

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Glen Morgan was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Found—Halter. Call at this office and recover property.

Evelyn McFeeters was a Portland visitor Saturday.

A. U. Marsh spent Xmas vacation at his home in Forest Grove.

Victor Thomas quit school here Friday and left for his home in Portland.

Miss Elizabeth Whitehouse is suffering from a severe attack of the grip.

Miss Nan Miller is spending her Xmas vacation in Portland with her people.

Chester Buell, who is attending O. A. C., spent his vacation in Forest Grove.

Miss Margaret Hancock of O. A. C. spent Xmas vacation in Forest Grove.

Nelson Frost of Portland spent his Xmas vacation with home folks in the Grove.

Will Lasham who is working in Portland, spent his Xmas vacation in Forest Grove.

Elwyn McDonald of Tacoma came to Forest Grove Tuesday for a brief visit with friends.

Richie Wilson, who is attending a business college in Portland, spent Xmas in the Grove.

Dr. Kauffman left for San Diego and Mrs. Kauffman for Roseburg Monday evening.

Remember the firemen's dance Monday night, Jan. 1st. The boys deserve your patronage.

Mrs. Marshall and sons, Ivan and Kenneth, are spending the week with relatives of Yamhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bockman of Aloha spent Xmas with their son and family in Eastern Oregon.

Misses Floy and Day Clodfelter of Eastern Oregon are visiting S. G. Morgan and family this week.

Mrs. Dorothy Seymour and family were entertained by the Higby family at Xmas dinner Monday.

Mrs. Ogilvie, who has been in a hospital in Portland for an operation, returned home Saturday, much improved in health.

Prof. G. R. Thomas left Saturday for Portland, as he has resigned from his position in the Forest Grove high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ireland are spending their Xmas vacation at the home of Mr. Ireland's father, John Ireland of this city.

Word has been received from Dr. O. H. Holmes and family in Walla Walla that they like their new home very much. They are to have a new church if Mr. Holmes succeeds, as he undoubtedly will, and they have an excellent parsonage in one of the best locations in the city.

Oscar, Floyd and Earl Loomis and their families of Eastern Oregon and Robert Loomis of Hay Creek and Dan Loomis and daughter, Ethel, of Spokane are spending their holiday vacation in Forest Grove with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Loomis and family. This was a reunion of the whole family. The guests will remain until New Years.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Walker spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday with friends in Portland. On Monday Mr. Walker visited the Odd Fellows' home, where he saw the fifty men, women and children enjoying a fine Christmas dinner. He says the home is under good management and is a credit to the Odd Fellows of Oregon.

Ruth Willis spent Xmas at her home in Banks.

Miss Milly Famme spent her Xmas vacation in Yamhill.

Harold Benjamin spent Christmas at his home in the Grove.

Miss Ruth Patton of Portland spent Christmas in the Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pruett spent Christmas at McMinnville.

Maurice Buxton visited up Gales Creek Saturday and Sunday.

Florence Littler, who is attending O. A. C., is home for her holiday vacation.

D. V. Buell and Nellie and Chester Buell spent Xmas at Jess Buell's, at Watts.

Kenneth Bockman of Portland spent the Xmas vacation at his home in Forest Grove.

Miss Laura Bell left Sunday for Monmouth, where she will spend her Xmas vacation.

Miss Naomi Arthur quit High School here Friday and will attend business college in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bernard and daughter, Eunice, spent Christmas with friends at McMinnville.

New gold and silver laces and beadings at Mrs. Richards'. Reduced prices on account of delayed orders. 51-tf

Miss Leone Smith, who is attending O. A. C. at Corvallis, is spending her holiday vacation with her parents, at Fern Hill.

Mrs. Byron LaMont returned on Dec. 19th from a three week's visit with relatives at Centralia, Bellingham and other Washington points.

Clara Nelson who has been attending high school in Forest Grove left Saturday for her home in Portland where she will spend her Xmas vacation.

