

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 1

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, Dec. 7, 1916.

No. 48

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Miss Emma Penfield spent Saturday in Portland.

Mrs. Jessie Covert is steadily improving in health.

A. H. Lea has been re-elected secretary of the State Fair association.

Mrs. N. C. Lilly of Gales Creek was operated on at a Portland hospital today.

Miss Ruth Patton returned to Portland Sunday, after spending a few days with her parents.

The glad tidings come from Portland that Mrs. J. A. Elder is recovering nicely from her recent operation.

The local firemen will elect officers next Wednesday evening and hold their annual dance on the night of Jan. 1st.

The C. E. social and entertainment held at the Congregational church Tuesday evening was a grand success.

Owing to the courtesy of the Schultz Market, the Campfire Girls realized a nice sum from their food sale Saturday.

Local patriarchs have received word that Grand High Priest Walker will visit the local Encampment next Monday evening.

The wood-sawing for the winter being well in hand, Al Sexton departed last night for California, where his son, Paul, has a position for dad.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Walker and daughter, Helen, visited Thursday at the home of Mrs. Walkers' sister, Mrs. Lester Ireland of North Plains.

Clyde Macrum last Thursday returned to his home in Portland, after a visit with his mother and sister. Reports from his bedside are anything but encouraging.

Don't forget that King & Company's big holiday sale is still in progress.

Mrs. W. R. Ives and son, Kenneth, returned Sunday from a visit at Woodland, Wash.

E. A. English has returned from Ellensburg, Wash., near which place he has a 320-acre homestead.

Gordon Putnam spent several days this week visiting S. T. Walker and family.

Charles Roe, jr., attended the Boys' Conference in Corvallis Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ada Taylor, a teacher in Castle Rock, spent the vacation days with her parents in this city.

Harve Baldwin is now behind the counter at the Star Confectionery, having purchased the place from L. A. Jones.

A. T. Buxton & Son of this city and W. K. Newell of Seghers are among the Washington county exhibitors at the Portland livestock show.

Mrs. E. B. Brookbank last Monday entertained a dozen little lads and lassies in honor of the fifth anniversary of her little son, Bruce. The hostess served a nice lunch and the youngsters spent a pleasant afternoon.

Mayor Paterson, Councilman Coon, Recorder Dyke, Treasurer Hoar, Engineer Kirkwood and Marshal Watkins sat at the city hall two hours last evening to hear objections to the 1917 budget, but nobody appeared to kick.

The class in "Musical Appreciation" will meet in Marsh Hall on Tuesday evening, Dec. 12 at 7:30 o'clock. The program will illustrate the development of the Sonata form through the works of Corelli, Scarlotti and Handel. Miss Waggener will be assisted by Mrs. Hutchinson and Miss Catherine Davis. The public is invited.

Mrs. Henry Rice, of Haines was shopping in the city Saturday.

E. W. Haines is sticking so close to his chicken ranch that his friends see little of him.

Lawrence Mayea, who is attending school in Portland visited home folks Thanksgiving week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. VanKoughnet Friday evening entertained a number of young people in honor of Chester Buell and his friend, Mr. Short.

A London dispatch announces that David Lloyd-George has overthrown the Asquith cabinet and will himself accept the prime ministership.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a reception at the church tomorrow (Friday) evening, in honor of their pastor, Dr. Holmes, and family, who leave next week for their new home, at Walla Walla, Wash. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Richards and little son, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Small, Mrs. Hattie Chambers and Mrs. Porter, all of Portland, and Mrs. Doris Peterson of Baker, spent Thanksgiving day in Forest Grove with Mrs. Marsilliot and Mrs. Richards.

Woman's Club Program

The regular business meeting of the Woman's club will be held Monday, Dec. 11, at 2:30 p. m., at the Congregational church parlors. Besides routine business, Mrs. Clifford Walker, chairman of the public health department, will have charge of the program. Mrs. Dunbar, state secretary of the Oregon Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, will give a talk. Mrs. Margaret Mallory and Mrs. John Buchanan will act as hostesses for the afternoon.

MRS GEORGE D. ROGERS,
Secretary.