

The Car of QUALITY

At a Price Within Your Reach

$695

f. o. b. factory.

Any low price car can easily be called "the best," "equal to any other" or anything that over-enthusiastic salesmen care to say.

But the man who pays his money and who will investigate this proven successful Dort as we did before we put our responsibility and capital back of it as factory distributors, will find that it has the stuff in it—a sincere structure of more than needed strength and backbone and all contained in a body of streamline beauty, comfort and enduring finish.

We want capable, energetic men to demonstrate this unusual car in their home territory. Here is an opportunity to engage in business—either all or part of time; it means profitable, worthwhile employment. And even if you are not now engaged in the auto business but would like to, use the coupon. An opportunity like this is seldom offered.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

ARE YOU EFFICIENT?

HERE IS A TEST WHICH MAY BE OF INTEREST.

Anyway It's One Which Very Few Persons Find It Easy to Master, So Don't Be Distressed If You Should Fail.

Are you efficient? The awful query refuses to down. The clocks tick it, the flat wheels in the subway thump it, the ungreased curves of the elevated screech it. If you are an old business fog, the question burns in the eye of every plying employee. You find your wife measuring the distance from the range to the kitchen cabinet and your son computing the power necessary to propel a football in the lowest arc. The telephone company advises you to give your name instead of saying "Hello."

Blessed be the concrete of thought, if not of heed. Concreteness enables you to see just what the efficiency master mean. One of them, William Fretz Kemble, tells in Industrial Management "How to Test Your Employees." Of course, every man who reads it will first test his most important employee, his father's son. Watch with pad and pencil are all that is needed to acquaint yourself with your virtues and faults. In 30 seconds answer as many of these questions as you can:

Give the name of a vegetable, a metal, an insect, a reptile, a fish, a man, a woman, an ocean, a lake, a town.

If at the end of the half minute you have written only "beet, gold, flea, adder," you are pretty poor. If you have also put down "trout, Hughes, Pickford, Atlantic," you are up to human average of eight answers. If you feel that you can go beyond ten answers, you may describe the color of water, tea, beer, ivory, the sky, grass, milk, chalk, coal and skin. But men who go beyond 15 answers in 30 seconds are rare; they should have secretaries, limousines and big black cigars.

Next try to answer five "difficult" questions in 20 seconds.

1. Who is the greatest living general?
2. What is the most powerful force in the world?
3. What is the greatest modern discovery?
4. What is the greatest necessity of commerce?
5. What is the cheapest food for the human race?

Secretary Redfield probably would not answer that in less than 11,840 words. You perhaps will write "ships" or "railroads" and pass on to the last:

Bread, unless you are a fiend for lentils or employed by the makers of fluted oat-corn. But you ought to answer three of these questions in 20 seconds, says Mr. Kemble. If you answer fewer, it indicates "slowness or deliberation in thought."

Attracted by Hats.
Mrs. Bacon—I see there are many women sailors among the Finns and Norwegians.

Mr. Bacon—Well, they think 'em so becoming that some women will do anything to be able to wear a sailor hat.

Something Overlooked.
She—Didn't you promise me I should be the queen of your home?
He—Yes, but when I promised you should reign, I didn't think you were going to storm.

Sheep-Raising in the East.
If the abandoned farms could be utilized for sheep-raising, it will be a long way toward reducing the cost of living in this country. The sheep industry was originally started on the Atlantic seaboard, of course; but it has worked its way westward until now there are only a few sheep breeders in the East. That the industry can be brought back to the East is a sure thing. Sheep, it is well known, are the most economical domestic animals produced. They can live on almost nothing. It has been estimated that every sheep in the United States produces a profit of $10 annually. If we can bring back the industry to the eastern states and use the abandoned farms for grazing, we shall very soon make a dent in the high cost of living.—Boston Globe.

Them Fool Doctors.
"I thought you told me that your doctor had ordered you to quit drinking," said Smith. "Aw, these doctors don't know what they are talking about," replied Brown, as he stirred his highball. "I quit drinking for two days and I didn't feel a bit better."

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only the old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Woman Saved From a Serious Surgical Operation.

Louisville, Ky.—"For four years I suffered from female troubles, headaches, and nervousness. I could not sleep, had no appetite and it hurt me to walk. If I tried to do any work, I would have to lie down before it was finished. The doctors said I would have to be operated on and I simply broke down. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the result is I feel like a new woman. I am well and strong, do all my own house work and have an eight pound baby girl. I know Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which every woman dreads."—Mrs. NELLIE FISHBACK, 1521 Christy Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Everyone naturally dreads the surgeon's knife. Sometimes nothing else will do, but many times Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved the patient and made an operation unnecessary.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free.
