

DRY LUMBER

OUR PRIDE is Dry Lumber. We have the only sheds in Washington county big enough to house everything. We keep everything to build with. Lumber always bright and new.

Cement and Plaster always fresh and quick-setting. We keep it that way.

If you want to build a house, a barn, a garage, a chicken house or a silo, we have the stuff right here. We don't have to order it. Drive in and get it. We give you a positive guarantee that our READY ROOFING will last you for 10 to 15 years. We buy in quantity. We buy cheap and we sell cheap. Come in and talk. That is what we are here for.

Miscellaneous

Earl Ringle, who was a prominent figure in the late Hillsboro Mercantile case, was allowed his freedom last Saturday morning after making a $250 restitution to the company and paying $50 of the fine imposed by the court. The remainder he will pay at the rate of $10 per month for 10 months.

The county clerk's office reported fees collected this past month as $390.90 and the recorder's office reported $348.75.

Sheriff Applegate is enthusiastically looking forward to the time in the near future when the sheriffs' offices throughout the state will begin the use of finger prints as a means of identification for prisoners. Bertillon Expert Hunter of the Portland detective force will instruct the officers of the different counties in the use of this wonderful system of identification, and before long the poster with its identification figures and description surmounted by a picture of the hunted man will be a thing of the past. At present it is declared by those who know, the Washington county sheriff's office is in closer connection with the Portland police and detectives than ever before in the history of that office.

The Camp Fire girls enjoyed a good time at gym party Wednesday after school. The girls engaged in the many sports which the gym affords and spent a lively afternoon in games and contests. They were especially ready to welcome the delicious "eats" which closed the afternoon's program. Forest Grove now has four "camps" and they are planning to make great steps toward the advancement and benefit of this town and themselves.

Whipped Vancouver

The Forest Grove high school basketball quintet last Saturday evening defeated the Vancouver squad in this city by a score of 39 to 21. This is the last game of the season and the high school athletes are now preparing for the baseball season.

The state triennial convention of the Royal Neighbors of America will be held in Portland next Tuesday and Wednesday, presided over by Mrs. Rose E. Corl of Corvallis, state oracle. The Congregational Endeavor society held a social at the church Tuesday evening. The time was spent in unique games and stunts, and all declared the refreshments of sherbet and wafers to be a fine termination to a pleasant evening.

County Fair Dates

Oct. 2, 3, 4 and 5

At a meeting of shareholders of the Washington County Fair Association, held in the Rogers Library Monday evening, it was decided to hold the 1917 fair on the College Campus, where it was held last year, on Oct. 2, 3, 4 and 5.

The 1916 officers were re-elected, as follows:

J. P. Hurley, President.

W. J. McCready, First Vice President.

A. E. Wescott, Second Vice President.

R. W. Reeder, Secretary.

H. E. Ferrin, Treasurer.

The above, with Walter Roswurm, A. G. Hoffman, L. M. Graham, Joe A. Wiles, C. A. Littler and C. A. Broderson are the directors.

The Express prints butter wrappers with non-poisonous ink.

Harry Goff informs the Express that after May 20, under the provisions of a new law, hunting and fishing licenses will cost $1.50 each—$1.50 for hunting and $1.50 for fishing. The present price is $1 each. Goff's can supply you now at the lower price and all they get out of the transaction is the trouble—and your good will.

Catholic Church Notes

Following is the schedule of lectures to be delivered by Father Buck at Verts hall this month:
