

Thrift Day

IS COMING!

It will be celebrated all over the United States on Saturday, February Third. Everyone's attention will be directed, upon this day, to the starting of some additional Thrift Habit. The opening of a bank account or adding to one already opened is a particularly appropriate form of THRIFT DAY observance. Old friends and new friends will receive an especial welcome here on Thrift Day.

First National Bank

Forest Grove, Oregon

A Strong Bank in a Good Town

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Clara Nelson spent the week-end with her folks in Portland.

J. C. Sage is visiting his sister, Mrs. L. E. Howard, in Yamhill, this week.

A trial order is all we ask; next to postoffice. Ruggles Cleaning Works. 52

For Sale Cheap—Five well-bred Poland China Shoats. Phone 817. 1t*

For Sale—Nice driving horse, good harness and buggy. Inquire at this office. 43-tf

C. R. Lasham was a business visitor in Portland Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

George G. Hancock, real estate, farm loans and fire insurance, new Anderson block. 50

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Walker spent Sunday in Hillsboro, visiting relatives and friends.

For Rent—Five-room house, near depots, modern. Inquire of Manche Langley. 35-tf

The latest Columbia records of the new songs on sale at Littler's Pharmacy.

Blake's six musical Hawaiians, each an artist and soloist, will appear at the Star Theater Tuesday evening. Admission 15c and 25c. Also a two-reel drama.

Mr. Corlton, an old P. U. student, who is now making his home in Salem and is assistant state school superintendent, was in Forest Grove Saturday, calling on old friends.

Judge W. J. R. Beach last Thursday evening officiated at the marriage of F. T. Busby and Miss Vera L. Campbell of this city. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Wheeler county and the bride is the daughter of the late Mrs. Nellie Daniels. The young people will make their home near Fossil.

Ira Purdin had business in the city today.

Mrs. Maude Rockwood made a trip to Portland Wednesday.

Rev. Father Buck was a Mount Angel visitor this week.

Dr. C. E. Walker made a business trip to Portland Friday.

For Sale—Incubator, fruit and vegetable canner. Phone 024x.

Money to loan—Valley Realty Co., Forest Grove, Oregon. 19-tf

White kid gloves cleaned, 10c per pair at Ruggles', next to post office. 52

Second-hand school books bought at VanKoughnet & Reder's drug store.

George Morgan left yesterday for Eugene, where he will visit relatives indefinitely.

Mrs. W. M. Pollock went to Eugene the first of the week for a visit with relatives.

For Sale—Faultless stump-puller, complete and in good condition. Phone-David 251. 1-tf

Excel Stowe and Miss Laurene Benfer of McMinnville visited at the Benfer home in this city Sunday.

Lois Livingston and Thelma Mills went Tuesday morning to Portland, where they are spending a week visiting relatives.

For Sale—Black setter dog, one year old, $5.00; 14 White Wyandotte hens and cock; one baby buggy. H. J. Wairath, phone 64. 1t*

John L. Benfer, brother to the editor of the Express, returned to his home in "Mack" Tuesday evening, after a fortnight's stay in this city.

If you like music, go to the Star Theater Tuesday evening next and hear Blake's Hawaiian Troubadors, six artists. Also a two-reel drama. Admission 15c and 25c.

Mr. and Mrs. Swann of Washington, who have been visiting here, left for McMinnville Tuesday. They will visit in this city again before returning home.

Olga Turner, who has been staying at H. J. Walrath's and attending high school, will stay at the Dr. Hines residence the remainder of the school year, because of Walrath's moving away.

M. D. O'Brien, who has been in the county jail for six months, awaiting trial for threatening to kill the superintendent of the poor farm, has been sentenced to three years at Salem and was taken there Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Ambrose, North Dakota, visited the Todds, Caples, Bryants and other of Mr. Miller's old-time friends in this city Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Miller left this section twenty years ago and, after making considerable money farming in North Dakota, with his brother, Harry, engaged in the hardware business at Ambrose, where they are still making money. Another brother, Robert, is now with the British hospital corps in Greece.

A daughter was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Orval Hutchens.

Mrs. Joss visited friends in Hillsboro last Thursday and Friday.

Ernest Dye, who has been suffering from a severe case of grip, is much improved.

Joe A. Wiles has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Nellie Campbell Dannials.

Superintendent Creel of the local entomological station has received word that he is to be given a third assistant in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Raffety Friday evening entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Busby, newly-weds, and Mr. and Mrs. William Raffety. Mr. and Mrs. Busby expect to leave this week for their home at Fossil.

Johnny Potwin, who has been working in Montana for the past ten months, dropped into the city Tuesday night for a month's visit with his relatives and friends. He expects to return to Montana, but hopes the mercury will climb a few degrees in the tube before he gets back there.

Walter Spruance and Chas. Burnham, who plead guilty in district court to chicken-stealing near Sherwood, have been sentenced to the penitentiary, the former getting two years and the latter from one to ten years.

On Monday President Wilson delivered to the United States senate a message on world peace that is attracting world-wide attention. The full text of the message will be found on page two of this issue.

The Camp Fire Girls of Nakawa Camp were entertained Saturday at the home of Mary Olmstead. About twelve girls were present, and a short business meeting was held, which was followed by a social hour. Owing to the illness of the Guardian, Mrs. Bushnell, part of the business was postponed. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Bernard have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Eunice, to Mr. Norris L. Rogers of McMinnville. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents, in this city, on Wednesday, Feb. 7th, at 3 p. m. The young people will make their home in McMinnville, where the groom is in the drug business.

