Caples & Co. Monday morning shipped 42 cases of eggs to Portland, the accumulation of two days. At $10 per case, this should encourage the poultrymen.

Thirty Forest Grove Boy Scouts participated in the big patriotic parade at Portland last Thursday, members of the Commercial Club having paid the expenses of the Scouts.

You'll enjoy mowing the lawn if you get the easy-adjusting, light-running "Eclipse" mower. Adjusted by a single thumb-screw and is self-sharpening. See it at the Gordon Hardware Store.

The card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Macrum Saturday night for the benefit of the Belgian Relief fund was well attended, thirteen tables being played. Mrs. M. R. Johnson won first lady's prize and Mrs. C. O. Roe second, while C. O. Roe took first gent's prize and M. R. Johnson second. A nice lunch was served after the playing.

A number of Washington county stock breeders secured excellent animals at a big sale held at Oregon City last week. V. S. Abraham of Patton Valley secured two fine bulls, Fairacres and Flying Fox, and six young cows; George Withycombe bought a cow and two fine heifers while Barnett Y. Roe of Wapato recently received from the Willowmoor farm, near Seattle, a fine yearling Ayrshire bull.

Gale Grange

Gale Grange will meet Saturday, May 5th, 1917 at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Routine work, special committee reports, initiation in first and second degrees and new business will be conducted during the forenoon session. Dinner at noon. The lecture hour program will begin at 1:30.

Don't forget to bring a well filled basket. Committee.

"Shall Washington County have a County Agent?" will be discussed by B. Roe of Gaston and others from Yamhill county, which has had an agent for two years. C. W. Creel of the local U. S. Entomological department will give a practical talk to farmers on "Insect Pests of Clover." At this season much can be done to eliminate the pests. We urge the farmers to be present and promise them a profitable session. Secretary.

Attention Veterans

The Annual Meeting of the Washington County Veterans will be held at Forest Grove, Oregon, in K. of P. Hall, May 3d, 1917. Meeting will be called to order at 10 A. M. for the election of officers and the transaction of any business that may be offered.

Gaston Odd Fellows Celebrated

The Gaston Odd Fellows Saturday night celebrated with a fine program and splendid supper the 98th anniversary of the founding of their order in America. The hall was crowded with members and their families and a few visitors from other lodges.

The address of welcome was made by Noble Grand A. M. Porter and S. A. Walker of this city responded on behalf of the visitors. The principal address was made by W. G. Hare of Hillsboro, with an address on the timely subject of "Food Production" by W. K. Newell of Seghers.

There was a nice musical program and a splendid supper.

W. C. T. U. Parlor Meeting

A fully-attended parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at Mrs. Potwin's last Friday. Mrs. Bishop led devotional exercises and Margaret Jones sang a solo, "Peace Be Still." The subject for the day, "Our Girls," was made very interesting by the appearance, in costume, of Miss Ruth Patton of the Campfire Girls, who gave some account of their work. A pleasant coincidence was the presence of Mrs. Shaw of Honolulu (sister of Dr. Bishop), whose daughter furnished the illustrations for the books used by the Campfire Girls and written by Mrs. Gulick.

A symposium then followed, in which many of those present took part, including Mesdames Walter Vollmer, Benjamin, Shaw and Bolderick. K. B. Penfield.
