Hop Harvest Is On

While there have been rumors that the hop crop was badly damaged by mould, most of the growers interviewed by the Express say that, while there was some damage, it is not nearly so bad as was at first believed. Most of the yards began the harvest Monday. The big Seavey yard is using 450 pickers, about 350 of whom were shipped in; Carstens of Banks is using about the same number; Buchanan of Cornelius, 35; Crabtree, 75; Jim Nichols, 35; Ives Hoar, 65; Sam Inkley, 45.

Attention, Veterans

Forest Grove, Ore., Sept. 5, '16. To the Washington County Veterans' Association and interested friends:

It is apparent to the officers and committee of this Association that the necessity for a change in the date of meeting for the association has occurred, we therefore designate Thursday, October 12th, 1916, as the date on which to assemble in Cornelius for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Grand Army of the Republic and the usual meeting of the Washington County Veterans' Association. A good dinner and a good program is assured.
