NOTES AND COMMENTS

If the Twins feel that the world owes them a living, free from the galling bruises of competition, why not petition the County Court to grant them mothers' pensions? True, neither is a mother, but you never can tell what may happen.

If you haven't been to the fair, go the two remaining days and see what Washington county has produced. The dairy and poultry exhibits are alone worth the price of admission, to say nothing of the amusement program and the other exhibits shown.

A Los Angeles minister, with a salary of $8 per week, was married a few days ago. He and his bride believe that, well fortified with faith, they can live on the amount named. They may if they can inoculate the grocer, butcher and landlord with enough faith to trust them.

If the Portland Gas & Coke company will make the right kind of rates for its products, the editor of the Express believes Forest Grove people will use gas for cooking and heating quite extensively during summer and moderate winter weather. Gas is such a convenient fuel that people sometimes endure a little chilliness in the kitchen rather than build a wood or coal fire. Let's encourage the company.

Last week when a subscription solicitor for the Express asked a present subscriber if she desired to renew at the reduced rate of $1.00, the lady replied that she would renew at $1.50 when her year expired; she didn't want to cheat the publisher out of 50c and felt, she said, that the Express was cheap at $1.50. God bless you, lady, the editor knew this all the time, but didn't know other people realized the fact. And thanks for the compliment.

Hereafter in Canada there will be no Methodist church, no Presbyterian church, no Congregational church. Those three have merged their membership, their property and all their interests and will become "The United Church of Canada." This new church will be the largest and most influential Protestant denomination in that country, with ten thousand church buildings, six hundred thousand actual members and a constituency of more than one fourth the entire population of Canada.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED?

Voters who failed to receive the state pamphlet containing constitutional amendments and measures will be reminded that they have failed to register and that if they wish to vote at the November election the time is short. Registration books close October 7 and the secretary of state says that the registration is 50,000 less than for 1914, showing that many voters neglected to register. Part of the pamphlets were mailed last week and the remainder were sent out on the 13th. They are only sent to registered voters.—Hillsboro Independent.

MR. ROBINS' WORDS

"Chickens come home to roost." The expression is trite and the application lies in the opportunity to utilize it. Back in October, 1914, Raymond Robins, who is now supporting the candidacy of Mr. Hughes, indulged in the following remarks, which, more or less must embarrass him in his present political attitude: "The most skillful, the most courageous, the greatest statesmanship of the last two years in this world was the manner in which Wilson averted war between this country and Mexico. The reason that the blood of American men—sons of our homes—is not today reddening the soils of Mexico, to serve the interests of a few corporation magnates and speculators, is due more to the courage and constancy of Woodrow Wilson than to any other factor in American life. I would count myself poor and small indeed, if I were not able to recognize wisdom, courage and public service, even if it had been shown by the chief of an opposing party." Was Mr. Robins wiser year before last than now? Is his tribute recallable?—Platts-mouth (Neb.) Journal.

Three Link Boys Entertain Visitors

Monday evening the members of Washington lodge, I. O. O. F., had a pleasant visit from Frank E. Weed of Portland, grand conductor and a special representative of Grand Master Westbrook. Mr. Weed is assisting the grand master in visiting all the lodges of the state and the local lodge was one of those assigned to him. While the purpose of his visit is to encourage the members to hustle a little harder, he announced that his visit here had been an encouragement to him, as he found Washington lodge had been taking in new members at a time of year when most lodges did well to hold their own. He gave a little advice when asked for it and told a number of very good stories relating to lodge activity.

Dick and Carl Wilcox, Albert Snyder, Floyd Dooley and A. W. Mills, members of the Banks lodge, attended the session and contributed their share to the entertainment program. Banks lodge is also growing and a week from next Saturday Mr. Weed will visit that lodge, as will also a number of the members of Washington lodge.

After the session closed Brothers Walker, Giltner, McGill, Van-Antwerp and Shearer served the company with all the ice cream, cake and coffee they cared to consume.

Mrs. Chester Wright, son Wayne, and daughter, Miss Joan Pierce, left Monday for Bend, Oregon, where Mr. Wright and another son went some time ago. After visiting relatives near Bend two weeks the family will go to a homestead about ninety miles south of Bend. Their many friends here regret very much to have them move away.

A Bargain—76 acres, 6 miles northwest of Forest Grove, 20 acres in cultivation, 30 in pasture and easily cleared for plow; new house and barn; good family orchard; $55 per acre. This bargain open for 10 days. (Get in). Hancock & Wiles. 1t
