An Excellent Program for Red Letter Day

The program for the entertainment being prepared under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Williams for Red Letter Day (Jan. 24), for the benefit of the Student's Loan Fund, is rapidly taking shape and promises to produce one of the best musical and literary entertainments ever given in this city. Among the features so far decided on is a reading from Kipling, "The Butterfly That Stamped," by Miss Anna Bagstad, instructor in dramatics at Pacific University. Miss Bagstad has made a study of the writings of Kipling, Dickens, Richard Harding Davis and O. Henry and will give something both humorous and pathetic to the program. There will also be some good musical numbers and folk dances in the first part of the program.

The second part will consist, in part, of Victrola record selections from the numbers sung by the Forest Grove Lyceum Opera company, (first appearance in the city), several solos by member of the Lyric Opera company, appearing in person, and character sketches by members of the same company. Walker's orchestra will play during the performance, and other good numbers will be added.

The entertainment will be given on Wednesday evening, Jan. 24th, at Marsh Hall. Tickets are now being sold by a committee from the Woman's club.
