Miss Lorraine and Master Chas. Giguere, jr., attended the Rose festival in Portland yesterday.

People who have rooms to rent during the G. A. R. encampment—June 26, 27 and 28—please notify Mrs. John Anderson.

J. H. Devlin of Portland spent Sunday with the family of his sister, Mrs. Charles Hines.

Willis Hines expects to leave shortly for Hot Springs, Wash., to take treatment for rheumatism.

Mrs. P. A. Hines arrived Tuesday evening from Jacksonville, this state, for a visit with the family of Dr. Chas. Hines.

A fine line of ladies' spring coats, in the latest style and most approved pattern, just received at Anderson's. Come and see them.

Mrs. H. B. Moore departed Tuesday for Portland, where the family will reside until Dr. Moore finds a new location to suit him.

The short-burner "Bon-Ami" kerosene stove brings the heat close to your cooking utensil. See it at the Gordon hardware store.

Joe A. Wiles would like to write your insurance. Will give you service that will be to your advantage. Upstairs in Anderson block, room 2. 52

Mrs. Mary House and daughter, Liola, returned Saturday from Coalinga, Calif., where they spent the winter. Earl taught in the high school at Coalinga last year, but will probably not remain next term.

Ladies, do you know that John Anderson can sell you just as stylish waists, skirts and coats as you can get anywhere? Come and see them before you send for something you can't see until after you have paid for it.

Dr. W. B. Coon returned Monday from a business trip to Alberta, Canada. Glen Hoar, who accompanied him, secured a job on a farm at $60 per month, with board and washing and remained. Dr. Coon says help is scarce in Canada.

Since Canada is a daughter of Great Britain and the latter is cousin and ally of the United States in the fight against Prussian militarism, W. F. Johnson has hoisted the Union Jack and Canadian colors and French flag alongside Old Glory at his residence, on B street.

J. W. Hughes, the famous auctioneer, last Saturday sold for the Guernsey Cattle Club of Tillamook twenty-three cows and heifers, which brought an average of $406.70 per head. Six bulls brought $2,200 and one junior yearling heifer brought $800. About half of the stock left the vicinity in which it was sold.

Mr. and Mrs. James Spangler, former residents of this section, accompanied by three of Mrs. Spangler's sisters, were in the city Saturday, enroute, via auto, for upper valley points. Since leaving this section, "Jim" Spangler has prospered and is now manager of the leading bank of Seattle. He hunted up Charley Roe, Jake Buxton and some of the other men who were boys twenty-three years ago.

Where the Red Cross Funds Are Expended

Until the Red Cross Week, June 18-25, is past and the $400,000 asked of Oregon, outside Multnomah County, for the $100,000 emergency Red Cross fund, has been secured, it is asked that large social affairs be discontinued in order that all energy may be given the big, patriotic task assigned to this state.

At the same time, H. L. Corbett, chairman of the State Red Cross Committee, suggests that such methods of raising money for the Red Cross as teas and socials be discontinued. He believes the situation too grave, the need too pressing and Oregon's responsibility too great to go about the work in a small way. Each community will be systematically districted by its committee and loyal citizens are asked to have their contributions ready to give direct without loss of time or extra costs. It is desired that every cent shall be utilized directly for Red Cross Service.

In the organization of the general state campaign, special representatives of the state committee will confer personally with practically every community in Oregon.

Arrangements have been made for reports from all Oregon communities which will be summarized and sent out as bulletins of progress. The state at large is asked for $400,000; the city of Portland for $200,000. There will be keen competition between state and Portland committees to be first in reporting success.

There are those who want to know why the Red Cross is so important to the nation in its war emergency that President Wilson issued a proclamation appealing for $100,000,000 fund and setting aside Red Cross Week in which to raise it.

At the front line trenches, stretcher bearers wearing the insignia of the Red Cross will be found carrying the wounded to the rear. Red Cross ambulances are carrying the wounded to Red Cross base hospitals where Red Cross physicians and nurses faithfully nurse the wounded soldiers back to health, in order that they may return to the world war for liberty, or be able to come back to those who wait for them at home.

The bandages used in Red Cross hospitals are made by devoted women, working for the Red Cross in many communities.

The vocational training given soldiers incapacitated for former employment will be organized by the Red Cross. The mother who has given up her boy, her support, to the service of his country, will find her necessities cared for by the Red Cross and he can march away with no anxious thought as to her welfare.

The training of the Red Cross nurses is under Red Cross direction. Thus all along the line the Universal Service of Mercy helps to lessen the horrors and rigors of war and to strengthen the nation. The United States cannot do its part without the Red Cross and the Red Cross is dependent on the contributions of those who want to help win the war, but cannot serve at the front.

Even the Pennies Help the Boys in the Trenches

What part can the "kiddies," the tender, big-hearted little boys and girls do to help win the war?

This is one of the questions that has been interesting the leaders in the great Red Cross drive for $400,000.

