Skin'er.
No doubt Jenkins married Lobelia Genoff for love. At any rate beauty can't have had anything to do with it. Her face would have ripened a cheese or stopped a train.
One day, soon after his marriage, Jenkins met a pal and timidly asked him what he thought of Lobelia.
"Help! Don't ask me!" gasped the pal.
"Beauty is only skin deep, your honor!" remonstrated Jenkins, stiffly.
"Skin'er, then, dear chap!" advised the pal. "For heaven's sake, skin'er!"—Exchange.

She Had Heard of One.
"Whoever saw a perfect man?" asked an evangelist at a revival meeting. "There is no such thing. Every man has his faults, plenty of them."
Of course, no one had ever seen a perfect man, and consequently the statement of the revivalist was received with silence. The revivalist continued:
"Whoever saw a perfect woman?"
At this juncture a tall, thin woman arose.
"Do you mean to say, madam," the evangelist asked, "that you have seen a perfect woman?"
"Well, I can't just say that I have seen her," the woman replied, "but I have heard a great deal about her—my husband's first wife."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Take care of your health and wealth with care of you. Garfield Tea promotes health.

A Perfect Day.
Leaning against the rail of an East 10th street car one morning when the temperature was below zero, was a big fellow in a fur-lined overcoat and a fur cap. As the car proceeded down-townward it, of course, became jammed with humanity. Girls finally crowded in among the men on the back platform. The man in the fur cap smiled and then, across the crisp zero air, wafted the whistled notes of "A Perfect Day."
"Listen to that guy whistle 'A Perfect Day,'" remarked a half frozen back-platformer. "I don't know whether he's whistling it as a compliment to his furs or to the fact that there are ladies on the back platform."—Indianapolis News.

Did that itching keep you awake last night?
And how can you expect to sleep tonight unless you do something to relieve the trouble? Eczema and other itching skin troubles don't often heal themselves. But it is surprising how quickly Resinol Ointment heals sick skins.

Almost daily we hear from a skin sufferer who says "Resinol Ointment stopped my itching at once and I got the first good night's sleep I had had in weeks. Now my skin is well." Resinol Ointment is sold by all druggists.

Thales of Miletus.
The first scientific thinker was Thales of Miletus, born about 636 B. C. He was the first to attempt a logical solution of material phenomena without resorting to mythological representation. In other words, Thales was the first man, so far as we know, to try to find out the actual truth concerning the world we live in, its origin, constitution and destiny.—Exchange.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets a ft. fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Very Puzzling.
Eddie, who had always attended a Baptist Sunday school, was taken on a visit to Sunday school at a Methodist church. "Mamma, how is this?" he said. "I thought you said this was a Methodist Sunday school."
"So it is, my dear."
"Well, but, mamma, the lesson was all about John the Baptist."—

LISTEN TO THIS! SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

Prohibition Attitude in the Senate.

One reason for the remarkable progress that prohibition is making can be found in the attitude of men who themselves take a tolerant attitude toward the use of liquor, but have been impressed by the wreck which is wrought by alcohol all around them. Typical of this is a statement made by Senator Smith of Georgia when announcing that he was going to vote in favor of prohibition for Washington:

"With me opposition to the use of spirituous and intoxicating drink has been a gradual growth. When I leave myself free to think about it and realize the skeletons found in almost every home as a result of its use, I have reached the place where I am willing never to have it on my table any more, although I enjoy a glass of wine myself; and I am willing in my state and hope in my state this next summer to help make it absolutely dry."—From Collier's Weekly for February 3rd.

Coated tongue, vertigo and constipation are relieved by Garfield Tea.

Gay Life in Brooklyn.

This, remarks the Pittsburgh Post, is how a Brooklynite has spent the 36 years of his life:

We are 36 years of age, and this is how we have spent our time:
One year buttoning our collar.
Two years tying our necktie.
Seven years waiting in barber shops.
Four years looking at punk musical comedies.
Six months sleeping.
Nine years dodging bill collectors.
Two years waiting for trains.
Three years waiting for our wife to get dressed.
Two years chewing tough beefsteak.
Four years looking for jobs.
Six months working.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

The Injured One.

"It would seem," said the tourist, "that you Arkansians people would be quicker to resent the slurs and sneering jokes about yourselves that are constantly being published in the papers?"

"Well," replied Mr. Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark., "I've noticed that when you fling a rock into a pack of dogs the one that hollers is the one that got hit."—Kansas City Star.

For a disordered liver, take Garfield Tea, the Herb laxative. All druggists.

A Pattern.

Mrs. Simpson had taken her little daughter out to tea with her, and during the meal was horrified to see the child trying to force a thick piece of bread into a very small pocket.

"Why, Marion," she said in shocked surprise, "what on earth are you doing?"

"That's all right, mother," her small daughter assured her. "I'm just taking this slice back to nurse for a pattern."—Exchange.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