While examining the county jail one day last week, Sheriff Applegate found in the cell once occupied by Bennett Thompson, serving time for the murder of Fred Ristman, an ingenious tool, fashioned from a table fork and a short piece of broomstick. With this tool, tempered in the jail stove, Thompson had succeeded in drilling out seven of the nine rivets that kept him in his cell.

The Faculty Club was entertained Monday night by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker, Prof. and Mrs. Gilmer, and Rev. and Mrs. Dunlap, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker. A very excellent paper was read by Mr. Dunlap on "Self Service and Success." Following this was a discussion by Professor Gilmer and Alice Cole. The attendance was good and a very profitable evening was spent, at the close of which refreshments were served.

Ed. Naylor Monday received by express a Cotswold ram that is probably the largest sheep that was ever shipped into this place. The sheep is four years old and is from the celebrated Koser flock of Polk county which took so many prizes at the Pan-American stock show at Frisco last fall, and attracted considerable attention when it arrived here. Mr. Naylor also received by the same train from M. G. Morris of Yamhill a fine English shepherd dog.

STOVER Gasoline Engines

If you figure on buying a Gasoline Engine, why not order one at once, before they advance in price, which they are surely going to do.

We have an attractive proposition on Silos. Better get in while the water's good. We have the best door ever put on a Silo, and the price is right.

GOFF BROS.

Phone 683

Forest Grove, Ore

Pomona Grange Meeting

Washington county Pomona grange met with Riverside grange at Dilley yesterday, at which time the new officers for Pomona were installed by Mr. Chitwood of Clackamas county, as follows:

Master, Chas. Hays Sherwood; Overseer, Mrs. W. H. Denny, Beaverton; Chaplain, Mrs. B. Patton, Beaverton; Lecturer, Mrs. A. B. Flint, Scholls; Steward, Mr. Anicker, Sherwood; Assistant, Harold Cutting, Tigard; Lady Assistant, Miss Helen Olson, Tualatin; Secretary, Mrs. Chas. O'Neill, Dilley; Ceres, Miss Geiberger, Tualatin; Pomona, Miss Salmon, Scholls; Flora, Mrs. Alspaugh, Tualatin.

H. T. Buxton was elected delegate to the meeting of the state grange, to be held at Astoria in May.

The meeting opened at 10:30 a. m. and, with an intermission for dinner, lasted until late in the evening. A number of resolutions were passed and some of them sent to the law-makers at Salem.

John Striplin Dead

John A. Striplin, aged 69 years, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Smith, at McMinnville yesterday and the body will be brought to this city for burial, services being held at the M. E. church at 10:00 a. m. tomorrow, with interment in Forest View cemetery.

Deceased was a widower and leaves only the daughter with whom he has been living. He was a brick mason by trade and lived in this city many years, leaving here six years ago for McMinnville.

A New Scoutmaster

Upon the resignation of Prof. Thomas, the local contingent of Boy Scouts was left without a Scoutmaster, and Ray Terry Williams, recently discharged Sergeant from the U. S. Marine Corps, has been asked by the boys to give them instruction.

Sergeant Williams spent over two years as drill instructor of recruits at Mare Island, Calif., and will be able to give the boys valuable instruction.

Sixteen boys are now studying as Tenderfeet, to pass as full-fledged Scouts.

They meet every Saturday night in Dr. Hawke's office.

The number will be limited for the present to 16 boys but applications for membership will be accepted.

Tractor For Sale

Wadsworth tractor, nearly new; 3-14 inch gang plow; cheap for cash or part in trade. Grant Bailey, Phone D. H. 535. 3-2*

He Talked Berry Juice

After visiting dozens of the principal cities of the east, including New York, Cincinnati and Chicago, J. N. Hoffman returned home last Sunday evening, after having been away forty-one days. He went east to try and find a market for Loganberry juice and, while many dealers were afraid to stock up too heavily until they tried out the public taste, he found a number who are interested and succeeded in securing several eastern representatives to handle the temperance drink of Oregon.

Mr. Hoffman came home with a very bad cold and was confined to his bed all of yesterday.

Christian Church

The prayer meeting Wednesday evening is increasing in attendance and interest. It is a live meeting from start to finish and splendid interest is manifested in Bible study. Everybody, whether a member or not is invited to come and enjoy these Bible study hours.

Lord's Day services as follows: Bible school 9:45 a. m. Our school is growing. Come join us.

Lord's Supper and Sermon 11 a. m. Sermon second of a series "The Soul's Table."

Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. The C. E. will also have charge of the evening service. At that hour there will be special music by the church quartet and several short addresses covering the work of Christian Endeavor. Come hear the young people. R. L. PUTNAM, Pastor.

Miss Mary Bowman, who went to Pumpkin Ridge ten days ago to teach school, was taken with a severe case of pneumonia immediately after her arrival at her destination. Her parents here were notified and Dr. Vollmer, in company with Mr. Bowman, drove to Pumpkin Ridge Thursday and found the girl in an unconscious state. On Saturday she was taken to Portland and her father returned home Sunday. He spent Monday at her bedside at the Portland Sanitarium, where at last reports she was improving.

Victor J. McCone, editor of the Oregon Herald, will deliver a lecture at the Dilley high school building Jan. 30th, at 7:30 p. m. Admission free.

FOREST GROVE HOSPITAL

NOW OPEN.

Cases Received Day or Night Surgical and Obstetrical

MRS. E. N. HUGHES, Registered Nurse, Superintendent

MRS. JENNIE A. REEHER, Owner

Phone 0223 Forest Grove, Ore

The Best in

Salt and Fresh Meats

Golden West Coffees, Teas, Spices and Extracts.

All kinds of Fruits and Vegetables, in Season. Our Goods Are the Best—Our Prices Are Right.

--Right on the Corner--

The Pacific Market

Phone 0301

C. H. GIGUERE, Prop.