands, was then treated to home-made cookies and loganberry juice, the festivities being brought to a close by social chat and the playing of games.

One of the pleasantest events of Chautauqua week was the informal reception tendered Mrs.

Harrietta Gunn Roberson of Spokane, by the Forest Grove Woman's club Saturday at Herrick Hall, Mrs. C. J. Bushnell being hostess. The Hall was beautifully decorated in red sweet peas and Shasta daisies. It certainly was a privilege to have the opportunity of meeting Mrs. Roberson personally and hear her tell of the noble work she is doing in truly "Making Success Where You Are." The time was passed only too quickly. Quite a number of out of town guests were present.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman and little Edwin Secour visited Tuesday at the M. W. Patton farm, near Newberg, where Miss Aileen Hoffman is spending her vacation.