Miss Gertrude Allen of Cedar Canyon and Miss Martha of Monmouth are spending the holiday vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen.

James Nichols has moved his bed to the Hoffman evaporator to keep prowlers from carrying away the building, they having already taken a part of the contents.

The band dance at the I. O. O. F. building Saturday night was well attended and proved a very enjoyable affair. The boys made a little money out of the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knauffts and daughter, Mrs. Teegarden of Yamhill, left Saturday for Moro, Sherman county, to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Philmore Buxton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lowery on Christmas day entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. John Beahen and daughter, Theresa, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Smith and daughter, Leone, of Fern Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Walker, R. C. Walker and Tom Todd of this city and Ray Boyds of Dallas are furnishing the music this evening for a big club dance at Independence. The Walkers played at a number of dances during the hop-picking season and the people of Independence like their music.

Dr. R. I. Mills has made arrangements to move to Sellwood where he will continue to practice dentistry. He will make the change about January first. Doctor and Mrs. Mills came here a year and a half ago from Forest Grove and the doctor has built up a nice business. Their friends will be sorry to hear of their intended departure.—Willamina Times.

Mrs. M. A. Roe departed Tuesday morning for Newport, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Hohn is spending her Xmas vacation with her daughter, Mrs. Bowen of Oregon City.

Howard Recher, who has been working in Tacoma, spent Xmas in the Grove, returning to Tacoma Wednesday.

Oscar Lund and Warren Booth of Hillsboro and Aileen Johnson of Dilley spent Tuesday at the Allen home.

Miss Margaret Rodolph left for Bellingham Thursday evening to spend Xmas vacation with home people.

J. H. McFeeters, who has been travelling in eastern Oregon the last six weeks, returned home Saturday for Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Vienen of Portland are spending their Christmas vacation with their daughter, Mrs. Bockman, of this city.

The Catholic ladies of Cornelius will give a card party and old-time dance at Hendricks hall at 8 o'clock this evening. Everyone invited.

W. B. Ruggles, the new tailor, received a nice Christmas present from his Uncle Sammy in the shape of a draft for $113.33. Mr. Ruggles was a member of Company A, O. N. G., in the service from June 18th to Aug. 24th. The money was the balance due him for the maintenance of his family while he was on the border.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cady and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whited and children went to Eugene Sunday to take Christmas dinner with Dr. and Mrs. Wendt, the lady being a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Cady and a sister to Mrs. Whited. Messrs. Cady and Whited returned Tuesday evening, but the ladies will remain a few days longer.

Deputies Are Named For County Offices

The new officials to take office in Washington County after Jan. 1, 1917, are: Sheriff, J. C. Applegate; Clerk, H. A. Kuratli; Assessor, W. F. Boley; Recorder, Jas. Davis; County Judge, D. B. Reasoner; Treasurer, E. B. Sappington; Surveyor, C. G. Reiter; School Supt., B. W. Barnes; Commissioner, H. T. Hesse.

The new deputies have been selected and are as follows:

Deputy Clerk, Miss Edna Gilkey, with the office over four years. Miss Genevieve Collette will continue as record writer. Clerk-elect Kuratli will try to get along with this assistance, barring occasional help when affairs are rushing.

Deputy Sheriff, Geo. Alexander, now chief deputy.

Deputy Recorder, Fred Everest, with Miss Mary Campbell as assistant. Deputy Assessor, J. B. Wilkes, the well-known abstractor.

Clerk in Superintendent's office, Miss Zola Walch.

All of the appointees are capable and the selections should give general satisfaction.—Hillsboro Argus.

A Bargain in Cedar Chests

Six different styles, $4.00 to $10.00. A. R. KEAGY, C street between Pacific and First Ave., north, Forest Grove, Ore. 47-4

For Rent—Five rooms in house just west of Laughlin Hotel. Inquire at this office. 40

During the absence of Dr. H. R. Kauffman from the city, Dr. E. J. Crowthers will look after Dr. Kauffman's practice and will be at the office from 2 to 5 p. m. daily. 50-tf

South Park Poultry Yards

W. L. Benfer, Mgr. 4th Avenue South and 2nd St. Forest Grove, Oregon

Trapnested Reds Heavy Layers

Washington County Poultry Show this year we won: 1st capon, 2nd and 3rd hen, 2nd and 3rd pen, 3rd cock.