They believe they have arrived at a solution of it and will attempt to arouse the enthusiasm of the youngsters to a pitch as keen as that of the grownups who are waging the battle for the dollars.

The plan is to enlist the assistance of the parents and urge them to instill at this time the patriotic need of exercising self-sacrifice and self-restraint in the smaller things that eat up the pennies and nickels that the "kiddies" spend for "eats" and goodies of all kinds.

Parents will also be urged to help their children to earn a few more pennies or dimes during the next few weeks than they have been in the habit of doing and to ask the kiddies to save their earnings above what they actually need and give them to the Red Cross fund.

If the school children of Oregon averaged only a dime apiece they would swell the Red Cross fund by a magnificent sum of over $3,000. If they averaged but a nickel apiece, the grand total would be between $1500 and $2,000.

How important the pennies and nickels and dimes may be in the alleviation of suffering and misery among the wounded on the battlefields of Europe, where the American soldiers will soon be doing their bit to help win the war, is shown by some figures prepared by the Red Cross. For example:

One cent will buy iodine to disinfect a wound

One cent will buy enough gauze for one dressing.

A nickel will buy a bandage

Eight cents will pay for a temporary splint.

A dime will provide chloroform for an operation.

Twenty-five cents expended as above may save a limb or a life of a wounded soldier.

Every man, woman and child in the state can do something in this gigantic Red Cross Campaign. There will be many of those who are not circumstanced so as to be among the heavy givers, but there never was a movement in the history of philanthropy which offered such abundant opportunity for the high and low, rich and poor to join hands in the common cause as it is presented by the American Red Cross.

DILLEY NOTES

Riverside Grange held its regular meeting last Friday, but, on account of the farmers being very busy, there was not as large an attendance as usual, although a splendid program had been prepared. Mrs. Craft's paper, which will be published in the Grange Bulletin, deserves special mention. There will be no meetings during July and August, but the Matrons will hold their regular meetings every fourth Friday.

There was a farewell surprise party Saturday evening at the Hughes home for Cecil Hughes and Harold Judd, who were called to join Company E, Engineering Corps, at American Lake for training.

The Social committee of Riverside Grange will give a silver tea and parcel post sale Friday afternoon, June 22. Everybody invited.

A Red Cross meeting was held Sunday at the home of Judge Stevens to prepare for the big drive next week to raise Dilley's share ($500) of the $100,000,000 that President Wilson has called for. Mrs. B. F. White, B. J. Simpson and Judge Hollis of Forest Grove were the speakers. The following officers were elected: J. A. Forbis, chairman; Mrs. C. A. Brodersen, secretary; Mrs. A. Briggs, treasurer; J. W. Hughes and F. McBride, publicity committee; Mrs. C. N. Johnson and Mr. F. McBride, team captains.

Mrs. Minnie Peterson Povey left on Wednesday for Portland for a visit with her sister.

Mrs. H. M. Sailing is attending the Portland Rose Festival this week.

Mrs. Frank Sutford will spend the week-end at Portland.

Don't forget the Red Cross meeting Saturday evening. Good program; no soliciting.

Mrs. VanMeter has several visitors from Portland this week.

A Suggestion

Mr. Editor:

The special occasion is the parent of suggestion. We are mindful of the fact that a person can easily acquire the title of "Mr. Buttinsky" by too frequent use of his suggestions.

Hoping I may be pardoned for attempting anything so bold as a mild suggestion, I will say that a beautiful city, about the size of Forest Grove, Oregon, is the most charming of all the beauties when she is dressed up in her National decorations, along about June 26, 27 and 28, 1917.

OBSERVER.

A paragraph on the editorial page states that Oregon has not raised her share of Liberty Loan funds, but since that page was printed word comes from Portland that Oregon will take at least $1,500,000 more than was asked of her.

Pentecostal Mission

There will be services as usual at Langley hall, on Pacific avenue, opposite Forest Grove hotel, on Tuesday, Friday and Sunday evenings of each week at 7:45 and also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Evangelists Bezan and Bacon and band of workers from Portland will conduct the Sunday afternoon and evening meetings. Everybody welcome.

GALES CREEK

Mrs. Arthur Parks of Portland is visiting her father, Wm. Lousingnot. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ayres and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Maitland and baby visited the families of Fred Robison and Frank Maitland at Cherry Grove last Sunday.

Mrs. John Wilson visited the Chas. Maitland home Tuesday.

Mr. Kalsch made a business trip to the Grove Tuesday.

The Red Cross has started a campaign for funds in Gales Creek.

The building of the new railroad is making some changes in property in this section.

Dan Pierce took a truck load of beef cattle to Portland for George Fisher Tuesday.

Mrs. George Fisher is visiting her mother, Mrs. Belle Lilley.

Harrison Heisler has purchased a new lumber wagon.

Mrs. Ora Smith was in Portland Wednesday.
