NOTES AND PERSONALS

R. C. Hill was looking after business in Portland yesterday.

Claude Davis has about recovered from his recent operation.

Bruce Roe entertained a few of his friends at games and refreshments Tuesday evening.

George G. Hancock, real estate, farm loans and fire insurance, new Anderson block. 50

Word comes from Portland that a son and heir was born Saturday to Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Bushnell.

The Alpha Zeta society of P. U. enjoyed a picnic outing up the Columbia highway last Saturday.

On her way back from the Rebekah assembly meeting at Eugene, Mrs. H. R. Bernard visited her daughter, Mrs. Rogers, at McMinnville. Mr. Bernard went up Saturday evening and spent Sunday with his wife and daughter.

Next Tuesday, June 5th, the people of Dilley will have a public flag-raising, with appropriate ceremonies, commencing at 10 a. m. and continuing the greater part of the day. Good speakers have been engaged for the occasion and Forest Grove people are invited to attend.

Rev. Father Leo Walsh, O. S. B., a newly-ordained priest, will be the guest of Father Buck and will sing a solemn High Mass in St. Anthony's Chapel on Sunday, June 3rd, at 10:30. The Priest's First Blessing will be given after the Mass, which every one may receive that wishes. The public is invited.

Last Saturday, while W. C. Tucker was taking a load of debris away from the Templeton building, where the front is being remodeled and a cement floor laid, somebody let a brick fall on his head, cutting a painful gash. Bill says he notices that after he was hurt, the workmen were more careful not to drop any more brick, which is 'nt much consolation to him.

At the state meeting of the P. E. O., held in Portland last week, Mrs. B. F. White of this city was elected state corresponding secretary and Mrs. Dorothy Seymour delegate to the supreme convention, to be held in Omaha in October. Mesdames Bailey and Burlingham were the delegates from this city to the Portland meeting and Mrs. White was second vice president and Mrs. Seymour state organizer.

Miss Jennie Armstrong left for Seattle Tuesday, where she will visit friends a few weeks.

Henry Swanson and sister, Miss Edith Swanson of Portland, were visiting in the Grove Wednesday.

Highest price paid for wool and mohair and new and second-hand wool sacks for sale at A. G. Hoffman & Co.'s.

Mrs. J. F. Woods of Portland, and Mrs. Eva Derby of Multnomah were calling on friends in Fores Grove Tuesday.

Miss Mary Beach, an operative patient at the local hospital, has so far improved that she is convalescing at her home.

While sawing wood on his place, near Dilley, last Saturday, C. N. Johnson had his left hand badly mangled and will lose several fingers.

Dan Pierce was elected noble grand and Carl Curtis vice grand at the semi-annual election of the Odd Fellows Monday night. R. C. Hill, a delegate to the recent grand lodge meeting at Eugene, made a report of the proceedings.

The good roads meeting held at Orenco last Saturday was well attended and proved a big boost for the bond issue. County Commissioner Rufus Holman of Multnomah county, Judge Reasoner and Senator Wood were the principal speakers on this subject, while Dr. Hector MacPherson of O. A. C. spoke on the food preparedness campaign.

Officers of the Agricultural College have asked for a report of the gardening being done in Forest Grove this year and for this purpose a canvass will be made next Saturday by the Honor Guard Girls. It will facilitate matters if everyone will have ready an estimate of what they are doing. All members of the Honor Guard will report at the gymnasium at 2 o'clock.

New Site Approved

The postoffice department has approved the recommendation of the inspector to the effect that the postoffice be moved to the Wirtz building, on South Main street, and the building will be prepared for occupancy by the time the lease on the present site expires—August 1st. Postmaster Wirtz has received word to this effect, as has J. J. Wirtz, principal owner of the new site.

Deaf, But Not Dumb

Claude C. Moxley, a deaf-mute—married to a deaf mute—of Gaston was taken into custody at Enterprise the other day and Sheriff Applegate will bring him to stand trial on the charge of passing a bad check at the Shute Savings. Moxley has two brothers who have broken into the cells, one of whom was caught by Geo. Hancock, when he was sheriff, and for whom Hancock received a $500 reward from Moxley's bondsmen. Claude Moxley has two children. He also is wanted for passing a bad check at Yamhill.—Hillsboro Argus.

The same chap passed worthless checks on a local hotel and dry goods store, but got only small amounts in change.

Woodmen Surprised

While the members of the local M. W. A. camp were holding their meeting last Friday night, they were surprised to hear unusual noises in the kitchen and when a committee was sent to investigate, the kitchen and dining room were discovered filled with busy women, who turned out to be Royal Neighbors, bent on feeding the Woodmen and holding an indoor picnic. Camp business was rushed through and an excellent lunch was served by the Royal Neighbors, after which games and music served to pass the time pleasantly for several hours. The Royal Neighbors are auxiliary to the Woodmen and feel it their duty to keep their brothers well-fed and alive and some of the games played Friday night were certainly calculated to keep the victims from going to sleep, according to the opinion of Neighbors Jim Nichols and A. E. Scott.

Roosevelt Can't Come

In reply to Judge Beach's invitation to make an address in this city during the G. A. R. encampment, Theodore Roosevelt writes Mr. Beach from New York that his time is so taken up this summer that he will not be able to visit the west. Mr. Roosevelt has many friends in Oregon who would come to this city to hear him, were he to speak here.

W. C. T. U.

The annual Flower-Mission day of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Dr. Bishop's lawn, on Friday, June 1st, at 2:30 p. m. Contributions of flowers would be acceptable. K. B. Penfield.