At the great Portland Show, where over 200 Reds were shown we won 3rd cockerel on one entry.

Now booking orders for Hatching Eggs and Day-Old-Chix

For Spring Delivery Mating List on Application

The County Seat

Washington County Editorial Association News Bureau

Circuit Court

M. Matsushimo, a Jap, is suing E. P. Prebel, et al., for $336.75, alleged to be due plaintiff and some other Japs for wood-cutting.

E. I. Kuratli has brought suit against Rosa Merlo on a note for $2,000.

James B. Downing is suing L. L. Gilbert, et al., to foreclose a mortgage for $650 on property in Beaverton.

Roscoe E. Wykoff, aged 31, residing near Tigard for the past two years, was Saturday adjudged insane and ordered committed to the asylum. Too much reading of war news is believed to have unbalanced Wykoff.

Marriage Licenses

Elmer E. Lyda and Katherine Kessler of Banks; Robert L. McKnight and Ruth Elizabeth Troutman; James L. Copenhaver and Alice M. Akerson; Prescott V. Simonton and Ethel R. Easter.

Notice of City Election

Pursuant to Order of the Common Council of the City of Forest Grove, notice is hereby given that the general election of the City of Forest Grove, Oregon, will be held on Monday, January 8, 1917, at the Council Chambers on the West side of Council Street and in Verts Hall on the West side of Main Street, in said city, between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. of said day, at which time and places there shall be elected one Mayor for the City of Forest Grove, for a term of one year; one Recorder for a term of one year; one Treasurer for a term of one year; three Councilmen for a term of two years, and two Councilmen for a term of one year.

W. P. DYKE,

Recorder of the City of Forest Grove, Oregon.

The Book Store will be open evenings this week.

Wanted—Some turnips for cow feed. South Park Dairy, Chas. D. Staley, Prop. 47-tf

Use the Red Cross Christmas Seals

Don't send away a letter or package during the next ten days without putting on it one or more Red Cross Seals. They give the Christmas spirit to the package and help in the fight against tuberculosis. One cent each and on sale by local representatives of the Oregon Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis and by Mrs. O. M. Sanford, at the Rogers City Library.

The will of the late Casper Jasper, of Forest Grove, was filed in probate this week. The property is estimated at $10,000 and is divided share and share alike between his children, Mrs. Martin Goemans, Mrs. Peter Vanaudenhagen, Walter, John, Theodore and Edward Jasper. W. H. Hollis, J. A. Underwood and L. M. Graham are witnesses to the will and codicil, the latter not in any way disturbing the share-and-share-alike distribution.—Hillsboro Argus.

Free Methodist Church

Sabbath school 10 a. m., preaching 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. All are welcomed.

J. N. WOOD, Pastor.

Warranty deed and mortgage blanks for sale at the Express office.

Free Movie Tickets

—TO THE—

STAR THEATER Forest Grove Oregon

Get them from our Merchants. The firms listed below have purchased Matinee tickets to give Free to their customers. When you purchase 25c worth of any of the firms mentioned below, you will be given a Matinee Ticket Free—four ticket for $1.00. These tickets are to be given away for ten weeks, beginning with performance of Saturday, November 25. Good only for Saturday Matinees. Ask for tickets when making purchases. Here are the firms which give tickets:

Schultz Pure Food Store
Dr Hines' Drug Store
American Restaurant
Home Bakery
King & Co., Gen'l Mdse.

Goff Bros., Hardware and Stoves
Ottice Shearer, Confectioner
Geo. G. Paterson, Furniture and Pianos
Forest Grove Express, Printing