

S. S. S. S.

The above four S's are the four corner stones upon which our bank stands, and they stand for

Strength,
Solidity,
Stability,
Security

And SAFETY is the watchword under which all our loans are made.

—The—
First National Bank
Forest Grove, Ore.

Member Federal Reserve Bank.

CONDENSED NEWS NOTES

Job printing—phone 821.

Get your violin strings at the Book Store—the best. 28-tf

Frank Emerson was in Portland Tuesday on business.

Miss Manche Langley had legal business in Portland Tuesday.

We will insure your auto against fire, theft and collision. Hancock & Wiles. 9-tf

Brick ice cream at Shearer's—25c and 50c. Keeps two hours without ice.

Mrs. Stevenson of Oswego county, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Coon, in this city.

Mrs. Zoe Hartrampf has returned from her visit to Corona, Calif., and is again on duty at the postoffice.

Miss Nell Hughes of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived Tuesday to visit with her aunt, Mrs. John Anderson.

E. E. Quick has returned to his home at St. Helens, after a visit with the family of his brother, O. E., in this city.

Will McEldowney and family returned last week from their farm in Ontario, Ore., where they spent most of the summer.

S. G. Morgan, wife and daughter, Margaret, motored to Portland Tuesday to hear Billy Sunday lecture on prohibition.

Mrs. Ed Ahlgren, Miss Eva Ahlgren, Miss Bertha Kapple and Herbert Kapple of Davids Hill spent Sunday at Rockaway beach.

The high school boys are arranging to place a seventy-five-foot flag pole on the campus before school re-opens and will float Old Glory to the breezes.

Miss Hazel Hundley, who has been assisting Mrs. Dixon in the millinery store for several years, is in Portland, working in a wholesale millinery establishment.

Miss Gwendolyn Hughes left Monday, after having visited a few days with friends in Forest Grove. She will go to join her sister, Sally, in September at Grinnell, Iowa, where they will both attend school.

Washing Machines Are a boon to Women and we have show you—the Peerless Water Motor Washer and a fine Electric Machine

Bon-Ami Short-Burner Oil Stove
Heats quicker than any other make; clean and odorless.

THE NEW SHARPLES
Tubular Suction-Feed Cream Separator
Is a machine we are not afraid to recommend to our best friends.

AUTO SEATS,
Camp Stoves, Tents and Ice Cream Freezers.

GORDON & GORDON HARDWARE CO.
Phone 663 FOREST GROVE, ORE.

Jim Benoit visited friends at Salem Sunday.

Mrs. H. J. Walrath and son are visiting friends in Portland.

Arthur Dougan and wife have gone to West Timber to reside.

The E. F. Burlingham family entertained friends from Portland over Sunday.

Brick ice cream at Shearer's—25c and 50c. Keeps two hours without ice.

Harold Sappington has returned from the beach, where he has been spending his vacation.

Mrs. W. J. McCready has issued invitations to a sewing party tomorrow afternoon.

Misses Kathryn and Louise Carlin of Portland spent the weekend with Mrs. R. W. Reder.

Miss Bernice Via, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned to her home at Buxton.

Ruth Frost of Watts district was the guest of Forest Grove friends for a few days last week.

Gertrude Allen spent a few days with her friend, Alene Johnson, at Springhill farm last week.

The Lion Clothing company, Portland, makes an important trading stamp announcement in its ad, on page five. 31-tf

When you go on your vacation, have the Express follow you. No extra charge to regular subscribers, inside the United States.

Mrs. Harry Underhill, residing north of town, who has been very ill with tomaine poisoning, is reported considerably improved.

Mrs. Mary Fuqua is moving into the house on First Avenue North, owned by Mr. Nauffts and formerly occupied by A. Kirkwood and wife.

Mrs. L. M. Graham and son, Laddie, left Tuesday for a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Coila West, and family, in the Hillside district.

Margaret Morgan, Fay Schroeder, Vera Campbell, Vera Schiffer, Jessie Gorman and Evelyn McFeeters were out for a hike to Roderick Falls and other places on Sunday.

O. L. Purcell, late of Cornelius, has purchased the Markham tailoring and cleaning establishment and has taken possession. Mr. Markham expects to enter a business college this fall.

Prof. and Mrs. Henry Price, who have been visiting the Rasmussen family here, went to Portland Monday, where they will make their home. Prof. Price will teach in the St. John's High School.

Mrs. S. G. Morgan, Mrs. Reynolds, Margaret Morgan, Jessie Reynolds and Carol Phillips motored to North Plains Saturday. Miss Reynolds remained for a few days with her brother, Arthur Reynolds, and family.

The members of Rosewood Camp, No. 3835 R. N. A., will give their annual picnic at Stokes' wood, near the Roswurm residence tomorrow (Friday), Aug. 11th. All Royal Neighbors and their families are invited. Bring well-filled baskets.

Dr. Brookbank, who took his wife and sister, Miss Stoecker, of Seattle, to Newport in his car last Wednesday, returned Monday evening, leaving the ladies to continue their outing until Sept. 1st. The doctor went by way of Dallas and King's valley and found the roads excellent.

Mrs. J. C. Latta visited friends at Hillsboro Friday.

Roma LaHaie Tuesday moved his family to Ostrander, Wash.

J. G. Boos of Gaston, former mayor of this city, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Clark and daughter, Betty, are visiting the Camp Fire girls at their camp on the Salmonberry.

Mrs. Dodds of Seattle, who is visiting at the Pratt home, entertained company from Portland Tuesday.

Halbert Holmes, Donald McFeeters and Watson Dodds left Tuesday for the Wilson River for a two weeks' outing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Roe went to Newport Friday, Charley for a ten-day visit and Mrs. Roe for a month or six weeks.

