"I am sorry that you do not wear a flag every day and I can only ask you if you lose the physical emblem to be sure that you wear it IN YOUR HEART; the heart of America shall interpret the heart of the world."—President Wilson.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Kid Has Gone to The Colors

The Kid has gone to the Colors
And we don't know what to say;
The Kid we have loved and cuddled
Stepped out for the Flag today.
We thought him a child, a baby,
With never a care at all.
But his country called him man-size
And the Kid has heard the call.
He paused to watch the recruiting,
Where, fired by the fife and drum,
He bowed his head to Old Glory
And thought that it whispered,
"Come!"
The Kid, not being a slacker,
Stood forth with patriot-joy
To add his name to the roster—
And God, we're proud of the boy!
The Kid has gone to the Colors;
It seems but a little while
Since he drilled a schoolboy army
In a truly martial style.
But now he's a man, a soldier,
And we lend him a listening ear,
For his heart is a heart all loyal,
Unscourged by the curse of fear.

His dad, when he told him, shuddered;
His mother—God bless her!—cried;
Yet, blest with a mother-nature,
She wept with a mother-pride.
But he whose old shoulders straightened
Was Grandad—for memory ran
To years when he, too, a youngster,
Was changed by the flag to a man!

Are you doing your share of patriotic gardening?

With eggs in danger of going to a dollar a dozen this coming winter, a flock of laying hens will mark the owner as a potential millionaire. Have you the hens?

The man who makes potatoes grow where weeds used to grow is as much a patriot as the man who makes shot or shell or bayonet. Edison and Burbank are better men for their country than ten Hindenburgs or Hohenzollerns.

Standpat republican papers are looking around for someone to keep Oswald West from going to the U. S. senate as Harry Lane's successor. Most of these papers concede that Lane is not the man to head off the peppery Oswald. Well, why not let it go by default? What's wrong with West?

Economists and mathematicians are trying to figure out how much money is wasted yearly in this country by having two railroads running side by side when one could do all the business. The waste is certainly immense, but so long as railroad heads have influence with commerce commissions and can get rates raised at pleasure, it might be dangerous to eliminate competition, unless the government owned the railroads.

The newspaper reporters of Astoria must have a snap filling up their papers with interesting news. Even the mayor furnishes some excitement sometimes. One night last week, according to a story in a Portland paper, Hizzoner went on a rampage and had the city marshal throw one of the councilmen out of the city hall. The councilman resisted and was considerably roughed up. Later the mayor took exceptions to some remarks made on the streets by C. A. Lawton, editor of the Knights of Pythias paper, and turned the editor over to a policeman. And a little later the mayor got into a fight with an auto chauffeur and both combatants were arrested and the mayor was fined $40 and costs. Then Hizzoner tore the badge off the policeman who arrested him and said "You're fired." A few days later the councilman who was ejected from the city hall had the chief of police arrested for assaulting him. Some town for news, that! Astoria is sure getting some advertising on account of its mayor, but whether it will do the town any good, is another matter. The writer thinks not. Better have a peaceable mayor, like our Mr. Paterson, than a rip-shorter like Mayor Harley of Astoria.

The promoters of the good roads movement, including the $6,000,000 bond issue, are in need of funds to acquaint voters of the desirability of voting the bonds and those who want good roads badly enough to contribute to this publicity fund are invited to send their contributions to E. D. Cusick, treasurer state-wide legislative good roads committee, Albany, Oregon. Are you one of them?

THE PENALTY

In these trying hours there may arise a few who will try to get rich quick at the expense of the nation and its people, but it will be neither profitable nor wise for them to attempt anything of the kind. If their business is national in its scope, the government will handle them without gloves. The president has so warned them.

If their business is local in its character, we (the people) will see that they get their just deserts.

There must be no price-boosting, no gouging, no angling for sudden wealth for the few at the expense of misery for many.

The man who cannot be a patriot from choice, must have it thrust upon him from necessity.

The people are mighty and their will must prevail. It must be a period of loyalty and live and let live.—Placerville (Cal) Nugget.

KILL FLIES AND SAVE LIVES

Kill at once every fly you can find and burn his body.

Observers say that there are many reasons to believe there will be more flies this season than for a number of years.

The killing of just one fly now means there will be billions and trillions less next summer.

Clean up your own premises; see and insist that your neighbors do likewise.

Especially clean "out-of-the-way-places" and every nook and cranny.

Flies will not go where there is nothing to eat, and their principal diet is too filthy to mention.

He Went

A young lady who had entertained a young man until the roosters had crowed their last crow, handed him a pencil and paper and asked him to make nine ciphers in a row, thus—000000000. Then she told him to draw a short line down from the right of the first cipher, a short line up from the right side of the fourth cipher, a short line down from the right side of the fifth cipher a short line up from the right side of the seventh cipher, and a short line down from the right side of the eighth cipher. Then he was to read what he had written. Try it and you will know what the young man did.

CATHOLIC SERVICES

On Sunday, June 3rd, a newly-ordained priest, Rev. Father Leo Walsh, O. S. B., will sing a solemn high mass in St. Anthony's Church of this city at 10:30 A. M., to which the public is welcome. The priest's first blessing will be given at the close of the Mass and everyone may receive it, both Catholic and non Catholic, if they wish. Rev. Thomas Meier, O. S. B., will preach the sermon.
J. R. Buck.

Ladies, do you know that John Anderson can sell you just as stylish waists, skirts and coats as you can get anywhere? Come and see them before you send for something you can't see until after you have paid for it.