Margaret McFeeters has gone to a wholesale millinery house in Portland to look up the fall styles. She will be there two weeks.

Carl Stribich has begun work on a five-room cottage on his lot north of the Hoffman Evaporator. He says he is tired of paying rent.

Dick Rode of Gales Creek had a valuable dog so badly injured in a mowing machine a few days ago that the animal was killed to end its sufferings.

About fifteen boy scouts under the leadership of Oliver Buxton took a hike to "Rippling Water" and spent Saturday night and Sunday in the woods.

The recruits to the Oregon National Guard who have been gathering at Clackamas since June 30th, departed Tuesday evening for the border.

Last Friday, while Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ahlstrom were away from home somebody entered their residence and carried away Mrs. Ahlstrom's coat.

R. Schultz arrived yesterday from Albany and, after visiting over night with his son, W. F., and family, departed this morning, accompanied by his son, for a visit with the two other sons near Mitchell.

The members of the Oregon State Editorial association, in session at Medford last week, re-elected E. E. Brody of Oregon City as president. A. E. Voorhies vice president, Phil S. Bates secretary and treasurer.

Last Thursday, while Miss Ona Emons of Beaverton was driving an auto across the S. P. track, she "killed" her engine on the crossing and a train came along and bumped the auto off the track. Miss Emons is in a hospital with a broken shoulder, her brother, Victor, who was teaching her to drive, was slightly bruised and the auto was badly "mussed."

DILLEY NEWS NOTES

Grandma DeBord had the misfortune to fall and break her hip while picnicking with a party of friends out on Gales Creek. She is now in the hospital at Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoar were guests at the Alva LaMont home on Sunday.

Thelma Raz gave a party to a number of her little friends Sunday, the occasion being her eighth birthday. Those present were: Alice Nelson, Ivy Nelson; Margaret Jack, Emil Jack and Erwin Raz.

Riverside Grange meets next Friday, but in the evening, owing to so many members being busy in the harvest.

Mrs. J. W. Hughes and daughter, Grace, are rustivating at the beach.

Mrs. Jennie VanMeter was a Grove visitor on Saturday.

Millinery Bargains

All summer hats at sacrifice prices during the remaining days of August, to make room for the new fall and winter goods. All felt hats at reduced prices.

Opening display of winter styles Sept. 5th and 6th.

Elva Millinery Shop.

Notice to Hop Pickers

All persons wishing to pick hops at the J. W. Seavey hop yard, will please sign up as soon as possible as we are getting our pickers from Portland now and will continue to get them there until we have a full crew. Sheds will be reserved for four or more

Going After Deer?

The season opens next Tuesday, Aug. 15th, and we can sell you the right kind of Rifle and Ammunition, as well as guns and ammunition for all kinds of game. And we're still selling ammunition a little below Portland prices.

If you need a hunting or fishing licence, we can accommodate you.

And don't forget that we are headquarters for FISHING TACKLE and CAMPING EQUIPMENT.

GOFF BROS.

Phone 683 Forest Grove, Ore

DILLEY NEWS NOTES

Where anyone signs up for hop pickers and they do not all come, their shed will be rejected unless we have plenty. We do not want you to sign up with us unless you are sure of coming. Pickers will be paid $1.00 per hundred. Will move pickers from Forest Grove only this year.

Very Truly Yours,
J. W. Seavey,
Per Ralph C. Oglesby,
Manager.

NOTICE

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington county.

In the matter of the estate of Charles H. Pratt, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that M. J. Fenenga, executor of the Last Will and Testament of Charles H. Pratt, deceased, having filed in the County Court of Washington county, Oregon, his final account of his administration of said estate, the hearing of the same has been fixed by the Court for Tuesday, the fifth day of September, 1916, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the County Court Room, in the Court House at Hillsboro, Washington county, Oregon.

All persons interested in said estate are notified then and there to appear and show cause, if any they have, why the said account should not be settled and allowed.

Dated this tenth day of August, 1916.
M. J. FENENGA,
Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Charles H. Pratt, Deceased.

HOLLIS & GRAHAM,
Attorneys for Executor.

- Big -
Catholic Harvest
- - Fete - -

Aug. 29, 30 and 31 and September 1 and 2

in the store building just north of Tucker's Garage (known as the Golden Rule Store)

A big display in booths of everything procurable in Forest Grove, at bargain prices. Booths in charge of the Church and business houses of Forest Grove. Attractions and amusements galore, ending each evening with a big, old-fashioned Dinner, from 5:30 to 7:00, and an entertainment in the line of

Dramas, Comedies and Vaudeville

Everyone is Welcome. Admission during daytime free. Those holding Dinner Tickets will be admitted Free in the evening for which tickets are sold. Admission to others, including children, 10c. Watch for further announcements.

(The extra booths still remaining may be had by business places of Forest Grove, rent free. A small commission on sales made is all that will be asked. Those wishing space apply to CATHOLIC HARVEST-FETE COMMITTEE, Box 11, Forest Grove. Only one firm in each line of business will be given space. A chart of floor space, with particulars, will be ready on Monday, August 14th.

SCHULTZ' MARKET
"THE PURE FOOD STORE"

ANNOUNCES
Lower Prices on Quality
MEATS

Rib and Brisket	10c
Boiling Meat, the pound	10c
Prime Shoulder Pot Roasts	12c
Beef, the pound	12c
Fancy Cross Rib Roast the pound	15c
Sirloin, Tenderloin and Round Steaks, the pound	15c
PURITY Home-rendered Lard the No. 5 pail	75c
The No. 10 pail	$1.50

(Our pails are redeemed when empty at 5c and 10c each—extra saving to you).

The Meat Market and Grocery Store De Luxe

Phone 061